New Fall Dry Goods—Alex. Moodie.

The York Herald.

RICHMOND HILL, Sept. 17, 1875.

"LETTING THE CAT OUT."

For some weeks past the Globe and kindred papers have been promulgating as a reason why the elections in the different ridings of Ontario now vacant have not been held: "that the farmers might be allowed to get through their harvesting." We have shown on a former occasion the utter deceitfulness of such an excuse, and to cap the climax the Globe of Saturday last has the audacity in an article to make use of the following language:—

"Following so closely on the contest in South Victoria, it will have a decidedly beneficial influence on the elections yet to be held."

This then is the plain and honest reason why the elections in South Victoria and South Oxford have been held before the others, that they might have a beneficial influence on the elections yet to come off. Little care the Globe satellites whether the farmers get in their grain or not, all they want is to get their men into Parliament and for this purpose they will stoop to low knavery, lying, and cheating. Such mean behavior is beneath the character of the most corrupt Tory Government that ever existed, let alone a "Reform" administration who boast of "elevating the standard of morality," a paltry lot of hypocrites, beneath contempt, and underserving to be shown fair play. No Conservative Government would have set the law at defiance as has the Ontario Government in the matter of these elections.

The Globe clique, who rule the Government and direct in the little back parlour of the Globe office, has now fairly got the Oxfords into chancery, being represented by Adam Crooks and Oliver Morat, two Toronto chancery lawyers. If the farmer's are, throughout the different ridings of the country, willing to give their constituencies into the keeping of Toronto lawyers, why then "Rep by pop," that the "Reformers" in times past were such advocates for, has become a sham and a delusion. One would almost think that no one but a lawyer was fit to sit in the Council of the country. Do they possess, or are they endowed with such heavenly born virtues that this should be the case?

The Rev. Mr. Bruce, of Newmarket, has accepted the call of the First Presbyterian Church, St. Catharines.

On Saturday night seven persons perished in Donnington Wood Colliery, Shropshire, England, from poisonous gases.

The Charlie Ross abduction case is occupying the attention of the Philadelphia Courts, at present, and there is some prospect of his whereabouts being discovered.

A. Milligan, a merchant doing business in the city hall buildings, Toronto, has been sentenced to one month in gaol, with hard labor, for stealing $5000 which had been left in his charge by a Mr. Van De Walker. The money was found secreted in different parts of the premises occupied by Milligan.

Extensive robberies have been committed in Toronto lately, and carried out in such a manner as to leave no doubt but what the city exists in the city at present a band of professionals who are romping a beautiful harvest, irrespective of the most efficient police force in the Dominion, which the Torontoians claim to have.

A SMASH-UP occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway, at New Hamburg, on Monday last, whereby an engine driver named Miller lost his life, the fireman was also badly scalded, and a car load of cattle killed. The accident was the result of carelessness, the engine driver running his train into another that was switched on the siding.

ANNIVERSARY.—The annual Tenpenny in connection with Thompson's P. M. Church Sabbath School, 2nd Con. Vaughan, will be held on Wednesday next, 22nd inst. Tea will be served at 12 o'clock, after which addresses will be delivered by the Rev. Messrs. Crompton, Reid, Sims and others. Mr. A. P. Conger in the chair. Tickets 25 cents, children 15 cents.

A daring burglary was committed on Saturday morning last, about 1 o'clock, on the house of Samuel Wilton, situated on the third concession of Whitechurch. Three men in disguise entered the house, and on the owner awakening threatened to shoot him if he made any alarm. They then managed to secure $5000, one thousand of which was in silver and the balance in gold, with which they made their escape.

The crop reports from Great Britain, like these on this continent, wear an encouraging aspect. There has been a few weeks of fine weather, and this has enabled the farmers to secure a large amount of the harvest in fine condition. The yield in most places is larger and better than had been expected. In the markets there is some fluctuation of prices; but all fears of scarcity are at an end, and a steady price for all kinds of grain, it is thought, will soon be attained.

On the 9th inst., the premises of Mr. J. W. Gale, corner of Adelaide and Yonge Streets, Toronto, were broken into and silks to the value of 1,300 were carried off. The next night the premises of Thomas May & Co., of Wellington St. west, wholesale dealers in millinery and straw goods, were broken into and goods to the value of $2000 were abstracted. That they were also excellent judges of the goods was shown by the way they had selected, after overturning an immense stock, the very best. Other robberies of a similar nature, although on a smaller scale, occur almost nightly.

