The York Herald.
Richmond Hill, Dec. 31, 1875.

Time, in its rapid flight, has brought us once more to the threshold of another year. How many pleasant memories does the old time worn phrase "A Happy New Year" recall of pleasant hours spent in the company of dear friends, who may have, during the short interval from one New Year's to another, been called away to that bourne from whence no traveller returns, or it may be of absent friends, who, in their turn, are carried by memory back to former scenes and associations.

We trust that the year we are about entering upon may prove to all our friends a prosperous one. The year 1875 will long be remembered as a very disastrous one, commercially. Many large firms, who have hitherto held prominent positions in the commercial history of our country, have been forced to succumb to the general depression. Large manufacturing firms have either been forced to shut down or reduce the number of hands employed, and what few are fortunate enough to be retained are forced to work on reduced time. The consequences are the greatest distress prevails among the working class. More especially will this be felt in large manufacturing towns, such as Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton, in which the majority are working people, depending on their daily earnings for the support of their families. The long and severe winter, which we might say, has no more than fairly begun, will afford ample opportunities for the benevolent to exercise the greatest of all earthly blessings—Charity. The bountiful harvest with which we were favored, during the past summer, has done a great deal to ameliorate the distress which would have been felt in country villages. Various agencies are assigned for this depression, and the present government comes in for a fair share of blame. Although we would not willingly shoulder the government with any more sins than they are really accountable for, we can not help thinking that they ought to have made some effort to reduce the state of privation and distress felt through the country. Instead of this, however, by their incessant bawling they have made matters worse.

The criminal calendar for 1875, has been unusually large, and the country has been literally flooded with all grades of criminals, from the petty thief to the cold blooded murderer. But, thanks to British law and justice, such characters, sooner or later, are pretty certain to reap the reward of their evil works.

In political circles there has been considerable change during the past year. In the Ontario Legislature, the Opposition has been considerably strengthened in the late elections, and the "reform" government are compelled to pick their steps with the greatest caution. The Liberal Conservative Party, in the Dominion Parliament, have also been greatly strengthened since the last session. Several changes have taken place in the Cabinet that show the Mackenzie Government feel that they are fast losing ground, and we are confidently to look forward to the no distant day when the reins held by the present "incapables" will pass into the hands of the great Conservative chief, who managed the affairs of the State so successfully, formerly, and who has lately shown that he is still in possession of all his former energies. We confidently look forward to the time when he shall resume his former position, and when our country will again become as prosperous as it was in days gone by; in the meantime we wish all our friends a very Happy New Year.

MUNICIPAL NOMINATIONS.
The nomination of Municipal Officers for the ensuing year took place in the Court Room on Monday last, before Mr. Teedy, Esq., Returning Officer. The only candidates for the Receptivew were Mr. Wm. Trench, jr., and Mr. F. Crawford. The latter gentleman, however, in a characteristic speech, intimated that on account of holding an office under the Corporation he was not "eligible," his opinion being backed up by a communication from Attorney General Mowat. He also thought that he was the "makings of a good Reeve," but neglected to state whether Mowat was of the same opinion or not. In the course of his remarks Mr. Crawford made some "startling assertions," accusing a member of the late Council with little less than a criminal offence, in allowing a citizen of the "West End" to carry away a street which the Council had bought recently for $130. This is a matter worthy the most serious consideration of the future Council and one which we trust will be attended to without delay. Our citizens would be in a sorry plight indeed, if through the carelessness of our City Fathers, they should wake up some morning and find twenty or thirty of our streets gone. The loss would be all the more keenly felt if Lucas Street should be among the missing. Respectfully declining the nomination for the present, Mr. Crawford intimated his intention of being a candidate at some future day. There being no other candidate Mr. Trench was declared elected. Several candidates were nominated for Council ors, some of whom declined. The following is a list of those in the field for honors:

Isaac Crosby, William Pogue, Denis C. O'Brien, Jesse Grant, Robert E. Law, Robert Hopper, William Powell, David Hopkins, Peter G. Savage.
As all the nominees are old residents of our village, and well known to the electors, it is unnecessary for us to make any suggestions in regard to their respective claims.

In Vaughan the old members have all been elected by acclamation.
In Markham Township, Mr. R. Marsh has been elected 2nd Deputy Reeve, by acclamation; the other members will receive opposition. The following gentlemen were nominated: for Reeve, Robinson and Kalkins; 1st Deputy Reeve, Milliken and James; 3rd Deputy Reeve, Button and Reesor; Councillors, Duncan and Doherty.

YORKVILLE.
(For the Herald.) Monday, Dec. 27, '75.

