GRIT TACTICS.

political life, there is nothing so naus-It is strange that the public were not leaders of a free people, they are at the same time industriously cultivating and fostering a system of political cabals and secret intrigue "clubs" for the purpose of disseminating their dangerous principles, and fettering the people with all sorts of political pledges, at the same time that they shouted for popular rights and political freedom. There is nothing so dangerous to the well-being of a free people as these political cabals.-If they are in the interests of the people -why should the public be excluded from their deliberations? Evidently because they cannot bear a very close the Hamilton Presbytery. inspection! There is something behind dangerous to the public interests and they are conscious of it. The Grit is the Jesuit of politics. The end justifies the means, and they instituted political cabals because they could never attain power without them, and they are new perpetuated for the sole purpose of keeping them in power. The Conservatives have taken up this feature in self-defence, and have sanctified the meansby their unquestionable patriotism, and their devotion since time immemorable to the maintenance of the national than the hope of reward. honour and constitutional rule. The destinies of the Empire have been too long in their hands, and it is not in the to distrust them long. The people have up to the 1st Oct. :already begun to see through the tran Total deposits to Sep. 30, 1874. $87,601 00 their inflammatory cries and sham patriotism will hereafter fall stale upon the public ear They will be driven completely within the pale of their secret associations, political cabals, and intrigue

THE MUSICAL FOUNTAIN AND PROHIBITION SINGER.

(To the Editor of the York Herald.)

Amidst the heaps of rubbish called music constantly being published, it is refreshing to find even one small book with many pieces which have in them the true musical ring. This is the case, as far as I have had time to examine it, with all the pieces in The Canadian Musical Fountain, and Pro pieces combine christian sentiment with the speciality in view. If Philip Philips and Mr Sankey, and many others, can so success fully "sing the gospel" for the good of the unsaved and edification of christians; why may tot the friends of Temperance sing of Temperance and Prohibition with equal effect? The Messis Coates have conferred a great benefit on the country by the publication of "The Canadian Authem Book ' and now "The Prohibition Singer." In both these books there are fewer useless pieces than in any other I have known The "Fountain" will come within the reach of all at 35 cts each. I presume the HERALD Book Store will be able to furnish almost any quantity. Let every Temple place two or three dozen copies in its Hall of meeting. Jonn Runt.

AKING into consideration the fact that the Webster Sewing Machine Las been before the public only about eighteen mentals and the upprecedented number of over terri thousand have been soid in so short a time is sufficient to convince the most incredulous of the superiority of the Wibster over all others, It carried off nearly all the leading prizes for the fall of 1873. It is constructed in the most simple, solid and substantial manner; consequently less liable to get out of repair.

It is so simple to handle that the operator can adjust the stitch or regulate the tension while the machine is in motion.

The Webster will do all kinds of work, heavy or light coarse or fine, it has a straight needle, makes the lock stitch, perform perfect sewing in very description of material, with cotton, linen, or silk thread. It tems, fells, cords,
