

THE DEPUTATION.
HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY TO THE MEMORIAL.

OTTAWA, Aug. 14.—The following is the substance of the verbal reply made by His Excellency yesterday to the memorial presented to him by the deputation of members of the House of Commons:—

GENTLEMEN.—It is quite unnecessary for me to assure you that any representations emanating from persons possessing the right to speak on public affairs with such authority as yourselves will always be considered by me with the greatest respect, even had not circumstances already compelled me to give most anxious thought to the matters to which you are now desirous of calling my attention. You say in your memorandum that four months have elapsed since the Hon. Mr. Huntington preferred grave charges of corruption against my present advisers in reference to the Pacific Railway contract, and that although the House has appointed a Committee to enquire into these charges, the proceedings of this Committee have on various grounds been postponed, and the enquiry has not yet taken place. Gentlemen, no person can regret more deeply than I do these unfortunate delays, the more so as they seem to have given rise to the impression that they have been unnecessarily postponed by the action of the Executive. It may be premature at this moment to enter into a history of the disallowance of the Oaths Bill, but this much, at all events, it is but fair to every one that I should state, viz., that immediately after I had assented to that Act I transmitted a certified copy of it to the Secretary of State, in accordance with the instructions by which I am bound on such occasions; that, leaning myself to the opinion—an opinion founded on the precedent afforded by the Act of the Canadian Parliament, which empowers the Senate to examine witnesses on oath—that the Act was not ultra vires, I accompanied it by a full exposition of the arguments which could be urged in its support, but on the point being referred by the Secretary of State for the professional opinion of the law officers of the Crown, it was pronounced inconsistent with the Act of Confederation, and that therefore the postponement of the inquiry, so far as it has arisen out of this circumstance, has resulted wholly by the operation of law, and has been beyond the control of any one concerned. You then proceed to urge me, on grounds which are very fairly and forcibly stated, to decline the advice which has been unanimously tendered to me by my responsible Minister, and to refuse to prorogue Parliament; in other words, you require me to dismiss them from my councils; for, gentlemen, you must be aware that this would be the necessary result of my assenting to your recommendation. Upon what ground should I be justified in taking so grave a step? What guarantee can you afford me that the Parliament of the Dominion would endorse such an act of personal interference on my part? You yourselves, gentlemen, do not form an actual majority of the House of Commons, and I have no means, therefore, of ascertaining that the majority of that body subscribe to the opinion you have announced. Again, to what should I have to appeal in justification of my conduct? It is true, grave charges have been preferred against these gentlemen—charges which I admit require the most searching investigation—but, as you yourselves remark in your memorandum, the truth of these accusations still remain untested. One of the authors of the correspondence which has made so painful an impression upon the public has admitted that many of his statements were hasty and inaccurate, and has denied on oath the correctness of the deductions drawn from them. Various assertions contained in the narrative of the other have been positively contradicted. Is the Governor-General, upon the strength of such evidence as this, to drive from his presence gentlemen who for years have filled the highest offices of State, and in whom, during the recent session, Parliament has repeatedly declared its continued confidence. It is true certain documents have appeared in connection with these matters of very grave significance, in regard to which the fullest explanation must be given, but no proof has yet been adduced which necessarily connects them with the culpable transactions of which it is asserted they may appear as placed in juxtaposition with the correspondence to which they have been appended by the person who has possessed himself of them. Under these circumstances, what right has the Governor-General, on his personal responsibility, to proclaim to Canada—nay, not only to Canada, but to America and Europe, as such a proceeding upon his part necessarily do—that he believes his Ministers guilty of the crimes alleged against them. Were it possible at the present time to make a call of the House and place myself in direct communication with the Parliament of the Dominion my present embarrassment would disappear, but this is a physical impossibility. I am assured by my Prime Minister—and the report of the proceedings at the time bears out his statements—that when Parliament adjourned, it was announced by him as a leader of the House, that the meeting on the 13th of August would be immediately followed by prorogation, and that no substantive objection was taken to this announcement, and that, as a consequence, a considerable portion of your fellow members are dispersed in various directions. I should, therefore, only deceive myself, were I to regard the present assembly as a full Parliament. Since the adjournment, indeed, circumstances have occurred which render the proximate re-assembling highly desirable, but in this country there are physical circumstances which necessarily interpose a considerable lapse of time before the representatives of the various provinces comprising the Confederated Parliament of Canada can assemble, separated as some of them are by thousands of miles from the capital of the Dominion. In regulating the times and seasons when Parliament is to be called together, the Executive is bound not only to consider the reasonable convenience of these gentlemen but also to protect the federal rights of the Provinces which they represent. Under the circumstances I have concluded, on the advice of my ministers, and even if I differed from them as to the policy of such a course—which I do not—it is a point upon which I should be disposed to accept their recommendation, to issue a Royal Commission of inquiry to three gentlemen of such legal standing, character, and authority as will command the confidence of the public by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Act Vic. 31, chap. 38. On the other hand, I have determined, in proroguing Parliament, to announce to the members of both Houses my intention of their re-assembling immediately. The Commission in question shall have concluded their labors. By these means an opportunity will be afforded for the preliminary expurgation of those unhappy matters before a tribunal competent to take evidence on oath. Ample opportunities will be given to the members of the more distant Provinces to make their preparations in view of an autumnal session; and within two months or ten weeks from this date a full Parliament of Canada will take supreme and final cognizance of the case now pending before my Ministers and their accusers. Gentlemen, the situation we have been discussing is one of great anxiety and embarrassment, but I cannot help thinking that, on a calm retrospect of the various considerations to be kept in view, you will come to the conclusion that in determining to be guided by the advice of my Ministers on the present occasion—in other words, in declining to act as though the charges which have been advanced against them were already proven—and in adhering to arrangements upon the faith of which many of your colleagues are absent from their places, I have adopted the course most in accordance with the maxims of Constitutional Government, and with what is due to those whom the Parliament of Canada has recommended to my confidence.

