RICHMOND HILL, APRIL 25, 1873.

A NICE MAN.

Mr. Rykert in his speech at Brantford the other night stated: "he had affidavits in his pocket testifying that in September last, Horrocks went to Ottawa | intrenched in the "lava beds" of Oregon, and signed his name in the register of has excited a unanimous sentiment of the the Russel House as "Rev. J. Horrocks" deepest indignation from one end of the He had dropped "Coeks" for the time country to the other. The order has gone being, and on the 28th of that month forth to exterminate, if need be, the handthe Rev. gentleman was treated by the ful of savages, sixty or so, who are responintrusted with the people's money, no simple as may appear. Six hundred United wonder that double the amount was spent States troops are doubtiess a large force to on emigration in 1872 than was spent by employ against one tenth of their number of Mr. Carling in 1871, with very trifling Indians and half breeds, even if better armed increase of emigrants. For this year no than usual. But the so called "lava beds" less a sum than $135.000 is put down.
When such men as Cocks and Whellams are allowed to have a hand in the spendmore than a match for ten assailants. To ing of it we venture to assert the country surplies and every prospect of retreat is a supplies and every prospect of retreat is a task which would woning a make metal and the surplies and every prospect of retreat is a task which would woning a make metal and one thing spending the people's money task which would require a moherate sized army for its accomplishment, and even if judiciously and benefiting the country by the troops do advance, determined to leave so doing and another in squandering it they can hardly accomplish this without for the benefit alone of such characters losing at least as many men as they destroy as the Commissioner of Public Works | Indignation is perfectly natural under the circumstances of the Modoc nurders, but may call around him. Horrocks Cocks is chief commissioner of emigration at a salary of $1.800 per year, travelling expenses $1.400 and rent of halls &c., $4,000, a total of $7,200 of the people's been made by the policy of the civilized race that has displaced them. Border ruffanism is responsible for more than half of the so-called Indian outrages, many of which have been perpetrated by white robbers disguised as red men. Canada has never had a tithmoney goes into this man's pocket with as red men. Canada has never had a tith of the trouble in dealing with the Indian nonulation which has been experienced by know how to add to it. Is this fair, is the United States. The reason is plain. Across the border, the Indian has been dealt that a man almost unknown to the ways and doings of the people should be selected for such an important position. It has been said that he was promised and massacred; treaties have been made the position by Mr. Carling, this is not true, for when he wrote the letter to Mr. they never committed. President Grant's Carling this gentleman was but a private member of the House and out of office. member of the House and out of office, competency or the corrupt character of the therefore he could not have offered him agents employed. An episode like the Mo what it was not in his power to grant, therefore Mr. McKellar in making this an excuse for appointing Cocks has not a leg to stand on. It is too much the habit of these great purists to excuse ment." themselves for their shoat comings by saying the tories did such and such a thing forgetting that what a tory may do it is expected of him, but of "Reformers" better things are tooked for therefore let. us have no further excuses of that nature for they will not go down with a discernfor they will not go down with a discerning public. The people will assuredly but heth the motive and practice of this corruption were concealed from the know ledge of that venerable and honored man.

DESERVED .- Timothy Warren Anglin, the Member for Gloucester, has justly brought upon himself the censure of the House of Commons, for a series of gross libel on a large majority of the Members of the House published over his own signature in his own paper, the Morning Freeman, of St. John, N.B. Some years ago this same gentleman brought upon himself a cow-hiding for remarks reflect ing upon a private citizen of St. John, land to St. John about the year of the Smith O'Brien Cabbage Garden War.

THE MODOC MURDERS.

We copy the following article from a U.S. paper, regarding the above murders. As will be seen, refrence is made to the Canadian policy with regard to the Indians The truth of the statements bear double weight coming from the source that they do. It is a well known fact that the Indians on the British territory call the Queen their "mother," and are truly loyal British subjects :--

"The treacherous murder of General Canby and Dr. Thomas, by the leaders of the handful of Modoc Indians who remain

To add to the complications afflicting | getically. that unhappy country, advices via New York from Cuba, under date 14th March states that General Farcia, commander of the Eastern Department, says reconciliation with Spain is impossible, except on the casis of Independence. The only terms the Cubans have to offer are that the Spaniards shall go away and leave Cubans to take care of their own future. They have no faith in the permanent establishment of the Spanish Republic.

CREDIT VALLEY RAILWAY. - Mr George Laidlaw, the President, and several of the Directors of this new narrow gauge line, visited Streetsville on Wednesday last, and located the line in that vicinity, choosing the most direct route. An impetus has already been given to business on the Credit River; several applications have been made by capitalists for water powers for manufacturing purposes, and it is expected will be fully developed by the time the road is completed.
