Mr Ansley, the teacher of that place for the last twelve years, being about removing to School Section No. 4, Markham, was taken by a sur trise party of some thirty or forty of the in habitants of that School Section, who came to spend the evening with him and family before leaving the neighborhood. The par y, according to arrangement, met at Mr Denton's store, Carrville, and marched in a body to the residence of Mr Ansley. Hav ing arrived at the house, they were met and kindly welcomed by Mr and Mrs Ansley, who, however, appeared as if they were at a loss to understand the object or intent of so bold and sudden an intrusion. Undisputed nos-session having been obtained, it was not long till the tables were bountifully spread with the good things provided by the ladies After all had satisfactorily partaken, and the cloth being removed, a chairman was appointed and an address was read by Mr John McDougall, in which mention was made of Mr Ansley's past twelve years of successful labor in the section, and conclud ed by wishing him and family, health, pros perity and happiness in their future home At the conclusion of the address. Mr John Snider, one of the school Trustees, stepped forward and in behalf of the company, presented Mr Ansley with a purse containing a valuable present. Mr Ansley in a few well chosen remarks responded. Appropriate speeches were made by Messrs Denton, ampbell and Booth The proceedings of the evening were enlivened by vocal and instrumental music provided by Mrs Cook and Miss Denton. The party separated at eleven o'clock, well satisfied that they had been paying a worthy tribute to a worthy friend,—H. D. B.