A genuine live alligator meandered around in the Atlanta (Ga) sewers, picking up chickens, young Africans, and such unconsidered trifles.

Parsons spent $10,000 for advertising in St. Louis (purchasing a whole page in the newspapers), and had receipts amounting to $60,000. The moral is brief but pertinent—advertising pays.

We learn from Collingwood that large steamers are now running on Rainy Lake and Lake Winnipeg, so that farmers emigrating to Manitoba can take their horses and farming utensils with them.

Wolves in immense numbers have appeared among the settlements near the straits of Belle Isle, and entirely broke upon one settlement. On the 1st of July they attacked a party killing and devouring three men and one woman. The same night they attacked the tent of Capt. in Charles Murray, an Englishman on a hunting tour, and were driven off by rapid firing on them, not, however, until they had torn the tent in several places.

A prisoner, hanged in Georgia the other day, entered the shop for permission "to see Hannah (his wife) for a few minutes." He wanted to ask her if she would "stand by and see him dangle." Hannah agreed to do so.

ORILLIA, Aug. 18.—The cricket match between the Toronto and Orillia clubs took place on Wednesday last on the Orillia ground. Toronto had one innings and Orillia two. Toronto were victorious by 48 runs.

A man about fifty years of age, accompanied by a wife who looked still older, applied at the Detroit ticket office of the Central road, a few days ago, for tickets to Jackson. When told the price he demurred and asked for second class accommodations. There were none to be had, and after with drawing for a consultation he returned to the window and asked: "Well, won't you knock off a dollar if the old woman will ride on the platform."

ONLY $50,000.—The notorious McMullen, of the Pacific Scandal notoriety, has sued The Mail for the sum of $50,000 for defamation of character. We hope he may get it. He has tried to "raise the wind" in so many peculiar and dishonorable ways that it would be too bad if he was disappointed in his last effort. Besides, we believe he is entitled to it. Bonner holds his horse Dexter at $100,000, and surely an ass should be worth half that amount. Let the jury by all means award the fellow his price. —Mitchell Advocate.

LATEST POPULAR PHRASE.—An irate citizen of the Grit persuasion entered our sanctum this morning, and demanded in angry accents, "Who wrote that?" Instead of indulging in any vulgar slang phrases, such as threatening to kick him down stairs or put a head on him, we calmly arose and said, "You leave here or we'll prorogue you." It worked like a charm, and he left precipitately. Two boys were quarrelling on the Market Square, when one exclaimed, "Give me them fish hooks or I'll prorogue you." The fish hooks were delivered. If you doubt the efficacy of that little word, just say to your Grit friends, "How are you prorogued?" then you'll see some tall walking.—Guelph Herald.

TORONTO YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

CORNER OF QUEEN AND JAMES STS., TORONTO, JUNE, 1873.

To Parents, Guardians, Pastors, and others whose Sons, Wards, or Friends may be leaving home for residence in the City of Toronto.

The Young Men's Christian Association take pleasure in informing their friends and the Christian Public generally of the facilities for usefulness which they now enjoy.

Their beautiful and commodious building, with its Halls, Library, Free Reading Room and Gymnasium are intended at once to invite and improve all young men who enter. Prayer Meetings, Literary and Musical Entertainments are frequently held and open to all.

Parents, Guardians, Pastors, or others who have young friends in the City or about to come to it, are invited to visit them to come to us. A Reception Committee has been formed, the members of which gladly call on all strangers whom they may hear of from those interested. Communications from friends at a distance are gladly received.

Yours respectfully,
THOS. J. WILKIE, Secretary.

BOGUS MEDICINES.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

I HAVE for a considerable time past considered it to be my duty to advise the public of the British North American Provinces against buying from unprincipled dealers medicines emanating from New York, and sold as "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," in which much ingenuity has been displayed in passing them off as my make. It is very difficult indeed to attempt to enumerate the many devices to which the parties have had recourse. They say, among other things, that a new label has been adopted by them, and with bare-faced effrontery caution the public against being deceived by spurious imitations.

A poor man by the name of Holloway is employed by the so-called Chemical Company in New York, who lends his name for a small weekly sum. The medicines sold by this Company are palmed off upon the public as my "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," so that were they to injure half the community no discredit would fall upon the fabricators of these compounds, but would considerably damage the reputation of my make.

As it is not at all necessary for this Crew to incur any expenses in the sale of their preparations, or to a very limited extent (trusting as they do upon my name), they are in a position to offer them at a very low price in Canada, where they are purchased by a few Wholesale Houses that I can name, and will name hereafter, if they continue to vend the same.

The following are the names and addresses of some of the Houses who get my medicines from here direct:—

Messrs Avery, Brown & Co., Halifax, N.S.
Messrs Forsyth & Co., Halifax, N.S.
Messrs T. B. Barker & Co., St. John, N.B.
M^r. T. Des Brisay, Charlotte Town, P.E.I.
Messrs Langley & Co., Victoria, B.C.
Messrs Moore & Co., Victoria, B.C.

My Pills and Ointment are sold at the lowest wholesale net prices, in quantities of not less than $20 worth—viz., $5, $10, $25, $50, for which dozens of boxes of Pills or pots of Ointment, for which remittances must be sent in advance. These medicines are not sold in the United States.

Each Pot and Box of my preparation bears the British Government Stamp, with the words, "Holloway's Pills and Ointment, London."
(Signed) THOMAS HOLLOWAY.
