RICHMOND HILL, Feb. 6, 1874.

GEORGE BROWN IN THE SENATE.

"Laid on the shelf,"—such is the term that Mr Brown applied to himself in his recent speech in the Music Hall Toronto. Should this really be true, it would be a great boon to the country. It is impossible to deny the eccentric and grotesque talent, the wild reckless energy, the passionate and wilful determination, and the wealth of vested opportunity and mental power, of this political gorilla. In some of his lucid intervals he seemed willing and anxious to devote himself to the service of the country, but these never lasted long; his bad passions invariably resumed their sway, and he rushed into the work of agitation with the malignant zest of a fallen angel. To misrepresent the best intentions, and give them the appearance of crimes; to bespatter and befoul his opponents if they presumed to differ from him with an incessant shower of filth, until they presented a semblance of the deformities of the vicious, was a congenial employment, a delightful task. No lion-like magnanimity or promptings of humanity ever held him back from pouring the vials of his wrath out against the unfortunate who happened to excite his displeasure. He hunted him from public life with wolfish persistency and ferocity, and made him feel the full venom of his vengeance without pity and without remorse. Therefore, a very large bird of a sinister character, came home to roost when the Brit Government found themselves compelled to admit George Brown into the Senate. They were made to understand that the leverage which elevated them to the head of affairs might be used quite as readily to dislodge them—the mere puppets of his will and pleasure. There was no alternative—the "old man of the sea" must be shouldered with a tear and a sigh—and oh, woe, he will make our political Sinbad sup sorrow before he is done with him! They will now be made to feel that their heart's core the tyranny which they award to the instrument which bestowed on them the semblance of power. They dared not place him in defiance. So they chose the smallest horn of the dilemma, and shouldered their cross. It will require no small amount of generalship to keep the new Senator out of mischief, but it is safer for them to carry their "secret skeleton" with them, than to leave it outside to perform its fantastic fandangoes in the face of day. They have decked themselves with a gigantic jewel in this political millstone, which it is perfectly safe to prophesy will bring them nothing but confusion. There is hardly any man who is so objectionable to the majority of the Canadian public—who busy themselves with politics—as George Brown. The so-called Reform Party repudiate him on account of the unmitigated amount of abuse which he was accustomed to shower on his opponents, and for which they were held responsible, rendering it impossible for them to make any converts in the ranks of other politicians. Naturally enough every one felt a great amount of hesitation in shouldering the odium of such an increasing torrent of aimless abuse. Again, his attacks upon the Conservative Party were infamously unfair—to put it mildly. And naturally enough they were compelled to answer his malevolent diatribes as energetically as possible. The hatred which a generous man bears towards the bully whose exasperating conduct has compelled him to act the same role in turn—a part which he hates and despises—is a very bitter one. The Conservative members felt the iron entering their sores when they found themselves the targets of so much unjust abuse, and again when they found themselves compelled to answer in the same strain. It is not a matter for wonder that they regarded him as a sort of political "devilfish," whose terrible tentacles they might feel any day enfolding them and hurrying them to destruction. The inroads of age may possibly have subdued his dark and stubborn temper—that wild unrelenting energy and the unthinking enthusiasm with which he enunciated ideas detrimental to the public interest; but we are afraid that even the lessons of experience have been rejected by his obstinate self-will. If he devotes himself to his usual work, he will be sure to disgust everybody and bring his party again to grief. He has personally, however, nothing to lose; he is already a political outcast! His province is detraction, and his hand may be traced in the angry attitude of antagonistic journalism, and in the bitter and uncompromising hostility of contending parties.

COURSE OF LECTURES.—A course of lectures will be given in St. Paul's Church, (Church of Scotland,) 7th Con. Vaughan, during the months of February and March. The proceeds to be devoted to the Church Building Fund. The second lecture of the course will be delivered by the Rev. James Carmichael, King, on Wednesday evening, the 4th inst., Subject:—"The way to Manitoba." Lecture to commence at 7 P.M. Admission 20 cts., families of more than three members, 15 cts each. 2

FRUIT AND SILVER SOCIAL.—A fruit and silver social will be given at Purvilleville, on Monday the 9th inst. In connection with the above social there will be (D.V.) a Lecture, delivered by the Rev. J. A. McClung, on "Havelock, the hero of the Sepoy Mutiny." Also recitations by the Sabbath School children and music by the Teston Choir. Admission free, but a silver coin, lecture will be taken up. Chair to be taken at 7 P.M. Proceeds of the social to procure a library &c., for the Sabbath School.

