RICHMOND HILL, Oct. 29, 1875.

WEST TORONTO.

Notwithstanding the stress on its columns in discussing the "marriage question" and defending Mr Mackenzie's "steel rail" transaction, the Globe finds a little space to lay before the electors the various merits and demerits of the two candidates in the forthcoming contest in West Toronto. Mr Turner, the Government nominee, is, as a matter of course, possessed of all the necessary qualifications of a first-class representative. His business abilities are A 1; as a public speaker he ranks high among the orators of the day; his character as a private individual is unimpeachable, and last, but not least, he is an earnest supporter of the present administration. As to Mr Turner's private character, no one questions for a moment the veracity of the Globe on that point. But that he is possessed of such oratorical powers is news to the electors of West Toronto, they having never been treated to that "flow of words" with which he has been credited.

On the other hand, the Opposition Candidate, Mr J. B. Robinson, is spoken of as "a venerable relic of the Family Compact." An old "fossilized Tory" who has none of the "go-ahead-iveness" necessary to make a "useful" representative in the present advanced age. The "modern reform" sheet also states that during Mr Robinson's parliamentary career he had not done one act to distinguish himself. We admit that Mr Robinson holds none of the ideas cherished so dearly by the Grits of the advanced type. He has never attempted to put down bribery and corruption a la Macdaver, Herman Cook, Lorn McDougall and hosts of others. He has never attempted to steal private letters, or bribe telegraph operators. He has never assisted in a "big push," or in fact done anything to distinguish him from the good old honest representative, and it is partly for this reason that he has been chosen by the Liberal Conservatives in Toronto as their standard bearer.

As to the result of the contest, but little fears are entertained over Mr Robinson's election. He is a man who is well known in the constituency and respected alike by all. Mr Turner is a new convert to "reform" principles and is looked upon with distrust by a number of reformers who have a dislike to anything except the real "Simon pure." He is moreover nothing like as popular as the Globe would have outsiders believe. By espousing the cause of the present Government he becomes indirectly responsible for all their acts and it is in the light of a Government supporter, not as a private individual, that the electors of the riding will elect, or reject him, and we believe the ratenayers of West Toronto are too cognizant of the many discreditable acts of the Government to send an avowed supporter to represent any part of the Queen City.

THE YONGE STREET SABBATH SCHOOL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION held their eighth annual meeting at the village of Maple, on Monday, the 18th inst. Owing to the unpropitious state of the weather the attendance was not large. The Rev. Mr Dundas delivered an excellent and instructive address on the "Teacher." Other Ministers expected, being absent, their places were supplied by Messrs A. P. Conger and J. P. Rupert, Vice Presidents; Mr Jackson, Sec. and Treas.; Committee on Topics, the Rev. Mr Dundas, Messrs A. P. Conger, J. P. Rupert and Wm. Harrison. The retiring President, W. C. Patterson, Esq., at the close of a few excellent remarks on the past progress of the Association, introduced the President elect, Mr James Ness, who "accepted the situation" and delivered his inaugural. After a vote of thanks unanimously given to the past officers for their efficient services, the Association adjourned until the second Monday in January next, to meet at Richmond Hill.

The complete returns of the election in West Peterborough, which took place on Tuesday last, have not yet been received, although the contest has been a remarkably close one, the returns, so far, show a small majority in favor of Mr Scott.

Epizootic prevails.
Markham Township Council meets tomorrow, 30th inst.
Village Council meets in the Court Room, on Monday evening next, 1st Nov.
The usual monthly Cattle Fair will be held in the Fair Grounds, in this Village, on Wednesday, 3rd Nov.
We call the attention of our readers to the advt of A. Wright & Son, which will be found in another column.

