Select Tale.

CINDERELLA

[CONCLUDED.]

The next morning Mr. Alden announced that he was going off on a long tramp; should probably be gone all day. Laura took advantage of his absence to closet herself with her dressmaker; Elizabeth locked herself into her room, and gave orders that all her little gushes of sentiment, her she was on no account to be disturbed. Aunt Tilly went down street to see a friend and do some errands.

"Now I have a chance to give Mr "Now I have a chance to get Alden's parlor a thorough putting to rights," said Cindy to herself. has needed it this long time." And, tying a handkerchief over her head, she forthwith went to work.

She was rubbing tables and chairs with a hearty good will, when the door suddenly opened.

Mr. Alden lifted his hat, while a sudden flush crimsoned his forehead. Then he stepped quickly in the room and took the duster from Cindy's hand.

"I beg your pardon," he said ; "but you do me too much honor. I took care of my own study when in college, and I can again. Lot the dust gather inch deep my lady abbess, before you don that becoming white head-gear another time in behalf of a lazy fellow like me.'

"That would be fine house-keeping !" she cried, snatching off the head-kerchief and hiding it in her pocket, while sho regained possession of the tabooed duster. "What made you come back, Mr. Alden? You were to be gone all day."

"To catch you in the midst of your sins, Miss Cinderella," he answered solemnly, wheeling a large chair into position; "and to inflict righteous judgment upon you by compelling you to sit still for half an hour while I show you these," said he, unlocking a portfolio of rare engravings.

Cindy's eyes sparkled and her checks flushed. Then she turned toward the door. "But the dinner, Mr. Alden! I-'

"Dinner be-dispensed with," he said. "I want nothing but a bowl of be a mistake." he said, gently. "It milk. Confess, now! You did not think of dinner till I came !"

She did not roply; and she stood there with her hand on the doorknob-a pretty pieture of irresolution.

"No dinner for mo," he wont on. "Are you fond of pictures? What shall 1 show you? Figure pieces-landscapes? What do you like best?"

"I-hardly know-" she faltered. "I have seen so few. Show me your own work, Mr. Alden; something yeu are doing now. I shall be sure to like that."

Ho hesitated, glanced at her curi-ously, half-laughed, and then laid his hand on the cloth thrown over an easel near the window.

"Did you lift this?" he asked " Did you look at this picture ?"

"Oh, no, no !" she cried, coloring. you did not leave in plain sight."

"This is no Blue Beard's closet, work of a beginner, Miss Laura," he said at length. "You are a perpetual Married on a Railway Train. The Pittsburgh Commercial says :-

Lively Butter.

seated on a doorstep, who was laughing tears as big as chestnuts, and cry-

"Oh, it's 'nuff to kill a feller !"

Punctuality.

ing out,---

surprise to me. You have such a way Yesterday an unusual event transof getting at the heart of things. What pired on the eastern bound passenger did you mean by this? Put your train, on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad. Among the passen-He was surprised-puzzled. No gers was the Rev. T. J. Kennedy, a man could be blind to Laura's beauty United Presbyterian Minister of Steuhe had enjoyed it as he had enjoyed a benville. There were also two other lovely picture. But he had soon dis overed, or thought he had, that with persons, who, in the opinion of the conductor, Mr. Jenkins, might be artless candor, she had no more soul made happy on receiving a few words of consolation from the reverend genthan the Venus de Medici. Yet now for more than a month, she had tleman. The conductor, unwilling to permit an opportunity to do a good turn to slip by unimproved, informed brought to him, day after day, designs and speeches that betrayed a power his clorical friend that a lady and genof thought, a depth of feeling and intleman, passengers in the rear car sight, a pure womanliness beyond his wished to soo him. Mr. Kennedy comprehension. The execution was was escorted back, and on being inoften very faulty-but the power was troduced to the couple, was asked by there undeniably. the gentleman whether he had any

"You meant something by this, objection to marrying them then and he went on, as she did not speak. there. The minister replied that he "You were not simply making a pichad not, provided they were both ture. I think I read your thought. But tell me what it was." Just then a step sounded on the he requested the couple to stand up, gravel walk without. Laura hastily and the ceremony was then and there thought into words.'

