GENTLE WOMAN ROUSED.

in the West.

BY REV. E. P. ROE,

Author of "What Can She Do? " Barriers Burned Away," &c.

fanat-

[CONCLUDED.]

I shall never forget the group that we found assembled in the judge's parlor. There were young faces present besides that of Mrs. Elliott. But all were pale and lined with care-all were solemn with an earnest purpose, and touched with the pathos of suffering. "Ladies, this is Mrs. Elliott," said

Mrs. Ashman, simply. All rose to receive their leader, and she assumed control with the simplicity around her. and dignity which only noble natures can attain. must have thrilled the very soul of the

"In the main you are strangers to most hardened present, "shall human me," she said, "but our common dan- love and human anguish plead before ger and our common wrong knit our thee in vain ! Art theu not a God ot souls together as one. The evil which merey, and yet cruelty is crushing us l threatens our lives and homes has grown Art thou not a God of justice, and yet so desperate that it seems to require we are being robbed of all that makes desperate remedy. It is a terrible cross life endurable ! Thou didst stop the for us weak, timid women to go on this month of lions. Here in our Christian mission. It brings back to us the days land are human hearts more savage. of martyrdom. Yesterday I thought 1 Thou didst preserve in the furnace seven would die rather than do this. Now I times heated. Beneath our church feel that I would die if I did not go, for spires burns the more remorseless and a dearer life than mine is in peril. I believe that I but imperfectly express thou not break the stony heart before the feelings of each one here. God us, and bend his stubborn will to thine ! scems to be enabling our sisters in Thou knowest that because of our love other places to save their dear ones. In His name let us go forth to like rescue, believe that thou dost love them even and before we go let us kneel to Him in silent prayer for help and guidance."

We knelt, but the prayer was not silent. There were sobs and groans and involuntary cries.

At last we sallied forth, pale, but as determined a litlle phalanx as ever assaulted a death-swept breach. It was sleeting, but we carried no umbrellas. This was not a pleasure excursion. We marched as soldiers do.

Our appearance upon the street soon attracted attention. People spoke hurriedly and excitedly together.

" By thunder, its broken out here ! I heard one man exclaim. "Where will they strike first ?" "Harry Hill's, as you live," auswered, "for that's Vint. Elliott's wife a leadin'.' The news spread fast, and soon we had an ample but nondescript following. Still the crowd was respectful. The worst man who had caught a her back to the audience as a startling she sank helplessly in his arms and he glimpse of Mss. Elliott's face could not have been otherwise.

By turning a corner we came sud denly upon the entrance of Hill's saloon. There was a bustle within as if they would lock the door against us, but we were too prompt for them, and entered. The crowd thronged in after us, and place completely.

Mrs. Elliott advanced at once to the bar and we grouped ourselves around her, and such a group as had never been seen in our city before.

"Where is Mr. Hill?" asked our leader, in a firm voice.

The bartender stared at her a moment in blank dismay, and then called out:

"Mr. Hill, here, quick, for God's pity he can't stand up for himself with sake ! out sending his wife around a praying and beseeching for him." "Yes, tell him to come for God's other people. This is my business, once so kind and good, gave me that You've no right here interfering with blow. It went in deep. It nearly cost it. These are my premises. You've me my life. But it made a deeper scar ELI PERKINS ON THE KANSAS PACIFIC. A Story of the Temperance Movement no right here without my consent. You on my heart. People must stop selling all make yourselves liable to indictment rum to my husband, or I can't live. I for trespass. Besides, it ain't the right feel that I will do something desperthing for ladies to go tramping through ate." "Oh please do promise, Mr. Hill," the streets followed by a rabble, and pleaded a meek-looking little woman, meddling with things that don't concern them. It isn't lady-like. It's with streaming eyes. "My only son and the buffalo country to Denver. ing speed, and threw gravel, cobblehas come home drunk twice of late, and he says he got the liquor here.' "Hush! in a word, answer me!"

