RICHMOND HILL, JANUARY 12, 1872.

TOWNSHIP COUNCILS.—The first meeting of the Township Councils of Vaughan and Markham, will be held on Monday next.

The next Annual meeting of the Vaughan Agricultural Society will be held at Burwick, on Saturday next, the 13th inst., at the Inkerman hotel, at 3 o'clock, P.M.

We learn that Mayor Coursol, of Montreal, has had the Royal order of Spain conferred on him, it is also expected that Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir George E. Cartier have been honored in the same manner.

COLLEGE APPOINTMENT.—It is our pleasing duty this week to inform our readers of the appointment of Mr. James Room Kay, that celebrated and popular elocutionist, as Professor of Elocution in Hellenath and Huron Colleges.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—A missionary meeting, in connection with the Presbyterian Church of this town, will be held on Thursday evening next, the 18th inst. The Rev. Mr. McMullen, of Woodstock, and the Rev. Mr. Pringle, of Brampton, will form the deputation to address the meeting.

RE-UNION.—The second Re-union of the season will be held under the auspices of the Mechanics' Institute in the Masonic Hall, Richmond Hill, on Tuesday evening, the 16th inst. Proceedings to consist of vocal and instrumental music, readings, &c., by several new and talented amateurs. No pains have been spared to make the entertainment a successful one. Doors open at 7:30 P.M.; to commence at 8. Admission, 10 cents. Programmes at the door.

E. R. Y. AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the East Riding of York Agricultural Society will be held at Milliken's hotel Milliken's Corners, Markham, on Thursday next, the 18th inst., at 10 o'clock A.M. The object of the meeting is to receive and adopt the report of the directors, and elect officers for the ensuing year. It is desired that the same interest shall be taken this year as heretofore, and that there will be a large attendance.

The trial of John Travis for the murder on the 23rd of November last, of John Johnson, a farmer in the township of East Gwillimbury, commenced on Wednesday morning last, at the Assizes in Toronto, before the Hon. Justice Wilson. A number of witnesses were examined in regard to the tragedy, and the case for the Crown was closed before the Court rose. Mr. R. A. Harrison, Q.C., for the defence, addressed the jury yesterday. Mr. K. McKenzie, Q.C., conducted the prosecution. Up to the hour of going to press we have not learned the verdict of the jury.

The Local Legislature is announced to meet on Thursday next, the 18th inst. Nothing startling in the way of legislation. We expect the new Commissioner of Crown Lands will take the earliest opportunity to refute the "vile slanders" published against him some weeks ago in the Toronto Telegraph. We fear the entire session, and the whole strength of the Grit-Republican party will not be equal to the task. However, lively times may be expected, as Mr. Scott has promised to prove the Telegraph wrong—and the assertions made by it far from the truth. He has a big job in hand.

OPPOSITION OR STARVATION.

We copy from the Toronto Leader, an article under the above caption. The heading is significant, and is evidently called forth by the expression "Go into opposition or we shall starve up there," said to have been used by Mr. Gordon Brown, at the time the Hon. George buried the hatchet, and shortly after he had delivered himself of the celebrated "melting speech," in June, 1864. The Leader, as usual, ably shows up the inconsistency of the Globe and proves that its occupation is gone when the guns of the Grit organ are required for defensive operations instead of assailing the enemy. Evidently the Globe, in George's own words, "is trying to rise superior to the pitifulness of party" politics in the interests of our country, by having nothing to say as to the Blake Scott coalition. We recommend the article referred to, to the attention of our readers.

INCORPORATION.

We observe that the inhabitants of Markham village are agitating for the incorporation of their town and are about to hold a meeting to have the question thoroughly ventilated. We hope they will succeed in maturing their plans, and secure the privilege of investing their local taxes in local improvements. Richmond Hill ought to take steps in the same direction. A few of the advantages would be: sidewalks clear of snow and kept in good repair; weeds cut down in summer; fire engine and tanks in proper order in case of fire; a prospect of the introduction of village drainage, so that sanitary improvements can be effected, &c. Many other advantages might be quoted, and we hope that our town will not be behind Markham, but that some of our leading men will take steps to call a meeting of the villagers and have the question discussed in a neighborly way. Our town is in a better position to run business on its own account than our friend east, having a fine central building suitable for council and public meetings. We subjoin a letter written by M. Lepper, Esq., for some years Reeve of Aurora, whose opinion ought to be worth something, to Mr. James Speight, a resident of Markham, and late Deputy Reeve of the township:

DEAR SIR.—Yours of the 2nd inst. duly received, and in reply, would say that I have been a member of the Council nearly ever since our village became incorporated, and I must say that our taxes are no higher, (not even farm property that lies within the corporation), than previous to the incorporation, and our improvements are fully one hundred per cent. more than they ever were before. If I was living in Markham Village, I would most certainly go for incorporation heartily, for I don't think there is a person in our municipality that regrets the incorporation of the village of Aurora.