THE GUIBORD CASE.

This case, which has been occupying the attention of nearly all classes and seats on the American Continent for some time past, seems to be no nearer a settlement at present than it was at the beginning. That the remains of Guibord will be buried in the plot of ground owned by the family is certain, and that the Roman Catholic Church authorities will resist to the end is also without doubt. What the result of the whole thing will be it is difficult, at the present time, to forecast. But, let the result be what it may, the supremacy of the Crown must be upheld. It can never be tolerated that any pretensions or any ecclesiastical functionaries shall be permitted to set at defiance the law of the land, and the authority by which it is maintained. There is the law clear and emphatic on the side of the society of which the deceased was a member. That law will be enforced, but there is danger that in doing this bloodshed will ensue.

For the whole proceedings the Roman Catholic hierarchy is responsible. In the first instance the Bishop and his Curé committed a mistake. But having manfully fought a battle in the courts for what they conceived to be their rights, they should now, as peaceful citizens and as good Christians, submit to the decision against them. It has been in their power to prevent the first element of disturbance. The quiet interment of the body of Guibord would have been creditable to them and satisfactory to the public. Having seen fit to resist the civil power and indirectly incite rebellion, it is now necessary they should feel that they must obey.

Mr. Crooks has been elected for South Oxford by a majority of 303.—The most hopeful of his political opponents, although determined to offer a healthy opposition, did not expect any other result. It is amusing to see the way in which the Grit journals chronicle the result, classing it a great victory for the "Reform" party. We rather fail to see where the "great victory" comes in. If Mr. Crooks had accepted the nomination which was tendered him in West Wellington, and been elected, they might have claimed a victory. In South Oxford, a constituency that has elected a Reformer from time immemorial, he made a personal canvass from house to house before accepting the nomination, so as to insure success. Under the circumstances we fail to see any great cause for rejoicing, or why they can call his election a great victory.

Mr. James Rumble, a farmer, near Paterson, had fifteen valuable sheep worried by dogs on Monday night last.

A man named Michael Foley had his foot badly smashed, at Orillia, in attempting to jump on the cars while in motion.

The petition against Mr. Fleisher, Liberal Conservative, the representative for Cardwell in the Local Legislature, has been dismissed.

Joseph Weatherly, a wealthy London merchant, is creating a sensation at Montreal, addressing audiences after the style of Moody and Sankey.

The veterans of 1812-13 residing in the County of Frontenac were paid on Monday last. The youngest was seventy nine, and the oldest ninety-nine years of age.

POSTPONER.—On account of the unfavorable state of the weather yesterday, the picnic in connection with the Roman Catholic Church, Thornhill, has been postponed until Monday next, at 9 a. m.

A man named Nichols, a teller in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Montreal, has absconded with upwards of $60,000, funds of the bank. He and his father, who appears to be implicated in the crime, are believed to have gone to New York.

Last Friday evening a man, charged with "forty red," attempted to alight from a load of hay opposite Mr. Palmer's hotel and succeeded in reaching terra firma in the orthodox style of "head first." After he had gathered "pieces" of his nose out of the dust he remarked "I came down too quick."

COMIC LECTURE.—Bengough, the celebrated cartoonist and lecturer, whose name has become almost a household word throughout Canada, will deliver a lecture in the Music Hall in this town, on Tuesday evening next, the 21st inst. Subject:—"Heads and Tales." Wherever this gentleman has appeared as a lecturer he has been well received, and no doubt, in this section where Grip is such a favorite, he will have a crowded house.

Mr. S. N. Burke, senior member of the firm of Burke, Morgan & Co., commission merchants, Toronto, was fatally assaulted on Tuesday evening last by three rowdies. It appears Mr. Burke, while walking along Adelaide st., about 8 o'clock p. m., noticed a row in progress in rear of the Upper Canada College, belonging to the 21st Con. He found three rowdies assaulting two gentlemen and a lady, he interfered and was knocked down and received several severe kicks about the head, which has since terminated fatally. Three men named Irvine, Murphy and Hammill have been identified and arrested.

