THE "AVAILABLES" ORGAN.

The Economist of last week is dreadfully sensitive of the power of Parliament. It waxes eloquent upon the subject and says "For hundreds of years the British Parliament has been regarded as the highest court of the realm. So jealous have they been of the privileges of Parliament that when a committee was appointed to investigate certain matters (not the Protest "Outrage), on one occasion, &c., &c." Dear bless us, but this great stickler for the rights and privileges of Parliament need not have gone some hundreds of years back for examples. It might have informed its readers that a certain great man named Blake thought so little of the representatives of the people that he stole a march upon the late John Sandfield Macdonald's Government, in Ontario, and defeated it when eight constituencies were unrepresented. Again Mr. ex-Vice Chancellor Mowat refused to acknowledge the power of Parliament upon the question of the "Orange Bills," notwithstanding he voted for them himself and they passed Parliament with a large majority. He held them back and referred them for the sanction of the Governor-General.

It is certainly rich and amusing to read such trash as the last week's political article of the Economist; one would almost think that the Senator feels sore over the disallowed mileage; it is very hard no doubt to be out of pocket, but it was fully understood that Parliament was to be prorogued and no fees would be allowed, therefore he has only himself to blame.

A great deal is tried to be made out of the delay in connection with this Pacific Railway Slander, but whose fault is it that it has not been sifted to the bottom before this? why the fault of the party with whom the Economist acts, and now they would like the matter put off for a longer time. They actually urge witnesses to take no notice of the Commission, but to treat the men composing it with contempt. They are fearful of the oath. They feel convinced that the charges against the Ministry cannot be substantiated except upon the words of a man whose charges have already been met with the counter statements and affidavits of a dozen men whom he accuses of being mixed up in this Pacific scandal. It is now the object of the Globe, Economist and kindred sheets to throw discredit upon the judiciary of the country. Any one would think that men like the judges of the land, sworn to do their duty impartially, would be the proper persons to try this matter, and would have pleased all parties, more especially when the report of the evidence taken is to be submitted to Parliament. But no, the Bench must be abused; it was not sufficient that a short time since we had a judge throwing off the emine of office, and entering again into the turmoil of politics, but the next thing we will be told by the Grit Press is that the judges of the land will be giving judgment according as the suit may be Conservative or Reformer that may appear before them. We are aware that it is a desperate move upon the part of the Grits to get into power at Ottawa, fairly and justice they are prepared to throw to the winds, if by so doing they can carry their object and accomplish the dearest wishes of their hearts, viz.: The defeat of the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald. But rest assured Sir John has taken their measure and he will constitutionally defeat their machination to drive him from power.

Notwithstanding, the outcry of the Grits against the building of the Pacific Railway, their first object (if they ever gained power) would be to build it, and in such a manner as would suit the pockets of themselves and followers. But it will be sometime after this before they have the chance. We are no prophet or the son of a prophet, yet we are not afraid to wager two to one with either the "available" or "Jim," that Sir John Macdonald will be acquitted of the charges brought against him (through the influence of that prince of scoundrels George Washington McMullen) and that too by the High Court of Parliament, by a majority of the men whom the Economist is now so anxious to take under its wing. Then, when that takes place; when Parliament finds the Ministry of the day guilty of the charges brought against it by Huntington. Then the hue and cry will be raised of bribery! bribery! corruption! corruption!!

Markham Council will meet on Saturday, at Unionville.

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

Aug. 25, 1873.—Pursuant to adjournment on the 11th inst., the Council met.

The Reeve in the Chair.
Councillors all present.
The minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The Reeve explained that owing to the illness of Councillor Hopkins they had not yet called on Harrison, Osler & Moss, as required by a resolution of the 11th inst., but that they intended going to Toronto this present week, and would attend to the subject and report at next meeting of Council if possible.

Moved by Mr. Powell, seconded by Mr. Brillinger, that the Estimates of the Public School Board of Trustees now presented to this Council, together with the requisition to levy and collect nine hundred dollars from the Public School Section, (of which this village forms a part), be adopted by this Council, and that the Clerk be hereby authorized and instructed to prepare the Collector's Roll accordingly.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Powell, seconded by Mr. Hopkins, that the Finance Committee are hereby instructed to call upon Mr. D. C. O'Brien for the purpose of making arrangements with him for the collection of School Taxes, and that they report to this Council at its next meeting.—Carried.