" (Hive

"Now look here, ladies," said Mr. cried Mrs. Elliott, in a voice that went to every heart like an arrow. "Will Hill, trying to work himself into a pasyou not promise me never to sell my sion, "business is business. A man must live. I've stood this longer now husband another glass of liquor ?" "No !" shouled Hill, "nor any other than-"

He was interrupted by a tall, gaunt Says voman's husband. I will promise to oman who strangely reminded me of sell to all who'll pay. the stern old prophets. Without a word There was a sudden hoarse murmurof prelude, she stepped forward and coming on the part of the crowd, but in a enced singing in a weird minor key: moment it was hushed, for the insulted O Thon who for humanity wife had knelt on the floor before the

Wept blood at every pore, We come in kindred agony bar. We all dropped on our knews Thy mercy to implore. "O Ged," she plended, in a tone that Must we, for aye, sigh hopelessly, In worse than Egypt's bouds? Must we, despairing, helplessly Endure destroying wounds?

Most fearful is our enemy. Yor when he strikes a blow, Two hearts are pierced and porishing-A household stricken low.

Oh give to us thy sympathy, Awake thine arm of power, Shake off the nation's apathy. Proclaim the battle hour.

"Mr. Hill," said Mrs. Judge Ashnan, "we propose to stay here till you destructive passion of avarice. Wilt make us this promise, unless you thrust us forth with violence."

" Let him try that if he dares," eried dozen voices from the crowd. we could die for our dear ones, but we Hill considered a few moments and then said : " Well, madam, I've thought more. Wilt thou not in mercy change their destroyers into men ? Wilt thou it over-indeed, I thought it over before not take this awful soul-killing temptayou came, for 1 expected this inferal tion out of their path? We plead in movement would break out here. I the name of thy dear Son, who gave his have an establishment in New York such as I, sell, there, to the end of the Strange to say, there was a responwould have done credit to a Methodist and stop selling here till this thunder " class meeting," and as I looked around gust blows over. This is the best promise I'll make if you stay here for a on rising, I saw many eyes wet with tears where I had expected only looks month. So please vacate, and I'll put of scorn. I did not dare meet Mr. up my shutters." Elliott's eyes, though he remained spell-After a brief consultation the ladics bound and standing in the door-way and there were those of their number who wished to visit other saloons. By this time the strain upon Mrs. long and severe, and she grew very pale bent upon him a look such as I never and faint. Her husband had urged her form and features perfectly, and gave having gained her own point. But now picture Hill tried to meet her eye carried her to an adjacent drug-store, sent for a carriage, and we were soon in the blessed refuge of home. But before an hour passed her pulse grew quick and her choeks feverish. The husband hung about her in an penetrating and awe-inspiring, "once agony of solicitude.

more I ask you, I besuch row, answer After doing man I amid I left them, thinking they were better atoms. when we stand before His judgment When the evening shadows gathered. seat, will you not cease this dreadful as I was sitting in my room by the light of the fire, Mr. Elliott entered un-A death-like hush followed. Hill announced and said : was evidently cowed and overcome, and be sick," and he gave way to such an seized the box, and galloped off. This agony of grief as I neversaw convulse a was done in broad daylight, in the promise I will not sell any more to man's frame before.

I came and put my hand on his shoulder, but only said :

Please stay with her while I go for the "God help you both."

Fun on the Plains

We are much obliged to Mr. Whip-Westward, westward, westward wo plo for a ride behind his splendid have been riding all day over the team on Tuesday. The horses are Kansas Pacific. From Kansas City well matched, richly upholstered, and the road runs straight up the Kansas stand about ten feet from the wagon. River bottom and along Smoky Hill They got over the ground at a spank-On the train are Grangers from Car-On the train are Grangers from Car-on and Hugo, and killers and stab-bers from Wild Horseand Eagle Tail. As we near Salina, Kansas, Conduc-or Cheney comes along to collect the are. Touching a long-haired gentle stones, mud and so forth at every leap. son and Hugo, and killers and stabbers from Wild Horse and Eagle Tail. forth than of anything else. On the tor Cheney comes along to collect the wagon by sympathizing friends and fare. Touching a long-baired gentle a derrick. There was about half a man on the back he looks down and coffin full of debris in our hair, bosom and eyes, while our faces looked as if "Tickets!"

