The York Kerald.

RICHMOND HILL, Feb. 13, 1874.

THE LETTER-STEALERS. The hide of the Editor of the Radical sheet published at Markham is so impervious to the truth that he will not admit he is on false premises when he accuses Sir John Macdonald of having sold the Charter.

We contend, on the contrary, that if he had sold the Charter to McMullen and his confederates, the directors of the American Pacific Railway, he would have been in power yet. His refusal so to do caused the commitment of that crime in which the Editor of the Economist admits he had a share, for he says in his paper of July last :- "We have the letters, bank books, telegrams, &c., of Sir John "—and Sir John says in his speech in the last House of Parliament, "That night after night a man was seen entering the office of Sir Hugh Allan for the purpose of getting those telegrams &c., or copies of them." By the use of been committed—but a low, dirty, mean crime worthy of the men whom the Economist supports -- a band of Pharigaical hypocrites. We are now sold body and bones into the hands of the American to bolster their "South Sea Bubble" at the expense of the Dominion, and especially of this Province. And yet the Hon. Mr Keesor approves of it, coincides in the patch work quality of the railroad policy of the McMullen Government at Ottawa. We would be much obliged if the Economist would take pity on us and our mind's eye our friend Metcalfe, the standard-bearer of the Grits of East York in the House of Commons, as good a hand as the next at making contracts; and also of either running away from them or car rying them out, and not above taking a job on the Pacific Railway.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION. The annual Convention of the Sabbath School Association of the East and West Ridings of York, will meet in Richmond Hill on the 17th and 18th of the present month in the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Several gentlemen from Toronto and other parts of the County, of experience in Sabbath School matters, have promised to give their assistance on the occasion. We hope that all who are interested in the promotion and sustaining of Sabbath Schools in this and surrounding localities will endeavor to be present at the sessions held during the day, as well as those of the evening. As a large number of delegates and visitors are expected to be present from all parts of the ridings, we hope that the citizens of our village will receive, with their accustomed beginning, the representatives of the several schools. The Association is entirely undenominational and its members represent all the sections of the Christian Church. Its object is to promote the interests of the Sabbath Schools in connection with our several churches, thus making it incumbent upon all. whether directly engaged in the work or not, to extend a welcome to those who lay before teachers and others the best plans for managing our Sabbath Schools, and who endeavor to educate the church and public up to their duty in respect to su ing the same.

The following programme of the two days sessions has been issued by circular by the Executive Committee :--PROGRAMME.

A GOOD EXAMPLE BY A WARDEN. The York County Council came to a close on Saturday last. The members were entertained to a supper at the American Hotel by the new Warden, Mr Wm. Cane.

Warden also expressed his opinion that in view of the present agitation in favor of Temperance it would be advisable, for the Temperance it would be auvisable, for the sake of example, if not from a higher principle sirous of obtaining Licenses to make application by petition to the Council. (See the Warden was unanimously concurred in enthusiasm-in water.