THE CLERK OF THE TOWNSHIP OF VAUGHAN AND THE VOTERS' LISTS.

It is one of the unpleasant duties of a journalist to find fault with paid public servants who, through ignorance or neglect, fail to perform the duties required of them—for which they are amply paid—and through whose short-comings the public are deprived of their rights. Several instances of electors being deprived of the franchise at the polling sub-divisions in the Township of Vaughan have been brought under our notice; and the cause of which is said, by the Township Clerk, to have arisen out of errors in the office of the Clerk of the Peace. In order that the blame might rest on the shoulders of the proper party, we requested a friend to call at the office of the Clerk of the Peace and examine the original Voters' Lists, filed by the Clerk of the Township of Vaughan. Our agent reported to us that he was treated in a courteous manner by the Clerk of the Peace and his officers, and every facility afforded him to examine the Voters' Lists, which he did, and found that the errors brought under our notice should not be attributed to the Clerk of the Peace, but to Mr James M. Lawrence, the Township Clerk. What is worse for Mr Lawrence, he knew when he told the indignant and disappointed electors, at the polling place, that the Clerk of the Peace had left their names off the Voters' List, that he was making a misstatement (to use a very mild term) because, as we are informed, he has a duplicate of his own list on file, and that would prove that the error originated with himself, and not the Clerk of the Peace. But those who know him well are not surprised; it is not his practice to acknowledge a wrong. We regret exceedingly having to call public attention so frequently to the manner in which the Clerk and Treasurer of Vaughan perform the duties of his office; but we feel it is our duty to the numerous supporters of this paper in the Township to apprise them truthfully of all that concerns their interests.

There is another circumstance in connection with Mr Lawrence's blundering in the recent election, which might lead to very serious consequences; we refer to the fact of his acting as Deputy Returning Officer at sub-division No. 2, held at Patterson, instead of being at the Township Hall. The Statute is very clear upon this point, it reads as follows:—

"In Townships divided into polling subdivisions under this Act, the Township Clerk shall be appointed by the Returning Officer to be Deputy Returning Officer for the subdivision in which the Town Hall is situated, if there be a Town Hall in such Township."—32 Vic. chap. 21—Section 32.

Thus it will be seen that Mr Lawrence has actually endangered the legality of the election, by his acting in direct violation of a clear provision in the law. But it is pretty well understood throughout the Township that Mr Lawrence knows but little, and cares less, as to the legality or illegality of his proceedings; he does as he pleases, and suits his own convenience.

It is now generally known throughout the Township of Vaughan that the Clerk and Treasurer of the Township is in receipt of a stated salary of $325 a year, besides pickings, which (as far as is accounted for) appear to run up to the sum of $141-31; these two sums amount $466-31. We would ask the Council of the Township what is the reason for having one portion of the Clerk and Treasurer's remuneration in the shape of a stated salary, and another in the shape of "pickings," why not have a stated sum for all services pertaining to the office, and place the matter in a position that the ratepayers may really know how much they are paying Mr Lawrence. The extra he accounts for are comprised as follows:—

Percentage on School Money.....	$68-30
Registration Fees.....	18-40
Selection of Jurors.....	13-00
Journeys and Postages.....	10-00
	31-61
	$141-31

In addition to the sum of $325, is not very bad pay to a person of such limited intelligence as the Clerk and Treasurer of Vaughan Township. However, if it is not sufficient, we say give him all that he is entitled to, but let it be in one stated sum, without extras. Insist upon his performing the duties properly and locating his office in a convenient part of the Township, that farmers may not have to travel from the extreme west and south-west of the Township of Vaughan to Richmond Hill, (another Municipality) to transact their business with the Township Clerk—and when they arrive find his place of business closed during office hours. There must be a remedy found for this, and we trust the new Council will prove themselves equal to the task; if not, we shall refer to the matter again—it is a subject that will keep.

CONVENTION.—The annual Convention of the Sabbath School Association for the East and West ridings of York will be held at Richmond Hill, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 17th and 18th inst. Ministers of the Gospel and Sabbath School Teachers will be present to address the meetings. The public are cordially invited to attend.

CONCERT.—A grand Concert will be given in School House No. 4, Union, Markham and Vaughan, Yonge Street, this (Friday) evening, by the School children, assisted by the Richmond Hill Brass Band, and other well known Amateurs. Tickets, 15 cts.; Children 10 cts. Doors open at 7 o'clock.