Mr. Crawford's account for $8 00 was read and ordered to be laid over for explanation.

The Council then adjourned to meet on Monday evening next, in the Court Room at 8 o'clock.

LACROSSE AT BRADFORD.

An exciting game of lacrosse was played at Bradford on Saturday last, between the Star Club of that town, and our own club, delighting under the same appellation, on the grounds of the former. The day was all that the lovers of our national game could desire, their being a cool and refreshing breeze all afternoon. There was quite a number of spectators on the ground. The fair ladies of Bradford (and none more fair) also graced the proceedings by their presence in large numbers, thus showing the interest they always take in that most exciting of games; their many bright glances during the match, inciting the players to renewed exertions. The ball was faced at 2.45 and immediately thrown in the direction of the Bradford Flags, but no sooner arriving there, than it was forced back to the vicinity of the Hill Flags, the game was quite lively throughout, the cheers of the Bradfordites inciting their boys to make more strenuous efforts, but without avail, as the game was recorded in favor of the Hill boys, by Martin making one of his throws right on the flags, which passed through after 28 minutes hot work, their being considerable roughness and hard knocks on both sides, but all taken in good part. A few minutes breathing spell was allowed, play was again called, and after playing about one hour game was claimed by our boys, but the umpires being unable to decide, was left to the decision of the referee, whose duties were very light. The referee having decided no game another stay was made, the ball being kept in the vicinity of the Bradford flags, the greater part of the time, an occasional long throw sending it to the other end, but no sooner there then it was sent back to its proper destination. As the time for drawing the flags, half past five, was fast drawing nigh, there was a decided flutter of expectation as to which side would be the fortunate one, when a long throw sent the ball right on the Hill Flags, which was stopped by goal keeper, but unfortunately in picking it overreached himself and tapped the ball through, after playing one hour and forty minutes. The goal keeper received the thanks of the Bradford boys, for winning the game for them. It now being half past five and the match undecided, each side having one game, the flags were drawn. Thus concluded one of the most exciting matches played this season in the Northern District, the playing on both sides was very good, considering that both clubs are new beginners, it would be unfair to put rise the individual play, on either side, where all did their best, but we must say that the "home" playing of J. Wilson, Martin and the Captain, on the part of the Richmond Hill Club was universally admired. The long throwing of Boddy and Patterson, on the part of the Bradford Club was also the theme of much talking. The players now wended their way to partake of a substantial supper provided by the Bradford Club, which mine host of the Binzham House set up in his usual excellent style. After which we started homewards, having spent a very enjoyable day, and last, but not least, must say that the kind and genial manner in which we were treated by the Bradford boys will not soon be forgotten by our club. The following are the names and positions of both clubs:—

ANNUAL DRILL.—We learn upon good authority that the annual drill of the 12th Battalion, York Rangers for 1873-4 will take place at the neighboring village of Aurora, commencing on the 10th of September. The Era was premature in announcing that Lt.-Col. Norris had selected Newmarket—many a slip 'twixt cup and lip! Next to Richmond Hill, we believe Aurora is the most suitable and convenient place in the county.

THE UNION OF YORKVILLE AND TORONTO.

"There was a time, and that not long ago, when the village of Yorkville was separated from Toronto, and when it was neither possible nor desirable to have the two places under the same municipal government. That time has now passed away. Toronto has within the last few years grown so much, that practically the two places are one. Formerly, to live in Yorkville was to live in the country; now it is simply to be one of the sections of the city. The difference in the taxation is always also becoming less, while the drawbacks arising from the double municipality are both many and manifest. By the increased area of taxation in Toronto, it is likely the rate there per dollar, will in a year or two be as low as in Yorkville, while there is no possibility of the inhabitants of the latter place having those conveniences and protection from crime and disease at anything like the same cost, if they continue separate, as they would have by having their village corporation merged in that of the city. The city water-works will soon be in full operation. How absurd to have these pipes carried through Yorkville without being available for the use of the inhabitants! The villagers cannot inaugurate a system for themselves, except at an extravagant expense; and yet, unless united to Toronto, there is no alternative but to get water-works for themselves, or want. The same thing is true of sewerage and lighting, as well as police. As far as the last point is concerned, it is a matter of notoriety that the respectable portion of the residents of Yorkville are ashamed of the operations of the "police force" of that village. Rowdy boys have it all very much their own way, and things are done and winked at which would never be tolerated under the police system of any well regulated city. In a very short time, indeed, we shall have to get an extradition treaty passed, so that rowdies may not be liable to make Yorkville a base line of operations, upon which they can always retreat and be safe from the "peelers." For their own sakes, as well as ours, the Yorkvillians had better come in."—Globe.