The residence of Mrs. A. Malcolm, of Scarborough, was visited on Friday, 3rd inst., by a surprise party consisting of her children, grand children, great grandchildren, and friends, numbering over fifty persons, the occasion being the 78th birthday of the hostess. The party, which had gathered from Galt, Fine, Toronto, Hamilton, Markham and Scarborough, spent a few happy hours together, and after making numerous presents to Mrs. Malcolm, and exchanging kind greetings all separated en route for their respective homes, hoping that all might be spared for many years to come to be present on similar occasions.

VAUGHAN COUNCIL.

Sept. 14, 1875. A meeting of the above Council was held in the Town Hall. Members present, Messrs Wallace, Reaman, Webster, and Chapman. The Reeve being absent, Mr. N. C. Wallace, on motion, took the chair. Minutes of last meeting read, and on motion, approved.

A petition was presented by Mr. Wallace, from T. F. Wallace and others, asking the Council to grant aid to Mrs. Russell, an indigent; also, one by Mr. Reaman, from Joel Reaman, Esq., and twenty others, asking the Council to grant the usual amount to the Vaughan Agricultural Society.

The following claims for sheep killed by dogs were presented: From Thomas Wood for sheep and lambs $73.00; from John Wilson, for one lamb $3. Mr. Webster moved, seconded by Mr. Reaman, that the Treasurer be and is hereby authorized to pay the following sums for charitable purposes, viz:—

To Mr. Snider, for conveying Elizabeth Brown to the Hospital, $4. To Mr. Wallace, for Mrs. Russell, $6.—Carried.

Mr. Webster moved, seconded by Mr. Chapman, that the Treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the following sheep claims, being two-thirds of their value:— To John Wilson, $2. To Thomas Wood $4.50.—Carried.

Mr. Reaman moved, seconded by Mr. Wallace, that the Treasurer be and is hereby authorized to pay the following accounts, as certified to by the several road commissioners in their respective districts, viz:— District No. 1.—To Jno. Jones, for lumber and work, $54.26. District No. 2.—To J. W. Elder, for lumber and work, 72.81. District No. 3.—To Donald Cameron, for work, $5.00. Alex. Kennedy, for work, $2.50.

Districts No. 2 and 3.—To Wm. Wood, for culvert, $8.00.—Carried. By law No. 325, appointing Chas. Nickson and Wm. Patterson collectors of taxes for the current year, was read a first, second and third time and passed. By law No. 327, authorizing the collection of taxes, for School purposes, in the township was read a first, second and third time and passed.

The Council then adjourned, to meet on the 12th of October.

The Toronto Star has ceased publication. Wednesday last was a fine day for ducks but rather damp for a picnic.

Mr. James Rumble, a farmer, near Paterson, had fifteen valuable sheep worried by dogs on Monday night last.

A man named Michael Foley had his foot badly smashed, at Orillia, in attempting to jump on the cars while in motion.

The petition against Mr. Fleisher, Liberal Conservative, the representative for Cardwell in the Local Legislature, has been dismissed.

The Canadian Shores of Lake Superior.

The Canadian shore of Lake Superior, which extends from the Sault Ste. Marie at the entrance, around to Pigeon River about fifty miles from Duluth, is a wild, rocky, almost uninhabited, beautiful tract of country. It is for the most part well wooded, although valuable pine and hardwood is scarce. Fish and game are abundant, and trapping and fishing support the few aborigines that live around the shore.

Near the Sault some good land is found, covered with a growth of maple and birch, but it is included in a reservation secured to the Indians by the Dominion Government. The Hudson Bay Company has four posts on the lake, one at Fort William, in Thunder Bay, one at Nepequin and one at Michipicott. This is the starting point for the canoe route to Hudson's Bay. A journey of twelve days brings the traveller to Moose Factory, one of the Company's headquarters.

The formation consists of igneous and volcanic rocks, although among the layers of trap are found many beds of conglomerate and sandstone.

The whole tract may be termed a mineral district. Near the Sault deposits of iron, consisting of segregated layers of magnetic, occurring in the trap are found, and they have been worked to some extent, though not successfully, as the iron mines at Marquette, not far away, are powerful competitors. Further up the shore copper is found. As early as fifteen years ago, much time, money and labor were expended in developing veins of yellow and grey sulphurates, but, unfortunately, without adequate returns.

