Striped Shawls .- Wm. Atkinson.

Notice.—P. Crosby.

RICHMOND HILL, OCTOBER 20, 1871.

Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana have lately been devastated by the most fearful conflagrations immaginable. In some counties all the farm houses, villages and towns have been destroyed. The suffering is extreme; the blackened country is strewn with the dead bodies of men and beast, while many of those who escaped with life have been fearfully burned. The loss of life and property is said to be even greater than that of the Chicago conflagration.

POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS .- The Post Office authorities have thought proper to make new arrangements with regard to the despatch of mail matter to the several post offices in the western part of the township of Markham, which for many years past were made at the Post Office Fancy knitting in cotton, 2, 1st Mrs T in our village, on Tuesdays and Fridays.

At present the base for British in the British in the base for B At present the bags for Buttonville, Headford, Victoria Square, Gormley, Cashel, Almira, etc. are despatched from Toronto to Unicnville by the Nipissing Railroad, and from there sent to the various offices on the route on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. This may be an advantage to some, but to many residents in the western part of Markham it will prove a great inconvenience. Numbers of the people living near Headford, and on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th concessions did the greater portion of their business in this town, and now, if they wish to communicate by letter, it must go by Unionville to Toronto, and thence to Richmond Hill; a distance of somewhere near forty-five or fifty miles, when the actual distance is only about three or four. This may be an improvement on the former programme, but many of the parties mainly interested think differently.