Guthord's remains will be taken to the Catholic cemetery on the 17th prox., the sixth anniversary of the first attempt to inter him there.
A Ladies' Christian Temperance Society was formed in Toronto on Monday last. An endeavor is to be made to extend the movement throughout the Dominion.
She had on $700 worth of diamonds, $60 worth of back hair, and told the street car conductor that he would have to treat her for the fare until the last of the month.
On Monday last the Grand Jury found a true bill against the City Corporation for keeping Yonge street, Toronto, in such a filthy and dilapidated state that it has become a nuisance.
A Yankee has invented a milking machine that can be carried in a pocket-book. Now, if he were to invent a milch cow that could be carried in the coat tail pocket, his machines would sell more rapidly.
A youthful genius, employed in the tanning business, north of our Village, has invented a cure for dogs afflicted with the sheep-killing disease. The cure, after passing through his hands, becomes gentle and "lamb like," and no amount of persuasion will induce them to face muton.

Editor's Notes.
Between the 14th and 22nd of this month, fifty-five persons lost their lives by shipwreck on the Scottish coast.
Temperance in eating, drinking and working will prove healthful to both body and mind. All excesses are injurious.
Six women and forty men and boys were arrested in two disreputable houses in Hamilton, on Saturday night last.
Thomas H. Hogg, editor and proprietor of the Frederick Reporter, accidentally shot himself on Monday, when out gunning.
Jesse Borer, twenty-four, of West Flamboro', shot himself through the head with a revolver on Saturday night; disappointed love is said to have been the cause.
A Montreal wholesale store was robbed of $12,000 worth of silks and laces between Saturday and Monday morning. Several other robberies occurred in Montreal during the same night.
Col. McLeod, Commander of the Mounted Police, has been appointed one of the Stipendiary Magistrates of the North-west. Major Irvine succeeds to the command of the force.
Redpath & Son, of Montreal, closed their refinery last week, on account of the drawback allowed by the Americans on refined sugar, and the present arrangement of the Canadian Tariff.
The British difficulty with China is in a fair way for a satisfactory adjustment. According to latest advices the Chinese Government has conceded the demands of Mr Wade, and all danger of war is at an end.

THE CANADIAN FALL SHOWS.
There is no country in which a livelier interest is shown in agricultural and mechanical exhibitions than Canada; and there is probably no place in which, on the whole, they are made so attractive and successful. In a pre-eminent degree Canada is an agricultural country; its soil is favorable for the production of almost every kind of vegetable and fruit; cereals and grain of all species grow luxuriantly, and its inhabitants contain, doubtless, a preponderance of those who, in the Mother Country, or by education or use in Canada, have been accustomed to the plough and the hoe. It is natural, therefore, that a special interest should be manifested in all that pertains to the development and cultivation of the land, and that a special exertion should be made to acquire the best implements of husbandry, and to render the fields and gardens productive in the highest degree. During recent years there has been steadily growth and improvement in all these matters; every year now witnesses some fresh advancement and achievement, and it is not surprising that Canada bids fair to take precedence of almost every other country for both the quality of its agricultural implements and the success of its horticultural and agricultural labors.
It is no more than to be expected that this pleasing fact may be attributed to the frequency of its exhibitions, and to the spirit of friendly emulation and rivalry which is encouraged and fostered by them. There is scarcely a township or village which does not have its annual show, as independent of, and supplementary to, the large county or provincial exhibitions, at which all are expected to unite. In these local shows the best that can be produced or manufactured in the neighborhood is exhibited, and the effect of the whole is to stimulate enterprise, to increase knowledge and to refine and elevate taste and feeling. As a matter of course, therefore, each exhibition is an improvement on the past; new or improved machinery is introduced, larger specimens, or finer qualities of grain, vegetables, fruit, flowers, animals, poultry, etc., are shown, and thus mind acts upon mind; each farmer is advancing towards perfection, and each neighborhood is kept in a state of constant activity and improvement. It is impossible that the country should not benefit largely by such arrangements, and a continuance in this honorable career of competition and progress will soon achieve for the Dominion the proud distinction of being first in the productions of the soil, and in the templements of the shop.