COURSE OF LECTURES.—The Third Lecture of the course will be given in Melville Church, 6th Con. Markham, by Mr. Wm. Brodie, S.D., on Wednesday evening next. Subject:—"Darwinism compared with the teachings of Revelation and Science." Lecture to commence at 7 P.M. The funds to be expended on necessary repairs and alterations of the Church. Admission, 10 cts. 2

Editor's Notes.

The Village Council meets on Monday evening next, at the usual hour.

LANGSTAFF FARMERS' CLUB.—On Wednesday evening 18th inst., Mr G. Wedrick will deliver a lecture on the relation of the farmer to the government of his country.

CURLING.—The annual Curling Bonspiel, City of Toronto vs. County of York; 10 Rinks a side, (40 players) will come off in Toronto, on Tuesday next, the 10th inst., commencing at 12 o'clock, noon.

MONTHLY FAIR.—The usual monthly fair was held in our town on Wednesday last. This fair is generally well attended, and as usual there was a large number of cattle on the ground and plenty of buyers, and a great many cattle changed hands.

SOIREE MUSICALE AND TABLEAU VIVANTS.—By request the young ladies of Mrs Campbell's school, assisted, as before, by several former pupils, intend to give another entertainment in the Masonic Hall, on Monday evening, the 16th inst. Tickets, 25 cts, children, 15 cts. Doors open at 7:30 p.m. to commence at 8. Proceeds to be devoted to the same purpose as on the former occasion. 2

CONCERT.—The Richmond Hill Amateur Brass Band propose holding a grand concert in the Masonic Hall, on Friday evening the 13th inst., the programme will be both instructive and amusing, embracing something new to what has hitherto been given in the neighborhood, as some talented amateurs have been engaged for the occasion. Proceeds to clear off the debt on the instruments. Doors open at 7 p.m. to commence at 7:30. Admission, adults 25 cts; children, 15 cts. The public are cordially invited. 2

POST OFFICE SAVINGS' BANK.—Monthly Statement.—The following is the exhibit of the transactions for the Richmond Hill post office Savings Bank up to the 31st January:—

Total deposits to 31st January, 1874.....	$73928.00
Deposits in month of January.....	801.80
Withdrawals in January.....	1301.61
	M. TEEFY, Postmaster.

YONGE STREET S. S. TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The next meeting of this Association will take place on Monday, the 9th inst., at 6:30 o'clock P.M., in the W.M. Church, Maple. On this occasion the Rev. G. Bruce, will deliver an address—"How Christ taught, or Christ's mode of teaching." D. Fotheringham, Esq., I. P. S., will give a blackboard lesson, and others are expected to address the meeting on Sabbath School work. All who are interested in S. S. work are cordially invited to attend.

WESLEYAN MISSIONARY MEETING.—A Missionary Meeting will be held in the Church at Patterson next Wednesday evening, the 11th inst. In addition to the ministers on the circuit, the meeting will be addressed by the Revs. Thos. S. Keough, and L. Taylor, D. D., the Clerical Treasurer of the Missionary Society. Dr Taylor has just recently returned from a visit to the various Mission Stations in Manitoba and the Hudson Bay Territory, and his well-known ability will enable him to give much important and interesting information relating to those distant regions. No doubt many of the people of this community will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the "Highland Laddie" talk once more,—the venerable bachelor D.D. will pardon us for using the expression. Of course that inevitable adjunct of all such meetings, the collection, will not be forgotten.

