A Mile a Minute.

We published the other day an account of taking passengers on board trains running at a mile a minute.

A Washington Wedding.

The ceremony was performed by a colored clergyman of the Methodist church.

THE GRAMAYRE OF TWILIGHT.

I'm sitting at the window, love, Just where we used to sit, And looking through the sleepy vines That cluster up to it.

THE LATTER DAYS.

Storms have passed over us; the earth is changed; Pale leaves now flutter in the dusky green;

THE REVENGE.

The report that they had been drowned was thus a mistake, and they had incurred the peril of returning to the country for the purpose of revenging themselves upon me.

Windsor Castle.

There is one town in England which, notwithstanding that the epithet "royal" is commonly applied to it, is always attractive to the cultivated American.

The Queen's Farm.

Queen Victoria's favorite farm is that nearest Windsor Castle, and called the Prince Consort's Shaw Farm, consisting of about eleven hundred acres.

Married Men vs. Bachelors.

Dr. Hall gives the following reasons why married persons live longer than those who remain single.

A Railway Magnate Falls.

In our European telegraphic news of Saturday it is stated that Dr. Stronberg, of Germany, has suspended payment for twenty-five million guilders ($12,500,000).

A Willing Man.

He said he used to be a reporter on a "Globe" paper, but lost his situation for "filling the gutter" with news.

Pearls of Truth.

Men are not known, till they are acted. Life is half spent before we know what it is.

Running the Chances.

The other day a colored resident of Vicksburg found a bottle of whiskey in the suburbs of the city, and halting a pedestrian, he inquired:

Running the Chances.

The other day a colored resident of Vicksburg found a bottle of whiskey in the suburbs of the city, and halting a pedestrian, he inquired:

Madam Jaubert obeyed the order, and in a few minutes returned.

"It is vain talking," said the woman. "I do not believe that they will harm you; but even if it were as you say, it is too late now for me to retract my step. You cannot escape. That foul fellow is already three parts intoxicated; they are both armed, and would hesitate at nothing if they but suspected any treachery."
