The Scott Murder The Action of Manitoba.

The Legislature of Manitoba has read, marked, learned and inwardly digested the matchless hypocrisy of the Blake scott Coalition with regard to the low murder of Thomas Scott. Mr. Blake's crocodilism has been too apparent. The bewailing of a murderous event that Wheat—Spring. 121 @ 123 Soules and Deibl. 130 @ 133 Treadwell. 124 @ 127 over which we had no cartally junisdiction, perpetrated by a man whom we round not leadly number of the country could not legally punish, and on a man Oats...... 0 43 @ 0 44 whom we could not legally avenge, was too gross a piece of buncombe for honest brought the slayers to justice, were acts too monstrous to escape detection. Last March his hypocrisy was clear enough but not public enough to be thoroughly appreciated. To-day it is known to every mother's son and daughter in Ontario, and has become a by-word and reproach, even in remote Manitoba. The Manitobese, by the mouth of their Government, have flatly and openly expressed their disgust at Mr. Blake's conduct. Well and truly did Attorney-General Clarke declare that the President of the them in Orangemen's ears, he might have added, but kicked them from him as rubbish and rotteness when brought face to face with Riel's fellow country men in the Dominion Parliament Canonized them in Ontario! Pronounced them anaemæd in Lower Canada! Hugged them as a martyrs relics in Ontario l Fled from them as from a lepar's carcase in Quebec! The orangemen of this Province now fully understand the deceit practised on them last March. Their brethren in Manitoba are equally wise on the subject. Both now know right well that the everlasting raking of poor Scott's ashes by the leaders of the Grit party was a mere election dodge, a dust-throwing trick, a political campaign squib, a contemptible subterfuge and pit fall, MONTREAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY. and knowing that, we are sure and certain that they cannot look with much favor on men who, to suit party, can May 4, 1869. make shuttlecocks of corpses and battledores of the sympathies of a loyal and honored organization .- Telegraph