Here are found relics of that strange tribe of antiquity, supposed by some to be the Aztecs of Mexico, who have caused so much discussion among the archaeologists. Pits partly filled, which have been dug by them, stone hammers, copper knives and chisels have been found at Pt. Massaine, about seventy miles above the Sault.

Other legends, about midway between the Sault and Thunder Bay, was the scene of that famous tin operation. A crevice in the rock, at the back of a little cave, filled with soft material easy to be removed, some green paint, two barrels of silicate of soda, and a few hundred pounds of tin ore from Cornwall—as supposed in the hands of some clever men, were the means of causing a loss of $500,000 to people in Boston, New York and Detroit. The cheated ones still cling to the idea that it was not all a dream, and that the projectors found the ore on the ground but were unable to trace it to a lode, and then concluded to make one. With this view, they sent up a party last season to explore the property further.

At Huron Bay, near Pic River, deposits of gold occur, and one winter's work upon them to the interest of the Ontario Mineral and Company showed good results, according to reports; but the property is now, we believe, on sale, and the work is stopped.

At Black Bay, veins of galena carrying some silver have been worked. This property is, however, in nearly the same condition as the previous one, and work is partially suspended.

The silver district lies about Thunder Bay. Here are the Beck, the Shumie—now the Duncan—Cornish, 3 A. Jarvis Island—Thompson's Island, and the famous Silver Islet.

The mining centre is the town of Prince Arthur's Landing. It is at the eastern end of the Dawson Route to Fort Garry, Manitoba. It may be said to have been founded by the expedition sent out by the British Government to quell the insurrection in Manitoba, in 1869. The only mine which has been successful from the start is the "Islet."

The "Islet" originally was a mere rock projecting about eight feet above the water, and is three quarters of a mile from the shore. It lies in front of a former location of the Montreal Mining Co., which has extended since some time before 1845, and which owned in all some 107,000 acres of mineral lands, bought at the Government price of $1 per acre. The Government lands with the mineral right, as it is called, may be had at $1, formerly 20 cents an acre, per year; which is allowed to go in arrears for three years before any action is taken in regard to it; and thousands of acres are taken up in this way, simply on the chance of something being discovered upon them by the subsequent explorations.

The vein which was a copper one was discovered by one of a party of explorers in the interest of the Company who was lying at full length in the bows of their boat while it was attached to the rock. Looking in the water he saw a mass consisting of threads of native silver lying in a crevice on the bottom. Close search revealed the vein under an over hanging ledge of country rock. The discoverer received one month's extra pay, which the company generously awarded him.

NEW LITERATURE. Ballo's Magazine for Oct. —Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, at $1.50 per year, including postage. Every subscriber receives a Chromo. For sale by all news dealers. An excellent number is Ballo's Magazine for October, which is now to hand, and is worthy a careful perusal of all persons, both old and young. It has some thirty illustrations, stories, poetry and a dozen or more illustrations, all of the first class and such as any magazine might be proud of. Among the stories we notice a thrilling sea yarn called "Cobbing the Cook," by Wm. H. Macy, an old whaler, and a good writer of sea tales, in fact one of the best in the country. It is accompanied by the fact that Mr. Macy is blind and does all his writing by the aid of a machine that is his own invention. This Magazine is a great favorite, and we do not wonder at it, containing such a variety as it does. The contents of the October number are instructive and amusing, and just what the people want. Send for it at once!

MEETING.—The quarterly meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association of East York will be held at the Wellington Hotel, Markham Village, on Saturday, 25th inst., at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the transaction of general business, which every member and all friends of the association are earnestly invited.

The war in Spain must soon come to an end. In the capitulation of Seo de Urgel the Carlists lose their strongest fort, and must soon become disbanded. The surrender of the citadel was accompanied with much loss of life, and by the taking of many prisoners. The moral effect upon the followers of Don Carlos is most prejudicial, whilst his available forces are now so much weakened and reduced. It seems an act of madness not to surrender at once upon the best terms.

News has been received from the Arctic Expedition. It will be welcome to both Great Britain and the world. After a pleasant passage the Alert and the Discovery had arrived at Disco, and were preparing to push on as far North as possible. All on board were well and in good spirits. There seems a confident expectation that something decisive will be attained. Such favorable intelligence will gladden many a heart; and no one will withhold a renewed wish for the success of the brave men.