gathered up her papers; but before performed-the train running at a she could reach the one Mr. Alden was examining, a sudden gust of wind Beaver and Rochester. The groom caught it, and sweeping it outside the door, dropped it at Cindy's feet. and the bride Miss Melinda Conner, of "That is mine! Do not touch it !". Carrol County, Ohio. cried Laura. But with a quick start and an exclamation of astonishment, Cindy stooped down and picked it up. "It is mine," said she, calmly,

There is an old goat owned in De while her form dilated and her eye troit which has received a great deal of training from the boys. Last, Fourth of July they discovered that if they stuck a fire-cracker in the ond kindled with sudden light. "It is mine. Where did you get it, Laura? And what right have you to show my pencilings to Mr. Alden ?"

of a cane and held it at William, he "It is not yours-it is mine." reweuld lower his head and go for them; peated Laura, trembling like a leaf and pallid as a ghost; "I drew it toand they have practiced the trick so much that the goat will tackle any day-this very morning." human being who points a stick at Cindy colored painfully. She had him. A few days ago he was loafing near the corner of Third and Lewis spoken involuntarily; but now she shrank, with womanly sensitiveness, streets, when a corpulent citizen came up and stopped to talk with a friend. from exposing her cousin to Mr Alden's contempt.

"Let it pas, then," she said, and would have turned away.

and said. But he stopped her, laying his hand upon the portfolio. "This can hardly "That's the worst piece of sidewalk in this town." is better to have an understanding on The goat had been eyeing the cane, the spot. Do you say this drawing is and the moment it came up he loweryours, Miss Cindy ?" ed his head, made six or eight jumps

She looked at Laura imploringly, but the latter stood sullen and silent as a statute.

"Is it yours, Miss Cindy ?"

She took the paper from his hand. Down in one corner, following the outline of a plantain leaf, she showed him certain minute characters. "Read that," she said. And he read aloud---" Ćinderella." "Would she be likely to have written that ?" she asked. Laura had vanished.

What passed for the next hour,

We admire punctuality, and we can Cindy could never have told. It was all a bewildering dream. Every sketch have but little patience with those in the portfolio was her own. They persons who are so regardless of it. had been taken one by one from the even in little things, as to continualbureau drawer. She had missed them, ly break their word, under the im-"How can you ask it, Mr. Alden, but supposed she carelessly mislaid pression that, "It is of no conse-Indeed I have looked at nothing that them herself, and had had no time to quence; it will all be understood, and make thorough search. In her sweet amount to the same thing in the end," humility she would not have dared to as many often say, to excuse their Miss Cindy. I should not have killed you if you had looked. But, to make the had seen them, had praised them, their word. There are some people amends for my imprudent question, I had spoken the kindest, dearest words who seldom or never do as they prohave half a mind to let you see this of hope and oncouragemet. He had mise. They habituate themselves to brown hair and whispered :

An Ark of Safety.

A recently invented English life-boat, for which much is claimed, is "yery like a whale." It is built on the cigar principle, only very short and fat. Those desiring to make use of it are placed inside, and the hatches battened down, and then it is claimed that she can withstand the highest storm waves or the heaviest surf that ever run. People who are not so fortunate as to get an inside berth on the start will have to wait alongside hanging on the chains, until the time arrives when the hatches may be safely opened.

A Veritable "Nightmare."

At a concert in Buffalo the other night a little boy who had fallen asleep tumbled off his seat. Somebody misinterpreting the noise thus occasioned shouted "fight." This in turn was interpreted "fire," and the ensuing scene compotent to onter into the sacred baffles description. The whole audience relation. Being assured on this point, made a frantic rush for the doors and windows. Women and children were thrown down and tramped under foot. Many actually leaped from the windows, a distance of fourteen feet. The alarm speed of thirty miles an hour, between of fire was struck and the whole force was Mr. S. J. Holmes, of East Liberty, turned out. After quiet was restored a committee was appointed to wake the boy.