Spanking Speed.

NESS tires his brain-

and careworn --

the pressure of Hypophosphites.

THE TOILING STUDENT, "with vis

WHEN THE VICTIM OF NEURALGIA

THE PALPITATING, BURDENED, AND

WHEN WEAKNESS SUBDUES the body

WHOOPING COUGH. The most stubborn cases of Whooping Cough are

THE NEW WORLD'S GRAND REMEDY

-The Old World has played its part in vegetable medication. But the botany of the New World is, as vet.

imperfectly explored. One new and most important revelation from the land of wonders-California-has astonished the scientific, and accomplished such cures of diseases of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints, malarious fevers, nervous racked by exerutiating torment-

BRIEF-STRICKEN HEART succumbs to we had participated in a private powder explosion. We enjoyed the ride " Haint got none," said the passenvery much, and sincerely hope Mr. ger, holding his gun with one hand Whipple will die a natural death, but and scowling out from under his have our doubts.' black slouch hat.

" But you must pay your fave, sir !" expostulated the conductor. "Now jes look a-here, stranger mebby you'r' a doin' you duty, but I haint never paid yet goin' through this country, and -Just then a slouchy, old frontiersman who had been compelled to pay his fare in a rear car, stepped up in front of the mulish passenger and, pointing a six-sheoter at him, said :

"See here, Long Bill, you jes pay yer fare. I've paid mine, and they rom any cause, and when additional don't anybody ride on this train free strength is required, the most grateful if I don't - if they do damme !" and beneficial effects will ensue from "All right, you'v' got the drop on the use of Fellows' Compound Syrup me, old boy, so put up yer shooter an' I'll settle," said the passenger, going into his pockets for the money.

cursed in a few days by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. The old "Do these incidents often happon?" I asked the conductor a little while idea of this disease always running a afterwards. protracted course has exploded.

"Woll, yes, but not so often as they used to in '68 and '70, Mr. Perkins. The other day," continued the conductor, "some three-card-monte men came on the train and swindled a State, and they'll stand good liquor, drover out of $150. The poor man seemed to take it to heart. He said sive "Amen" from the crowd that chapter. I'll go there for the present his cattle got so cheap during the Eastern 'bust' that he had to just 'peel 'em' and sell their hides in Kansas City-and this was all the money he had. A half-dozen miners from Denver overheard the talk, and, coming up, they 'drew a bead' on concluded it was the best they could do, the monte men and told 'em to pay that money back.

" 'Just you count that money back conductor, they said, 'and after I had Elliott's delicate frame had been too done it,' continued the conductor, one of the head miners said :

" 'Now, conductor, you jes stop the saw on a woman's face before, for a to go home with him at once, but she train, an' we'll hang these three-card mirror in the bar opposite revealed her refused to leave her companions after fellers to the telegraph pole. " But the monte men flew out the bor too quick for 'em." To illustrate the value of human life in this country, Mr. Locko, the manager of the Kansas City Opera House, tells me this story : Two sears ago the James brothers. the same two desperadoes who sacked the express car, and "went through' be passengers on the Chicago, Rock ti. monsy-box at the Kansas State Fair. They role into Kansas City on horseback, and when the eashier was walking to the bank with the re-"O Mrs. M., I fear Nelly is going to pointed their pistols at his head, > midst of a great crowd. Well, some time afterwards one of the Kaneas City reporters wrote an article about these highwaymen, say-At last, he soid, "Now, I'm better, them brave, and said they had done ing some kind things. He called