The nomination for our Reeve, Deputy Reeve and three Councillors, to serve the Corporation for next year, took place to-day at the Town Hall, at noon, when the following were nominated: John Severn, as Reeve; Thos. J. Blackwood and Samuel Wickson, as Deputy Reeves, and Messrs. Canavan, Stewart, Huty, Nightingale, Crown, Booth, Walker, Pears, Lott, Dain, Hoskins, Berryman, Graham, and Saunders, were nominated for Councillors. It is said there was no poll demanded. If that is the case the first vote should be declared elected; and if the election is otherwise conducted the whole thing will be illegal. There was a high old time, crimination and recrimination was the order of the day. Such terms as extravagance, corporation jobbery, were freely bandied about from one to the other. Under the new Reform law our election will cost over one hundred dollars, the Village being divided into five polling booths, but we are not allowed the privilege of having the law properly carried out by being incorporated as a Town, because it does not suit the wire pullers of the Council to do so, being afraid the people will be too well served.

A public meeting is called for to-night (Tuesday), on a requisition signed by Hon. F. Smith, R. Wilkes, Rev. Mr. Jones and others, to take into consideration the best steps to relieve the distress of the poor in the Village this Winter.—Com.

Editor's Notes.

CANADIAN DIARIES FOR 1876, twenty varieties, cheap, at the Herald Book Store.

The Methodist Sabbath School, of this village, hold their anniversary in the Masonic Hall, on New Year's Day.

Subscriptions for the Montreal Witness, weekly, tri-weekly and daily editions; also for the Canadian Messenger and New Dominion Monthly received at the Herald Office.

The Thornhill Methodist Sabbath School will hold their anniversary in the Methodist Church, on New Year's Day. Tea will be served from 4 to 7 p. m., after which a concert will be given by the children. Tickets 30 cts., for concert alone, 15 cts.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that on the 17th inst., a child of Mr. Isaac French (formerly of Richmond Hill, and now of Collingwood) got a small piece of stick into his throat. Medical assistance was rendered, but was of no avail, the piece of wood having settled in the lungs.

Master W. Barnes, the "walking dictionary," who figured so prominently at the spelling matches, in this village, last spring, took a "back seat" on "impercipitibility," at the Buttonville school examination, last week. This is what we would call sitting down on a "fine thing."

The Missionary Meetings in connection with the Church of England will be held at Thornhill, on Wednesday evening, 6th inst., in the Episcopal Church, and at Richmond Hill, on Thursday evening, 6th inst., in the Episcopal Church. Several Clergymen will deliver addresses, and music by combined choirs. Meetings to commence at 7:30. Collections in aid of Mission Fund.

The 37th annual celebration of the Victoria Square Sabbath School will be held on New Year's Day, 1876. Refreshments will be served at noon. In the afternoon, an entertainment will be given by the children, consisting of recitations, dialogues, interspersed with solos, choruses and duets, by the choir. Tickets for tea and entertainment, 25 cts.; entertainment alone, 20 cts.; children, 15 cts.

FIRE.—On Sunday morning last, about one o'clock, a fire was discovered in the barn of Mr. Thomas Robson, Markham. Five large buildings were entirely consumed, together with thirteen head of cattle, eight hogs, two horses, a threshing machine, and a number of other farming implements; also, nearly all of last fall's harvest of grain. Estimated loss, $6,000; no insurance; supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

TILT TAPPING.—Last Christmas afternoon, Mr. Proctor, of the Dominion Hotel, who had occasion to leave his bar for a few minutes, found, on his return, that a citizen, whom he left sitting in the bar, had, in his absence, "gone through" the tilt and left Mr. Proctor on going into the Robin Hood Hotel, found the "worthy" giving the boys a "benefit" on his newly acquired wealth; he, of course, knew nothing of how the money came into his possession.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—The following is list of newly elected officers of Vaughan Lodge, No. 54, G. R. C., the installation of which took place on the evening of J. J. John's, the Evangelist, and was conducted by W. Bro. Enouy, I.P.M.:
W. Bro. Arthur Cook, W. M.,
Bro. W. H. Bolitho, S. W.,
"Wm. Macdonnell, J. W.,
"Thos. Wraith, Treas.,
"H. Baldwin, Sec.,
"J. Andrews, S. D.,
"Jno. Macdonnell, J. D.,
"E. A. Snelson, G.,
"A. J. Gordon, Tyler,
"A. P. Conder, Chaplain
"Jno. Woods, D. of C.,
Bros. D. Kinnee, and D. Grey, Stds.

A gathering of a very interesting nature took place on Christmas evening, at the house of Mr. Thomas Wilson, of this place, there being present four generations, viz: Mrs. M. Lyburner, aged seventy-six years; twenty of her grand children, nine great grand children and many of the family connections, numbering about forty persons. There was a Christmas Tree heavily loaded with presents which were distributed with a great deal of amusement. The evening was spent very pleasantly by all present, with vocal and instrumental music, conversation, games, and an excellent tea. The company broke up by wishing all present a Happy New Year, and that all might enjoy many more such happy meetings.

TEMPERANCE.
To the Editor of the York Herald.
DEAR SIR.—In your issue of the 17th inst., a letter, on Temperance, appeared in your column, written by one "Aqua." I have read it with much interest, and on good nature when I ask you for a little space, in order to reply to that letter. I will try to be as brief as possible.