"Fit for an Empress." The lace dress which was made by the Compagne des Indes of Paris for the Empress Eugenie is made up over Black velvet and shows to fine effect on that fabric. The underskirt is one piece, not flounced, its design being heavy scalloped border of roses and tulips, twined with leaves, and interlacing with another border formed of finer scallops of forget-me-nots and ivy leaves. Each large scallop has a medal lion figure filled with roses, tulips, and forget-me-nots imbedded in an urn of exquisite workmanship. Another me-dalion semi-encircles this one, and the They happened to speak of sidewalks, two are tied with a true-lover's knot when the corpulent citizen pointed carried around the whole underskirt. his cane just to the left of the goat, This true-lover's knot tying the medallions and interlacing over the whole is considered the gem of the design.

-Irish Wit. The proneness of Irish wit to hyper and his head struck the corpulent cit-izen just on "the belt." The man the man who described the gluttony of bole is well illustrated in the story of went over into a mass of old tin, dila young pig by saying that he had fed apidated butter kegs and abandoned him with two pailfuls of milk and meal, hoop skirts, and the goat turned a and then put the pig in the pail, which somersault the other way, while the he didn't half fill. slim citizen threw stones at a boy

Another specimen of the same exag geration is reported by a correspondent traveling in Ireland, who overheard an Irishman describing to some companions the country he was urging them to omigrate to.

"Ameriky," said he, " is a might sizable place. I'm told ye might roll England through it, an' it would hardly make a dint in the ground. There's resh water ocean inside of it that you night drown Ireland in an' save Father Mathew a wonderful sight of trouble. An' as for Scotland, you might stick it in a corner of their forests, an' you'd never be able to find it, except, it might oc, by the smell of the whisky !"

Some Facts About Paper.

Going to the City.

I dread nothing more than to hear

The manufacture of paper is one o -even at the risk of your displeasure. Look there !' It was a quaint old kitchen; dim, shadowy, lighted only by the embers on the hearth. Learning against the on the hearth. Leaning against the table and cried from very joy? Or worthy people; but they cannot since the introduction of printing by stone jamb of the great fire-place, buown bein and whimpand the should have smooth back her command confidence because their movable types, and especially since word is not regarded. We can men-all aristocracy of knowledge has dis-mended to us; the graceful attention tion young men of promise who are constantly losing ground with their acquaintances, solely by being inat-tontive to the being inat-tontin to the being in tentive to their obligations and pro-mises in little things. A man will parts of the civilized world at soon ruin himself in this way. In all business transactions, in all inter-will of index in all intercourse with friends, in all engage-ments, let all do exactly as they say -be punctual to the minute. That is the way to make other people so, and to make them trust us.

Miscellaneous Items. A little four year old, just-begin ning to learn the catechism, and who At Davenport (Iowa) a plainly bears a striking resemblance to his uncle, was asked by his mother, "Who made you?" He answered, "Dod made me." "In whose image?" dressed girl has been calling at city residences with the statement that her mistress wants to borrow a silver cake basket, as she expects company 'Uncle Jim's," answered the boy.

to tea. The girl of course had found out that the parties represented and those swindled were on intimate terms. She receives the basket and departs, never more to return. Three did."

graphic.

ladies were victimized. "Now John, suppose there's a load Is the only one really requiring no perof hay on one side of a river, and a ackass on the other side, and no sonai instruction. No one, howaver bridge, and the river's too wide to swim, how can the jackass get to the unskilled, inexperienced incrvous, or hay?" "I give it up." " Well.

hay?" "I give it up." "Well, that's just what the other jackass feeble, can fail to work it with pleasure and entire success. Awarded twenty A fire-proof paper is said to have been invented in England, consisting three first prizes in Ontario, and the of vegetable fibre, one part; asbestos two parts; borax, one-tonth part Diploma of Honor at the Art and In-The and alum, two-tenths of a part.

MALLS

PHE

principal ingredient in the ink to be dustry Exhibition in Michigan. used with this incombustible paper is November 29, 1873.