The Danbury News man romarks For all the Purposes of a Family Physic, CURING Costiveness, Jarudica, Dys-pensis, Indicession, Dyser-ler, Fosi Stempsch and Breath, Erysbedas, Hasd-ache, Piles, Rhennarism, Eruptions and Skin Diseas-es, Bliousness, Liver Com-phaint, Drossy, Totter, Ta-mors, and Salt, Rhesm, Warner Charl, Neuralcia

ATER'S

CATHASTIC PILLS

four disordered organ into action; a health and tone to the whole being, only the every day complaints of every initiable and damerous diseases. Mo clans, most eminent everymen, and o ans, most enunera -convex senses of curves performed allo of fit they have derived from those Plus. T sedest and best private for elilidren, becau well as effectual. Heling sugar reacted, they take : and being purply regetable, they a barmless.

TREFARED IO

WHEN THE HARASSED MAN OF BUSI- DR. J. C. A YER&CO., Lowell, Mass. Practical and Analytical Chemists.

age sicklied o'er with the pale cast of Sold by all Druggists and dealers in Medi thought," becomes daily more gaunt

Northrup & Lyman, Newcastle, General Agents.

17

8

May 11, 1873.

The only in the Country.

$60,000 in Valuable Gifts TO BE DISTRIBUTED IN D. SINE'

166th Regular Monthly GIFT ENTERPRISE!! To be Drawn

ON MONDAY, MAY 4th, 1874. iffections, and all diseases proceeding from a vitiated condition of the blood TWO GRAND CAPITALS OF

> $5,000 EACH in GREENBACKS! Greenbacks! FIVE PRIZES $500 F TEN PRIZES $100 J

Horse and Buggy, with Silver-mounted Harness worth $600. trop of any variety of distilled or fer- One Fine toned Rosewood Piene, worth $300. Ten Family Sewing Machines, worth $100 each Five Gold Watches and Chains, worth $200 each Five Gold American Hunting Watches, worth $125 each.

Ten Ladies' Gold Hunting Watches, worth $100 each 1 rivalled stomachic, admirable in all 800 Gold and Silver Lever Hunting Wotches (in all,) worth from $20 to $200 cash ! Number of Gifts, 6 500 /

> Tickets limited to 60,000 AFAGENTS WANTED to sell Tickets, to whom Single Tickets $1; Six Tickets 55; Twelve Fickets 10; Twenty-five $20.

Circulars containing a full list of prizes, a descrip-ion of the manner of drawing, and other information ion of the manner of drawing, and other information in reference to the Distribution, will be sent to any one ordering them. All lotters must be address) to 1., D. SINE, Box 86, 101 W Fifth St. Cincinnati, O.

F. G. BECKETT& CO.

HAMILTON, ONT.,

VINECARB SUREKAS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the nae herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of Califor-nia, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITreas?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient re-covers his health. They are the great lood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Nover before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentio Purgative as well as a Tonk, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Billous Disenses The properties of Dr. WALKER'S

VINCOAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretie, Comminative, Nutritions, Lexative, Diuretie, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorifie, Altera-Anti-Billious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VIN-EGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Inrigorant that ever sustained the sinking

No Person can take these Bitters No rerson can take these britters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not de-stroyed by mineral poleon or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond

Bilious. Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevabid in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi Ohio, Missouri Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkan sas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande Fearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Ro-anoke, James, and many others, with Their vast tributaries, throughout our suffice country during the Summer and Antumn, and remarkably so during sea-sons of nonsual heat and dryness, are nvariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, 7 and other addominal viscera. In their 7 treatment, a pargative, exerting a powerful influence aport these various or-gans, is essentially necessary. There s no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viseid matter with which the lowels are loaded, at the same time timulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digostive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take bold f a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Head-ache. Pain in the Shoulders. Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste n the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitatation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kid neys, and a hundred other painful symp-toms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertise-

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck. Source, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Dis-ences. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have what trouble it is to keep the bowols MAIN OFFICE, of children in order, and any remedy that will strongthen and remedy their weak and variable digestion must be a domestic blessing.

