PARLIAMENT CALLED TOGETHER.

Notwithstanding the hubbub made by the irritated "banditti" who predicted Parliament would not be called together till the usual session in March, April, or May next, Sir John Macdonald has advised His Excellency, the Governor-General to call Parliament together on the 23rd instant. So satisfied is the Government of their innocence that they are prepared to meet their opponents in the House. The necessity of having the witnesses on the Pacific Scandal business examined before a Commission has become more and more apparent every day since the commencement of the investigation. Fancy a witness being hauled by either or any one of the two hundred members in the House of Commons. Fancy Mr. Blair of West York, or Mr. Maccoll of East York cross-questioning the leader of the Government or Sir Francis Hincks. The Commissioners have been in session for several weeks now and all the witnesses named by Mr. Huntington have given evidence except Huntington, McMullen and two or three others. The utter falsity of the charges have been proved. Sir John Macdonald states under oath—which seems to be of no weight in the estimation of the brigades—that the terms of the contract were prepared with the most scrupulous care to exclude American capitalists from having any possible interest in it. The Attorney-General for Quebec, M. Ouimet, was before the Royal Commission on Tuesday last, and while giving his evidence quotes a conversation he had with the late lamented George E. Cartier, in the following words, with regard to the Pacific Railway Contract:

"I am ready to say that I had some conversation with George Cartier in July and August of 1872, in which he spoke to me of Sir Hugh Allan, the Allan Company, the Pacific Railway, and the Northern Railway. Sir George rebutted the idea of any connection of American capitalists with the Pacific Railway, and said that he never would consent to such a thing, and that he thought the road should be constructed without the aid of American capitalists. While expressing his appreciation of the merits of Sir Hugh Allan, Sir George did not appear to me to be on very friendly terms with him, and I, in turn, on terms of personal friendship never before. He thought that Sir Hugh Allan, from his position, would be of great assistance to the Pacific Railway. He told me that he wished to see the amalgamation of the Macpherson and Allan Co's, and that he had been unjustly reproached with opposition to the Northern Colonization Railway in favor of the Grand Trunk. I remarked to him that I regarded it as unfortunate that his Government had got settled the question of the contract of the Pacific Railway because I adted that this question would militate against him in the Province of Quebec and particularly in Montreal East. I said to him also that Sir Hugh Allan had told him that he owed his commercial prosperity in great measure to the Conservative party, and that I thought that Sir Hugh Allan or his company would aid him by influence or otherwise in his election. Sir G. Cartier thereupon said that he could not entertain much hope that Sir Hugh or his company, meaning the Montreal Ocean Steamship Co., would come to his assistance, but as for him (Sir G. Cartier) he had several times put his portfolio in danger to maintain or obtain the subsidy for the Allan Co.

In Mr. Abbott's evidence appears the following, showing to what desperate lengths the needy party will go to secure what they suppose to be a criminal evidence against their opponents. Mr. Abbott gives his experience to the Commission in a few words.

"Mr. Abbott—There has been so much poring for breaches of confidence and for the obscuration of private letters in this whole affair, that it is impossible to know the position of the matter.

"Judge Gowan—I do not understand you. Mr. Abbott I mean that nearly all, if not all the letters that have been published in the papers relating to this Pacific affair, have been obtained by illegal or criminal means. For instance, the two papers that were obtained by Mr. McMillen, Mr. McMillen's second letter, must have been published by, I think, a criminal means.

"Q. What papers do you refer to?
A. I refer to the date and telegram of Sir John Macdonald and the letter of Sir George Cartier, and the receipt of the Central Committee.

"In whose possession were those papers?
A. They were in my possession during the absence of Sir Hugh Allan in Newfound land.

"Q. Have you got them yet?
A. No. I gave them to Sir Hugh Allan on his return from Montreal. I am convinced of the fact that these papers were either stolen from the private drawer in which I kept them, or from the place in which Sir Hugh Allan kept them. I do not imagine that they have the originals, but I imagine that they must have some confidential clerk to get possession of them, and furnish them with copies. By this means also he may have got the information about M. Langevin."

"MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—With this week the Annual Subscription to our Mechanic's Institute, for the season 1873-74 commences. The Library Committee has lately published a catalogue of the works in the library, which enumerates a variety of excellent reading—they will also be able to make very large additions to their library with the handsome appropriation from the government. The public, we are sure, in the neighborhood, cannot do better than secure tickets for the present year.

IMPORTANT REMITTANCE.—

We learn from the Leader of Monday last, that the Dominion Government have ordered from England half a million pounds sterling in gold. This is a wise step, and in keeping with Sir John's commercial policy in 1857, at which time a monetary crisis prevailed over the civilized world, and the credit of Canada stood second to no other country. Our banks have also ordered large amounts, so that the business portion of the community may be prepared for any emergency resulting from the recent failures among the leading business men in the United States. We cannot help attributing the failure of Jay Cooke, & Co., to the firm stand our Government have taken in refusing to have anything to do with this firm or Americans generally, in forming the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. One thing we are certain of, if Jay Cooke & Co. had had in their possession the charter for building our great railway, and the prospect of having the thirty million dollars in Canadian bonds, and the fifty million acres of Canadian territory to float in the money market they would have got all the money required. The financial panic and its consequences, that has prevailed for the past three weeks in the United States might have been staved off for a time.

GOOD RESULTS.—

Mr. James Russell of this neighborhood, at the Guelph Fair and at the Provincial Exhibition during the past two weeks, made the following very remunerative sales of stock, which proves that if our Agriculturists go the right way to work there is ample return to be made out of stock raising. Mr. R. is very successful, and is considered one of the leading farmers in the country.

THE VELLORE UNION SABBATH SCHOOL
Tea-Party will take place on Thursday next, the 9th inst., at the Town Hall, 6th con. Vaughan. The Lutheran Choir will be present. Tea served at one o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by several Rev. gentlemen. Tickets 25 cents; children 15 cents. Proceeds to aid the Sabbath School.

THE CANADA COMPANY'S PRIZE.—
For the third time in four years we have the great pleasure to announce that the Canada Company's Prize, of $100, for pure, unmix'd Wheat, has again been brought home by Mr. James McNair, of the 2nd con. Vaughan.

MILITARY PIC-NIC.—As was announced, on Tuesday last, No. 2 Troop of Cavalry, commanded by Captain James McConnell, held their annual picnic in McConnell Warren's Grove, adjoining this village. Notwithstanding the threatening state of the weather the attendance was excellent, both of civilians and volunteers. The Committee of Management, with the officers of the troop at their head, did everything to make the affair a success. After enjoying at excellent tea, provided by the mothers and sisters of the young men connected with the troop, dancing was commenced on a commodious platform erected for the purpose, to the superior music of Messrs. McKenzie and Stephens. The band of the 12th battalion, from Aurora, was present during the afternoon and evening, and awakened the welkin by their string selections of music given at intervals of very short duration; and the band was under the leadership of Mr. Ireland who very thoughtfully had them serenade a number of the inhabitants of our town. We believe everything passed off pleasantly, and after adjourning to the Hall for a continuation of the dance, all went home at an early hour well pleased with the Annual Pic-nic of Troop No. 2.

According to the Journal de Paris a British traveller had arrived in the French capital bringing news of Dr. Livingstone down to July. He reported that the great traveller was then in good health. The telegram failed to indicate Dr. Livingstone's geographical position at the time stated.

There has been an alarming outbreak of hydrophobia in the colliery districts of England, not only dogs but also pigs being attacked by the disease.

LAW vs. TEMPERANCE.

To Abraham Law Esq., J. P.,
Reeve of Richmond Hill.

DEAR SIR,—I am informed that you are a member of the Temperance organization at Richmond Hill, and claim to be very precise in observing all the rules and regulations of that body. As the Chief Magistrate of the village and a Justice of the Peace to boot, you are expected to enforce the observance of the law. In view of these facts, will you be kind enough to inform your constituents how it happens that a recent complaint laid before you—in regard to a flagrant violation of the law against liquor-selling on the Sabbath—in your capacity as a Justice of the Peace—was hushed up. I do not care to introduce names and circumstances, as the public are already familiar with the matter; I merely desire that you, as a prominent temperance man, should have an opportunity of explaining yourself, and proving your consistency. I, for one, will be glad to know that you can do so satisfactorily. If you do not, you may hear again from me.—P.E.P.