Several of the hot springs of the Yellowstone region are situated so near to the margin of the Yellowstone Lake that a person might stand on the silicous rim of the spripg, extend his fishing-rod into the water of the lake, and catch trout weighing from one to two pounds, and look them in the boiling springs without remov ing the fish from the hook. Indians have a very decided way of expressing dislike for an unsuccessful loctor. A number of the Tulare tribe in California recently confided several patients to a "big medicine man," and most of them died. A grand council was called, and after a huge pow-wow it was decided that he must die. He was accordingly led out a short distance and killed

A Bombay newspaper says that among the hill people it is a common practice to place infants beneath a constant jet of water conveyed through a bamboo spout from a mountain stream, so that the water falls upon the head of the child, which goes to keep under this cooling influence and sleeps for hours at a stretch. The water is believed to strengthen the brain and make the children not only healthy, but hardy and fearless.

Galveston are fighting each other. On Christmas Day the churches gave their Sunday school children presents and the theatre did the same for every child patron at the matineo. It was a nico arrangement for the children.

the matince.

employees of a large firm in that city, of their own motion, proposed a re-duction of salaries. Their generous offer was accepted. Since then the salaries had been put back to the old figures.

woman may be thoroughly pleasing to others. There are a thousand engaging ways which every person may put on without running the risk of being deemed either affected or foppish. The sweet smile; the quict cordial bow; the earnest movement in addressing a friend, or more especially a stranger who may be recon

"WEBSTER SEWING MACHINE UREKA

Dr. J. Walker's California Vin egar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the na-tive herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of Califor-nia, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BIT-TERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient re-covers his health. They are the great covers his health. blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Nover before in the bistory of the world has a medicine been companded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINKGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonio, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Billions Diseases blood purifier and a life-giving principle,

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS ATO Aperient, Diaphoratic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Dinretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Attora-tice and Arti Bilious Diseases This standard article is compounded with the great It effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ove

It restores all eruptions, itching, and dandruff; and he scalp by its uso becomes white and clean. Sedative, vounts tive, and Anti-Bilious, R. H. McDONALD & CO., San Francisco, California By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing haldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, Californ and cor. of Washington and Charlton Sts., N. Y Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Is a mest desirable Parlor Instrumen There are about 14,000 of them in us giving eminent satisfaction, and w effer them, in all confidence as bett value than any other in the marks. The Messes. Fischer have ever thirty years' successful manufacture of this of this Plane to refor to a guarantes of its good qualities. No other Plan has guined the same favor in so shot's a time in Canada as the Mesler size its introduction by us.

$3,000 new in tise; as other red i strument ever obtained the same pop

As a dressing nothing can be found is effectual, i estrable. PIANOS Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusett ays of it : "I consider it THE MARY PREFARATION for i ntended purposes." THE "MATHUSHEK" BUCKENGHAM'S DYE. FOR THE WHISKERS. Is endersed by the most moted artic of the day as the most mousted art durable Plano made, and in their di ferent styles, from the little "Hww wara Bind" to the "ORCHWERTAL square grands, are suited to the Be-doir, Parlour, or Concert Hall.

HALES

HAIR HAIR

Two Bighest Medals at Vienna THE CELEBRATED MANZER

D.SINE

.....

The theatres and the churches in because the Sunday schools were out ust in time for them to get around to Shortly after the Boston fire, the WALTER PASTABLE, July 12, 1873.

business of the firm has prospered, and last week the partners presented each of the clerks with a check for the full amount of the pay surrendered, and announced that all the

It is hard to say just how a man or with a weary look upon her young face, and her hands clasped despondingly, stood an unmistakable Cindergeneral idea of the power and pathos them at the door. of the picture, holding her breath for very delight, while Mr. Alden watched her eagerly. Her eyes wandered over the canvas, grasping detail after say that it was shameful, dastardly. detail, until at length, as if saving the But, Mr. Alden, it was to gain your bost wine for the last, it settled upon the drooping figure in the corner. For a moment she gazed silently; your face again. I do not think she then she uttered a faint exclamation, fully comprehended the baseness of while the red blood fled from her which she was guilty. Be as charit cheeks, and she burst into tears. Cin able as you can. derella's face was her own.

cried Mr. Alden, as he saw her agita-tion. "I could not help it! The long, Miss Elizabeth, for I am going name-and-everything ! Indeed, in- away to-morrow." deed, I did not mean to wound you. She gave him a quick look of But the idea has haunted me for some thanks. "I have something to say weeks, and I had to work it out. Tell to you, too, Cindy," warmly clasping me you are not hurt-not angry, Miss the hand extended to meet hers, "and Cindy! See! I will tear the picture I want Mr. Alden to hear it. I am in shreds, if you say so !"