If a dog goes into a church in Salt Lake City his owner is fined $5.

as have never before been witnessed. Before WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VIN-EGAR BITTERS all the alcoholic and mineral medicines are rapidly falling nto disuse. They cannot resist the Two PRIZES $1,000 2 overpowering evidence brought forward every day, of the immense mented liquor or mineral poison enters into its composition. It is a gentle aperient, a tonic, derived from entirely new vegetable sources, an unpulmonary diseases; and, in fact, as Gold Chains, Silver Ware, Jeweiry, &c., 40. near to universal remedy as botanical discovery and scientific skill can hope to attain. Dr. Walker considers it a cure for all diseases not organic, and really the great variety of diseases in which it is successful seems to warrant the opinion. Every family needs such a remedy. It saves pain, anxiety and doctors' bills. We know superiority of this medicine. Not a way there," cried Vinton 15HIOW Elliott's voice, and he sprang down doctor." giving deep meaning to the fellow's profrom the raised doorstep and struggled fanity.

busineas ?"

life for us all. Amen."

But the tragedy went forward without a moment's pause. Mrs. Elliott took a step nearer the rum-seller, pointing up with an impressive gesture, and but] could not, for it sank guiltily and

"Mr. Hill," she said in a low, gentle voice, and yet it remainded me of the still small voice of God," it was so

"It's not in man to resist you, your husband, though he will get it elsewhere if he wants it. I think it's a confusedly to the floor.

after a moment mumbled out :

still.

"What the devil does this mean?" toward his wije. There were murmurs asked Mr. Hill, appearing from an inand ejaculations of intense excitement ner room with a face on which surprise on the part of the crowd as this new and anger contended for the mastery. element entered into the drama, and all He was a florid, low-browed, thick-set gave way before him. Mrs. Elliott man, showily dressed, and with a hard started and trembled violently at his voice, and the moment he reached her. sinister eye. After one glance at him, clung to his arm and hid her face sub-I hoped little from Mrs. Elliott's appeal. bingly on his shoulder. All her won-I turned to look at the crowd for a moment in order to see on whose side their derful nerve and self-control seemed sympathy would assert itself, but the gone. In a clear, ringing tone, Elliott expression at this time was mainly one said :

"Mr. Hill, you have spoken some of eager curiosity and excitement. But imagine my unmeasured surprise when true words this morning. This is no I saw a side door open and Vinton place-this is no action for ladies like Elliott appear overlooking the scene, my wife and other honored women that with a white, appalled face. But all I see here ; and believe me, they would were too intent on the scene before not be here if you and I, and our like, them to note his entrance, for with a had not driven them to desperation. voice that trembled, and yet with dig- God knows you have enough to answer nity, Mrs. Elliott had commenced speakfor, but you only are not to blame. You directed an architect to enclose it in can't force us to throw away our money ing.

"Mr. Hill, you have the form and semblance of a man, and we give you what I have read concerning myself in the morning paper, I wonder that my the credit of possessing the heart of one. You can not realize the results of your wife did not leave me forever in utter traffic as we poor women can whose disgust. Instead of that, with woman's faithfulness, she comes here to plead for select the best of whatever she wanthomes you are destroying, whose hearts you are breaking. What is life to us if my safety. But she will never be called to pass through such an ordeal again. our fathers, our brothers, our sons, our husbands (oh how her voice thrilled at I thought I could drink in moderation at your bar, as I had for years, but you that word) go down into the darkness have taught me better, sir. Vinton and infamy of a drunkard's grave! Can you not see that such life would be to Elliott can stand alone, but he will stand aloof from you and your kind. us but living death and prolonged agony? And yet not for ourselves are God and you, fellow citizens, be my witnesses that I will drink no more, we pleading, but for those whom you are destroying. Perhaps we may find and may He palsy my haud if it ever a heaven hereafter, but they can not. raises another glass of liquor to my You poison body and soul at once. We