THE VILLAGE FIRE ENGINE—WHERE IS IT?

RICHMOND HILL,
Oct. 1st, 1873.

DEAR SIR,—Among the first items of expenditure which our Village Council assumed was the debt due on the Fire Engine. In addition to that, a Hose Reel was provided for in the proposed estimates, which I heard the Clerk read at the Council table. A Liberalism was also voted to be paid for putting and keeping the Engine in good working order. A Fire Company was formed some time ago, and much enthusiasm displayed for a week or two; but it died off, and now there is nothing said or done to lead any person to think that there was a Fire Company and Fire Engine in the Village. What is that tink of Jolly God fellows (Capt. Trench) about? Please stir him up—or his chance of the Reeveship may disappear. Yours,
SQUART.

As cure for corns the Medical Press and Circular says: Castor oil should be applied to the corns after pairing closely each night before going to bed. It softens the corns which become as the other flesh. It cures every time.

Some of the farmers near Iowa City find a ready market for their corn husks at a mattress factory in that city. The farmers are receiving enough for their husks to pay all the expense of cribbing their corn.

Between Vittorio and Madrid an express train had been thrown off the rails while crossing a bridge over the Douro. A number of persons were killed, including a general and some other persons of distinction. It was not known whether the disaster was the result of accident or design. On the Pamplona Line the Carliss had succeeded in throwing a train off the rails.

Great excitement was caused in Serbia by reports that the property of the refugees from Bosnia, who were compelled to flee into Austria to escape Mussulman fanaticism, had been confiscated by the authorities, its owners being treated as rebels. Only a few days before the Turkish Government offered to guarantee the Christians of Bosnia safety if they would return to their homes, but the refugees did not consider that the securities offered could be depended upon.

THE SPYX DISASTER.—The hull of the yacht Sphinx was found last Monday near Newcastle, by the crew of a vessel belonging to Captain Robinson. A number of articles were found on board her bearing the name of T. K. Morgan. The mast and main-sail of the yacht were gone, and it is presumed that she must have drifted over a hundred miles from Port Dalhousie.—Mail.

HASTENING THE RIPENING OF FRUIT—Acting upon the principle, that renewal of the earth immediately surrounding the roots in creases their activity, and accelerates the maturing of all parts of the plant, including the fruit, Mr. Scud removed the earth about an early year tree, eight weeks before the normal period for ripening, for a space of 13 to 16 feet in diameter, and to such an extent as to leave a depth of earth over the roots of only about 2-4 inches, which could be thoroughly warmed by the sun. He was surprised not only by the ripening of the fruit in the middle of July, but also by its superior juiciness and flavor. In another experiment, the removal of the earth from the north side of a tree, alone, caused the fruit on that side to ripen several days earlier than that on the south side. Frequent watering was of course necessary in the above experiment.

EXISTENCE OF LIVE MAMMOTS.—The discovery of mammoth in Siberia, in the deep gorges of the mountains near the Lena River, which was lately published as having been made by a scientific Russian convict, who saw five living animals, 12 feet in height and 18 feet in length, with projecting tusks four feet long, excites some discussion in Europe. It is worthy of inquiry whether the mammoth of the past tertiary period, discovered during this century in Siberia, near the same river, can have any relation to the convict's discovery. Thousands of these animals have been found buried in the ice, and with their well preserved skins, and thousands of tusks are brought to England to-day for the use of the turner. These are of nearly the same dimensions as those seen by the Russian. The convict has received an unconditional pardon on the recommendation of scientific men who have investigated his statements and believe them to be true.

FOUND AN EFFECTUAL CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

More than half a century ago a physician of the British Army discovered a cure for that torturing and incurable disease, RHEUMATISM, which, in his own practice, proved to be an unfailing remedy, the prescription of which has long been in the possession of a druggist, who gave it a trial in his own family over 45 years ago, when he made such a remarkable cure of RHEUMATISM that astonished all who were acquainted with the case. Others tried with such complete success that established the fact that it does effectually cure RHEUMATISM. Since the originator's death, this medicine has been put up under the name of GRAY'S PAIN EXPELLER. Its superiority to all others is universally acknowledged in the cure of most forms of RHEUMATISM.
For sale by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine. Price 25 cents.