But, Mr. Alden, I shall find my god-be a new order of things in this mother some time-or I shall make house. That's enough, isn't it?" one for myself-" and before he could detain her she had gone.

The next afternoon brought a heavy mail to Mr. Alden, and after tea ho need for for me to tell. strolled down to the bottom of the garden, where there was a rustic sum- Alden ; and, as I did not set about nucr-house with a table and a chair or two, to look over the new monthlies. two, to look over the new monthlies. Presently Laura followed him, with His friendship, and that of his sister, her portfolio.

her portfolio. "I don't expect you want to see me one bit," she said, throwing back her long curls with a pretty, childlike toss. "Not now, when you've just got news from home, and everything. But I've come, nevertheless. I do so want you to tell me what is the trouble with this sketch. I can't get it to suit me. Oh, Mr. Alden !" and she laid her whito hand upon his arm, appeal-ingly, "what shall I do when you go away, and I have no one to help me? You have added so much to my life!" He mado no reply—ungallant fel-low that he was—as he took the little before him and examined it carefully.

"Don't cry, Cinderella. You have surely found your fairy godmother !' When they went into the house in

Cindy took in nothing at first but a the deepening twilight, Elizabeth met

"Laura has told me all about it," she said in a constrained voice. "If she is my sister, I am compelled to good opinion that she did it, and she has gone away that she may not see

"It shall be a secret between us, "Forgive me; oh, forgive me!" nover to be spoken of," he returned not in the mood for many words, but 1 of the operator. The trouble is caused

But, Mr. Alden, I shall find my god- be a new order of things in this

What Cindy whispered, as she threw herself into Elizabeth's arms and kissed her burning check, there is no

You all think Cindy married Mr. to whom he did not fail to tell of the chimney, and establishes there an up-low that he was-as he took the little ful, cultured woman, in every sense skotch, or design from her hand, and glanced at it carelessly. But in a moment he lost his listless air, pushed back the hair from his forehead, laid the bit of drawing-paper on the table

"This dosign is remarkable for the ligent baby? When it's knowing.

A Useful Item.

Perhaps one of the most aggravat- One-half of the whole amount of the NIA VINEGAR BITTERS, and we call it ng difficulties over encountered by a paper made is used for printing pur- a novelty in tonics because it conbusy housewife is that attending the poses, one-third is used for commerce tains no alcohol-an article hereto lighting of fires on still, damp mornngs. The stove at first won't draw; even vigorous "blowing" will not suffice; and then when it does start, it is with a sort of explosion or outward rush of air which fills the room with smoke and gas, oftentimes puffing the unpleasant fumes in the face "No, no !" she cried, putting out have been abominably selfish and un-her hand to stop him. "Leave it as womanly, Cindy. I see it all now, coming the inertia of the long colcoming the inertia of the long col-

forced up through the interstices of often do when I am travelling about wood and coal, at the bottom of which the country, what chances there are for a lawyer in the city, I say, "Just the fire is kindled. All this may be the chance that a fly has on a spider's remedied by simply putting a few web; go down and be eaten up!" If havings or bits of dry paper on the top of the wood or coal. and first they ask me what chances there are for a mechanic in the city, I say, lighting that. It immediately bursts Good | good ! there Death carries into a blaze, because the air has peron a wholesale and retail business! feetly free access to it from all sides. The mechanic art flourishes finely the heated air forces its way in the Coffin-making is admirable! Men ward current. The match can then be applied to the kindling under the fuel, which will readily light, and, if made of flint, if his muscles are made fuel, which will readily light, and, if