News Summary

A telegram from Munich states that Father Hyacinthe is seriously indisposed, and prevented from continuing his lectures. Lord Tenterden died this morning (Nov. 3rd, 1872). His mind had for a day or two been gone. He was all time in business, and the last words he spoke were (addressing a jury): "Gentlemen, you are all dismissed."—Lord Brougham's Memorials. The following is a letter written by the Princess of Wales to the Vicar of Sandringham on Sunday morning: "My husband is better, and I am coming to church. I must watch my husband, and therefore must leave before the end of the service. Cannot you say a few words for him in prayer early in the service, that I may join with you in prayer for him?"

Sir Richard Wallace has informed the tenantry on the Hertford estates that he intends to appeal against the decision of the Dublin Court of Common Pleas in regard to the possession of the estates. The route from Berlin to Moscow has just been shortened by the opening of the Brest to Smolensk line, which places Warsaw in direct communication with the old capital of Russia. The Empress Eugenie, before her departure from Madrid, received a visit from King Amadeus, accompanied by the Queen. She immediately returned it, and remained an hour and a-half at the palace. His Majesty was at the door when she arrived, and on her departure conducted her to her carriage, with his hand uncovered. More than a thousand members of the Spanish aristocracy were at the station to salute her Majesty on leaving. During her stay in the Spanish capital she lived very retired. The Princess Alice is in constant attendance on the Prince of Wales, and it is said proves a most admirable nurse. It was the Princess Alice, it may be remembered, who took the burden of nursing her father in his last illness, ten years ago, and all accounts agree that Her Royal Highness has shown herself unequalled in that difficult and trying, but most important art. The Duke of Edinburgh is also in constant and close attendance at Sandringham. It is with difficulty that the Princess of Wales can be induced to quit her husband for short intervals, even though the skilled sisterly nursing of the experienced Princess Alice has never been wanting in those intervals.

Oxford lately numbered among its students the Duke of Genoa and Prince Hassan of Egypt. At the present time a distinguished member of the Siamese Government is an undergraduate at Balliol. He is quite English in dress, appearance, and language. As to Prince Hassan, he, too, was a member quite the Englishman, and may be seen rowing on the river, or driving his pair, cigar in mouth, just like any other young swell. THE TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.—A telegram from Col. Tennant, in charge of the Indian Eclipse Expedition, sent on Tuesday morning from Ootacamund, in the N. Nilgery Hills, says six good photographs were obtained. He adds:—"Inversion of lines entirely confirmed," referring to an important observation of Professor Young in Spain last December, who saw, at the moment of total obscuration, all the dark lines reversed—that is, right on a dark ground. A telegram from Jaffna states that there was splendid weather during the eclipse. Most satisfactory and interesting observations have been made.

Opposition or Starvation.

"GO INTO OPPOSITION OR WE SHALL STARVE UP HERE"!!! are words completing a short sentence which is as full of truth to-day as when the Brother of the Grit-Republican "dictator," Mr. Gordon Brown, wrote them, years ago. From the peculiar position of the "organ" to-day, and the remarkable lack of anything in its columns of purely Canadian topics, it is not hard to judge what may be expected to take place. The position of the "organ" is just as melancholy now as it was then, and needs just as much as then to be the Opposition paper. Indeed in any other condition it can neither sell to advantage, or be read with any degree of zest by the nation it has so long been leading "by the nose, instead of by the understanding." When the people have nothing but the ordinary news of the world, brought out and culled upon as editorials, judgement cannot be trifled with, and it is only a question of a few weeks whether the so-called "leading paper" can retain its hold. The drift of the Grit-Republican organ has been continually directed to the pulling down of governments, to the abuse of men occupying high office and responsible positions in our Dominion and as soon as chance has given it partial success, we find want of energy and forlorn specimens of its power. Eternally harping at Coalition Governments, so long as it is in opposition, it resorts to all sorts of subterfuge to keep its hold on the populace. Devoid of truthfulness, deficient in ability to grapple with the issues in public life, destitute of the prime attributes of knowing its own political history, and constantly swerving from one side to another, it then listens to the dreadful sentence, "Go into Opposition or we shall starve," and at once swoop falls upon its own friends, and converts them into enemies. How the Grit-Republican "chief" can denounce his own language of the year 1865, when Messrs. John A. Macdonald, Cartier and Galt went to England as a deputation with Mr. Brown, who was at that time their colleague, he said "None can deny that it is of the utmost importance that the desires of the Canadian people should have the benefit of the ablest advocates the Province can command. The gentlemen who have gone home are the leaders of public opinion in Canada; they understand what is needed; they know precisely what is likely to meet the approbation of their constituents, and in their persons they give us every guarantee that our claims will be argued with the utmost force of which they are capable. If success, complete and entire success, be within reach—if it be possible to come to a satisfactory and mutual advantageous understanding with the Imperial Government, these men will accomplish the task." These were his opinions in 1865, when a member of the Coalition Government that effectually succeeded in pulling down the present Confederation. Shortly after this he retired from the Coalition Cabinet under the plea of disagreeing with his colleagues on the question of Tariff, but the prime reason was the hint given by Mr. Gordon Brown, "Go into Opposition or we shall starve," and in a few days after his resignation, we have in his speech delivered on the 27th Jan., 1867, the following:—"If sir, there is any large number of men in this assembly who will record their votes this night in favor of that party by joining a Coalition, I neither want to be a leader nor a humble member of that party. If that is the reward you intend to give for all our services I soon connect myself with you. Go into the same Government with Mr. John A. Macdonald!" (cries of never! never!) Four days after in the "organ" of this chameleon he writes:—"Let us gratefully acknowledge the hand of the Almighty Disposer of Events in bringing about this result. Let us acknowledge, too, the sagacity and the patriotism, the forethoughtfulness of a self and partisan considerations on the part of our statesman (Sir John A. Macdonald, McDonnell, Galt, Howland, Cartier, etc.) to which, under Providence, are due the inception of a project of a British American Confederation, and carrying it to a successful issue." We ask the public to judge the course which has been followed by the Grit-Republican chief ever since that time, and more especially to direct their attention to the "organ" during the last two or three weeks. Looking back four or five years ago we find that the same condition of affairs which existed then, exists now, and as a logical conclusion apart from other considerations which are daily becoming more and more discernible—the elegant but melancholy sentence applies with equal force, "Go into opposition or we shall starve."—Leader.

