DOMINION DAY.

The inhabitants of our villlage had resolved, as we announced some weeks ago, to celebrate the sixth anniversary of the birthday of our Dominion. Tuesday last being the first of July our town people were bright and early ready for the day's enjoyment. About 10 o'clock the team from Newmarket arrived and shortly after repaired to the grounds to tors, hence a large number were on the ground to learn how the game was carwith grave fears that the uninitiated watched the game. The clever fielding was astonishing, and each club showed that they thoroughly understood the game. The following are the names of those who took part in the match:

The utmost good-will prevailed during the contest, although some hard knocks were observed, and at its close the Rising Stars entertained their visitors at Velie's hotel, to dinner.