The most fickle of her sex lives in in other words, he is built for mere Oakland, California. When about to toughness, then he can go into the be married she insisted that the cere- city, and go through the ordeal which mony should be performed in French business men and professional men To Church Trustees, Church Warand a postponement was had until the are obliged to go through who sucnext day. A French minister was the due to be ceed. The conditions of city life then on hand, and she thereupon re-may be made healthy so far as the physical constitution is concerned:

An inquiring sort of man has been ness of the city so much competition,

When is the weather like an intel- spectors were drawing an aggregate where there is one that can succeed in the spector where there is one that can succeed in the spector spector were drawing an aggregate in the spector in the spector spector were drawing an aggregate in the spector is the spector spector were drawing an aggregate where there is one that can succeed in the spector spector were drawing an aggregate where there is one that can succeed in the spector spector in gold. Every American is credited cines is making immense progress in with the consumption of 10¹/₄ pounds the confidence of all classes and conof paper per annum—a larger amount per person than that used by any other country except Great Britain. One-half of the whole amount of the and industrial purposes, and the rc- fore considered essential in medicinal maining one-sixth for writing paper. Besides the production in the United of the community approve the omis-STATIONARY States of 374,000,000 pounds of paper, sion, and as the new remedy is curing 300,000,000 are imported for use in dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous affec nanufactures and in printing offices. tions, and, in fact, a majority of the diseases, external and internal, which prevail, it is difficult to see how the more self-indulgent portion of our fellow citizens can conscientiously STEAM object to it. One thing is certain : if a "grand success," the sudden and continually increasing popularity of the VINEGAR BITTERS, deserves that name. The advocates of temperance point to the salutary effects produced SA W by this inalcoholic restorative as a proof that spirituous stimulants are not needed for medicinal purposes-a position which has been recently taken by many eminent practitioners.

Coffin-making is admirable! Men are dying ten times as fast as any-where else!" If a man's bones are made of flint, if his muscles are made of leather; if he can work sixteen or eighteen hours a day, and not wink, and then sleep, scarcely winking; if, in other words, he is built for mere toughness, then he can go into the eity, and go through the ordeal which

15

20

25

30

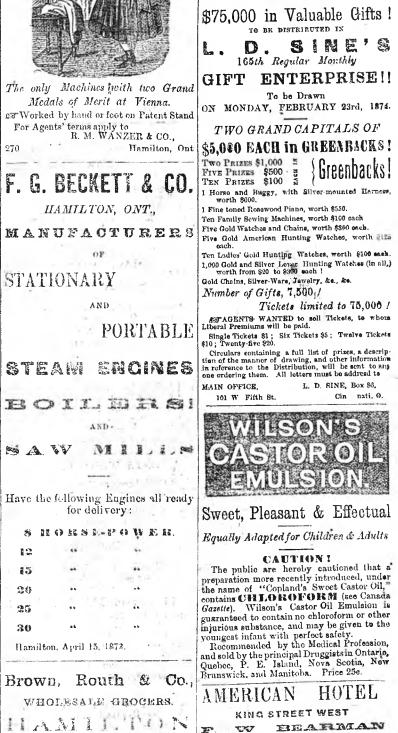

DIRECT IMPORTERS

TEAN, NUCLEN, Lie., E. Ostberl, 1873.

dens, &c. FOR SALE, but there is connected with the busi- A CHURCH ORGAN

Octave Pedals, two Manuels and twolve Stope Now in use in the John Street Methodist Church Hamilton. Can, while believeremoved he meda Now in use in the John Street Methodist Church, Hamilton, Can, wills being removed, be made into a very good instrument at comparatively swall ox-pense. Will be sold very low, as it must be re-moved to make room for a larger instrument purchased by the Trustees. Apply to GEORGE STERLING. 3 FOOM 10 TRUSTERS. GEORGE STERLING, P.O. Box 375. Mamilton. 399-61

Hamilton, January 9, 1874.

PROPRIETCR. GENERAL STAGE OFFICE HAMILTON, ONT.