Gillett, the celebrated manufacturer of steel pens, died in England on Saturday last. The King of the Belgians was in the midst of the crowd at Brussels lately during one of the most energetic demonstrations of the people against the late Ministry. The Independent Order of Good Templars have revoked the commission held by Gibbles as agent for Devon. Gibbles is the Temperance orator who intimated at a public meeting that the Queen is a drunkard.

Patent Medicines.

Caution!! Caution!!!

FOR THE PUBLIC OF THE BRITISH PROVINCES OF NORTH AMERICA.

I beg most respectfully to request the public of the British North American provinces that in May, 1871, I secured the business at 80 Maiden Lane, New York, for the sale of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which were up to that time prepared by William Holloway, now deceased, to be closed. I regret to say that I have reason to know that the management of late business has been conducted in many ways, been most corrupt and it may be that the Pills and Ointment were not prepared with the care I have always desired.

Those who do not wish to be deceived by buying spurious preparations, which are now likely to emanate from the States or elsewhere, but to possess themselves of the genuine Holloway's Pills and Ointment, manufactured by me in London, England, will do well to see that each pot and box bears the British Government stamp on which is engraved the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT," and that the address on the label is 535 OXFORD STREET, LONDON, where only they are manufactured, and in no other part of the world. The retail prices on the labels in British currency, and not in dollars and cents.

No representative of mine will ever travel through any part of the British Provinces or the United States, either to sell, or to take orders for my Pills and Ointment, and as I have reason to believe that attempts will very probably be made to deceive the public in this way by persons calling on medicine vendors, falsely representing that they are agents for me, and with my knowledge and consent, I deem it advisable to put the public on their guard against any such deception.

I most earnestly entreat those who may read this advertisement, if they be pleased, in the public interest, to communicate the purport of the same to their friends that they may not be defrauded of their money by purchasing worthless imitations of the genuine HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

I would ask, as a great favor, that should it come to the knowledge of any person that spurious medicines are being made or sold in my name, he be pleased to send me all the particulars he can collect respecting the same, that is to say, the name and address of the vendor who is selling the spurious medicine, and likewise the name and address of the House in the United States, or elsewhere, which may have supplied them, so as to enable me, for the protection of the public, to institute proceedings against such evildoers, and I engage to remunerate very handsomely any person who may give me such information, the information being kept strictly confidential.

Should any person have reason to believe that he has been deceived by buying spurious imitations of these Medicines, he will do well to send me, in a letter, to the address at foot (which he can see in another part of this paper), one of the books of instructions which are affixed to the same. I promise to examine it and send a reply, stating whether the Medicines are genuine or not, so that if spurious they may apply to the person from whom he purchased them to have his money refunded.

Chemists and Druggists who desire to obtain the Medicines can be supplied at the lowest wholesale prices in quantities of not less than $20 worth—viz., 25 cts., and 25c., and 34c. per dozen boxes of Pills or pots of Ointment, net, without discount, for which remittance must be sent in advance. I have the honor to be, With much respect, THOMAS HOLLOWAY, 553, Oxford Street (late 244, Strand), London, W. C., Sept. 1, 1871. 687-6m