There is considerable truth in the above article and however much it may clash with the opinions of the gentlemen who rule the roost at Yorkville, however much it may interfere with the little petty officials who now draw their pickings from the treasury of the classic village, they will find the city yet embracing them and the village over which they now exercise authority and control. It is but following a natural course of events experienced by all suburbs of large cities, and why should Yorkville be exempt. At the present time the Yorkville Council boast of their light taxes, of what benefit is this when the property of the place is retarded, when but a fractional part of the taxes is laid out on improvements. Yorkville by itself, situated any other place, would never improve under its present regime. But it is so closely connected with the city it improves in spite of itself. Property has advanced in price, the population has doubled; streets have been built, so that the rate of taxes at present produces as much as taxes at fifty per cent higher produced three years ago. And it is not too much to say that with city care our streets will be better, lights will be had, slaughter houses and stinking stables will not be allowed, land will increase more in value, and the police will have an eye after rowdies, and other benefits too numerous to mention.—Com.

CHARLEY LAWSON TO THE FORE, AND IN THE FLESH.

For the Herald.

To John Baxter, Esq., J. P., Police Court, Toronto.

MY WREATH FRIEND.—Having paid a visit to the publicans and sinners of Richmond Hill this week, I learned to my surprise that the Mail newspaper of Toronto announced my death rather prematurely. As an old acquaintance, may I ask you to call on Mr. Patterson, the manager of that journal, and inform him that I intend to consult Mr. Alex. McNabb, my solicitor, at an early day, with a view to entering an action for damages, a la McMullen. Tell McNabb that I am determined to carry out our arrangement, by reinstating for the two months agreed upon, and that I expect he will have the new suit of clothes ready, from Scores or Walker's, when I call on him after the expiration of the term. If he does not, you must stand by me and enforce the contract.

Farewell, yours as ever,
CHARLEY LAWSON.
Markham Township, Aug. 26, 1873.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A sudden death of a young man occurred last week at Mr. Nelson Playter's, near Richmond Hill. He was an entire stranger it appears in this neighborhood, having but recently come from the States. He had been working for Mr. Playter only two or three days and was seized with severe pains after eating some green apples, medical aid was procured and he got much easier, but remained greatly prostrated. Two physicians saw him only a short time before he died, and he had orders not to rise from the bed, but he got up, put on his pantaloons, and went down stairs, and just at the last step sank down and expired in two or three minutes. It is supposed he had been an epileptic, his hair had been cut quite close to the head. He said his name was Edward Smith and was about 18 years of age.

The East Riding of York and Markham Township Agricultural Society will be held on the 2nd and 3rd of October.

YORKVILLE AS A TOWN.—It is said that at the next meeting of our Local Legislature, the Yorkville Council will make application for the village being incorporated as a town. Its according to law. Better apply at once to be annexed to the city. Think what a change it will be from being called villagers to be called citizens of the great city of Toronto. If not some line of demarcation will have to be had—perhaps a picket fence!

NARROW ESCAPE.—A few days ago as one of the carpenters employed on the new High School in this village was moving around on the scaffold he stepped back, missed his footing, and fell a distance of upwards of twenty feet head first. He has had a severe shake and was considerably hurt about the head and shoulders, and will be confined to his bed for some time.

ASTHMA.

I have been one of the greatest sufferers from the effects of Asthma, having had it in its most severe form for twenty-four years; for the last six years of that time I had not lain six nights in bed, for seven years had such severe pain in my left side that I could not rest on it, my appetite was gone, and I had swelling in the region of my stomach, and general weakness. This condition was constantly becoming worse, until last December, when I tried GRAHAM'S PAIN EXPELLER, although I had no hope of it benefiting me, I yielded to the persuasion of others.
The first dose I took relieved the difficulty of my breathing, and before I had two bottles used I was completely cured, and have since enjoyed as good health as ever I did.