Mrs. Elliott gave a low, glad cry. are desperate in view of the peril of those we love. Yesterday there was " I make no apology for what occurred last night," he continued. "The not, in all the city, a more proud and happy woman than I! happy in my case admits of none. I deserve your roses, and lilies scattered over the rest hat is the end of it. If a man throws home! happy in my husband! happy contempt, but it can not exceed that of the surface. The tapestry used himself on the masses, he must have in my hopes for the future! proud of which I have for myself. Were it not for the furniture is Aubsson, a fabric magnetism. If he gets a fashionable his rich promise and good name! But for my wife, and the hope of retrieving as beautiful, but lacking the prestige church and the run of the elite, no now my heart is breaking; oh how it my character, I would gladly die." has ached since you sent him staggering to me long past midnight! What who faces the matter like a man " cried wisely deferred receiving till the last fashionable church of New York, the but hell-broth could have so changed a voice from the crowd, and they were are on their way now from Europe." my noble, manly husband ? Yesterday, given with good will. all honored him. To-day the finger of Mrs. Judge Ashman now came for the town will be pointed at him. Oh ! ward and said : believe me, sir, a few dollars can not pay you for inflicting all this shame and misery. I beseech you, sir, promise me that you will never sell another drop of the accursed poison."

like silence, and then Hill, with diffisulty, found his brazen volce.

"I've got my rights as well as you and across her temple. " My own husband, which he has received.

For a week Vinton and I have watched at Nellie's bed-side. Her mind Kansas City, went to the nowspaper has wondered all the time, and night office, and calling the reporter out and day she is pleading for and with presented him a handsome watch and her husband. He has scarcely slept or ate. His tion touched them in a tonder spot, raven bair is becoming streaked with and they desired to show their gratigray; his ruddy cheeks are growing tude.

pale and wan, and his every breath almost is a prover. " God spare my darling." What the end will be God knows.

A Senatorial Dwelling.

A Washington correspondent writes of Senator Stewart's new house:-This is the sixth house Senator and Mrs. Stewart have built. For this they designed the interior plan and a suitable exterior. The land withand manhood here. If half is true of out a brick on it, cost $100,000; the house and furniture $200,000 more. Stewart spent five years in Europe during Miss Stewart's education, so that she had time and opportunity to ed. The woodwork of the parlor and dancing-hall furniture was carved in cessful in other places, who have Florence, the tapestry was made in Paris, and the upholstry was done in New York. Two of the parlor cornicos were carved in this city, and they appear to no disadvantage be- country attracted no attention when side the Florentine handiwork. It is settled here and made no mark. Men hardly necessary to refer to the Gobe. who have made a series of failures in in curtains, when we all know that other places come at once to the surthe merest shred from these looms is face in the city. New York does no worth its weight in gold. These were care whether a man is a M.D., D.D. woven for the Paris Exposition. The or plain Mr.-whether he has been a ground is black, the design is a me- success or a failure elsewhere. The dallion, with a mythological scene simple question is, 'What can he do? therein, and garlands of bluebells, If he takes, he takes. If he does not, of antiquity and Government patron- matter how ordinary his pulpit ser

"Hurrah! three cheers for Elliott, age. Paintings which Mrs. Stewart vices may be, he will succeed. The marble structure on Broadway, had constantly a crowded morning con-----

The gold medal which Congress voted for love or money. The fashionable DUNDAS to Mr. George F. Robinson, who saved turnouts lined four or five blocks .-Mr. Hill, this won't answer. My the life of Secretary Seward when at. Yot the preacher was very ordinary; son is as dear to me as Mrs. Elliott's tacked by the assassin Payne, is on his voice did not till the building; he husband to her. We all represent some exhibition in Washington. It is of had an impediment in his speech that imperilled member of our households. gold, three inches in diameter and made his uttorance very unpleasant You must promise to quit the business three-quarters of an inch thick. On to strangers. He would hardly have