GOOD TEMPERANCE.—The members of York County Temple met in the Congregational Church, Markham Village, on the 22nd ult., and although the day was very disagreeable, still a goodly number of delegates and visitors came to aid in the proceedings. Bro. Daniel Stouffer having taken the chair the business of the meeting was proceeded with. Several Temples reported progress in the good cause, especially Richmond Hill Temple, which now numbers one hundred and fifty. The report of the Extension Committee was received and adopted. Finance committee's report was favorable. Moved by Bro. Keaser, seconded by Bro. Brown, that no motion be put from the chair unless presented in writing with the names of mover and seconder attached. Moved by Bro. Brown, seconded by Bro. Bealy, that the discussion respecting the rights of members, who are not delegates, to vote, be dropped. Moved by Bro. Sanderson, seconded by Bro. Reesor, that this temple meet half yearly. Moved by Bro. Bealy seconded by Bro. Pickering that the Temple meets on the second Wednesday in June, and the next meeting be held at Nobleton. The following resolution was then passed:—"The members of York County Temple, now in session, tender you their heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your daughter, and hope that this affliction will be your loss and her gain; that He who has called you to pass through this trial will sustain and comfort you and your partner.—To the Rev. Mr. Abbs, P. W. C. County Temple. The following are the names of the officers who were elected and installed for the coming year:—W. C. Bro. David Stouffer; W. V. S. Bro. Brown; W. S. Bro. Bell; W. A. S. S. Bro. Crosby; W. T. S. Bro. Sanderson; W. F. S. Bro. C. Sheppard; W. M. O. Bro. Redditt; W. I. G. S. Smith; W. O. G. Bro. Bealy; W. Chaplain, Bro. Pickering. The meeting in the evening was well attended, and was addressed by the Revs Messrs Bulman, Finch, and Pickering, in favor of Temperance. Messrs Sanderson, Wales, and others entertained the audience by singing several temperance songs.

Fred. Crawford's "Rambles" unavowedly crowded out this week but will appear in our next issue.

Dress in Church.

It was noticed that when the Queen of England, a few weeks ago, attended at a Presbyterian church in Scotland, she was dressed without jewelry, or any of the symbols of fashions. The Evangelist, referring to this, says:—

This example of the highest lady of the realm might be imitated, not only in Great Britain, but in this country, for nowhere, we are ashamed to say, is the bad taste of ostentation in dress more conspicuous than here. It seems as if, with many, the Sabbath were the grand occasion for display, and the church the place for self-exhibition. In no other country have we seen so much show and tinsel in the churches as in some of our own cities. In Europe—not only in England, but on the Continent—such display is rigidly forbidden, not by law but by the recognized canons of good taste. No thing is considered more vulgar—a more certain mark of low breeding—than this kind of ostentation in a place of worship. It is only the "new rich"—what we would call the "shoddy" people—that try to exhibit themselves in the house of God. But as that class is larger in this country than elsewhere else, we have more of these wretched exhibitions. We trust our ladies will not be above taking a lesson from the Queen of England.

The following taken from a late English paper, may be of interest to some of our readers:—

PENNY READING.—The first of a series of these entertainments was given in the National School, Aston, on Friday evening, under the presidency of the Rev. Charles Leir (in the absence of the Rector). The accompaniments were undertaken by Miss Weuhum and Mr W. Wurr, and the following programme was rendered:—

- Pianoforte Solo, Miss G. Oddie.
- Song "Maggie's Secret," Miss H. G. Seager.
- Reading, "The Little Chimney Sweeper," Rev. J. O. Seager.
- Song, "Susan's Story," Miss Oddie.
- Song, "The Open Window," Rev. H. Turner.
- Duet, "The Cousins," The Misses Oddie.
- Reading, "The Fish that hung himself," Rev. C. Leir.
- Song, "When I was Young," Miss A. G. Seager.
- Song, "The Whistling Thief," Rev. C. Leir.
- Recitation, "The Yarn of the Mary Bell," Rev. H. Turner.
- Song, "Home Sweet Home," Miss G. Oddie.
- Comic Song, "The Rustic Young Beauty," Mr G. Jackson.
- "God Save the Queen."

Never kick a man when he is down unless you are sure he can't get up.

If you want to make a bustle in the world take five newspapers and a piece of tape.

Rev. Gent.—"But you really can have no serious reasons to wish to be parted from your wife." "Elastic." "Well, no, Sir. I like my wife well enough, but you see, she don't please mother."

News is scarce in Minnesota. In the effort to present something fresh, a Lanesboro paper has found it necessary to publish the Ten Commandments, under an excuse of "a gentle reminder now and then."

FOUND AN EFFECTUAL CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

More than half a century ago a physician of the British army discovered a cure for that horrible and incurable disease, RHEUMATISM, which, in his own practice, proved to be an unfailing remedy, a season of druggists, who gave it a trial in his own family over 25 years ago, when it made such a remarkable cure of that disease that astonished all who were acquainted with the case. Others tried with such complete success that established the fact that it does effectually cure RHEUMATISM. Since the originator's death, this medicine has been put up under the name of GRAHAM'S PAIN EXPELLER. Its superiority to all others is universally acknowledged in the cure of most forms of pain. Try it.

For sale by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine. Price 25 cents.