Now Mr. "Aqua," just a word or two with you. You say I have well said church members, when I made use of those words. God knows I had no reference, whatever, to any particular church. You say I could not say Christian, I deny this, for I am confident that I could, with a clear conscience, make use of one as well as the other.

From what I can learn from your letter it is your opinion that none but those who belong to the temperance cause will enter heaven. I doubt if there is a minister in Canada who would agree with you in that. Nay, I will go further, I challenge you to produce one passage of Scripture, from the first of Genesis to the last of Revelations, that will bear you up in such a statement. If it is such a great sin to take glass of liquor, why did our Saviour perform the miracle of turning the water into wine? although we have no reason to suppose this was the first time it was used, because we read that: "When they wanted wine?" thus showing that they had been accustomed to the use of it before or they would not have thought of asking for it.

You say to the Minister, "go on in your good work, now, I would not for the world lay a straw in his way to hinder the good work. I believe he is a good man and a Christian gentleman. A few Sunday evenings ago, he preached a sermon, the subject of which was the "Falling Leaf," a sermon which was well suited for the season, and one to which I listened with pleasure, and I have no doubt but if it please God to spare him but that he will be instrumental in doing a certain amount of good in the world.

All that I said in my last letter amounted to simply this, that it is wrong to place a moderate drinker on a level with the drunkard, and I still contend, and will contend until my dying day that I am right. That it is an evil I do not, nor never did deny. But why is it an evil? It is not the use of it, but the abuse of it. You say it shortens life, no doubt in many cases it does, when people drink to excess. For my part, I have used it sparingly for over twenty years, and I care less for it to-day than I did ten years ago. Take, for example, the Mother Country, where beer is the principle drink of the working class of people, and where you find stronger and longer lived men? men that can stand with their feet in a half bushel measure and shoulder four bushels of wheat? and I ask you now where is the milk and water man in Canada that can do it?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space I have occupied,
I remain Yours respectfully,
MODERATE DRINKER.
Richmond Hill, Dec 20, 1875.

PRESENTATIONS.

On the occasion of the breaking up of Miss Campbell's Private School, after a successful career of a term of years, and a reunion of former pupils and friends, on the evening of Tuesday, the 21st inst. Not the least interesting of the proceedings was the presentation to Miss Campbell of a Writing Desk, and to Miss Cannon, the assistant teacher, of a Writing Desk and Work Box combined, accompanied by the following addresses:

To Miss Campbell:
DEAR TEACHER.—Regretting that the relation existing between us, so happily begun, and so happily continued, must terminate so soon, we desire to express to you our sincere appreciation of your kindness and continued interest in our welfare.

The recollections of your many kind suggestions and friendly counsels can never be obliterated from my mind, and in a case of need, and the example you ever gave us of a true and noble womanhood, will be, we trust, to us an inspiration, persuasion and influential in the great battle of life.

As a small expression of our sincere affection, we beg your acceptance of this Writing Desk, and we hope and pray that your future life may be as successful, and as bright as has been the months just passed of our intercourse together.

To Miss Cannon:
DEAR TEACHER.—We, the scholars, under your charge for the past few months, while regretting that the relation so happily subsisting between us must soon terminate, desire to express our deep sense of the interest you have ever manifested in our welfare. Kind in manner, and yet commanding our respect; strict in discipline, and yet not severe, and most patient and painstaking in seeking to communicate that you know to us. We shall ever cherish a fond remembrance of the time spent under your care.

As a small moment of our sincere affection, and earnestly pray that Heaven's choicest blessings may rest upon you, wherever in the future your providential lot may be cast.

On Christmas Eve, Mr. Keefer, book-keeper for Messrs J. Campbell & Son, Toronto, was presented with the following address, together with a superior Overcoat and Fur Cap:

DEAR SIR.—We, the employees of Messrs James Campbell & Son, have pleasure in expressing our feeling of good will and esteem for you, and at this opportune season of the year would ask your acceptance of this token of our regard.

Permit us to say we hope the business relations, now existing between us, may be long and pleasant, and that this especially may be a Merry Xmas to you and yours.

Signed by A. G. Lee, S. R. Parsons, W. A. Wright, Chas. H. Buser, and twenty others.

Mr. Keefer made a suitable reply, expressing himself as gratified at the pleasure it gave to receive such a token of their regard, and trusting that they might all enjoy a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

MARRIED.
RAYMOND.—HEXT.—At the residence of the parents of the bride, Independence City, Iowa, U. S., on Tuesday, Dec. 21st, by Rev. D. Sheffer, Mr. James C. Raymond, son of R. Raymond, Esq., formerly of Richmond Hill, to Miss Abby R. Hunt, daughter of Dr. H. H. Hunt.

TRAK.—ENGLISH.—At the Methodist Parsonage, on Friday, the 24th inst., by the Rev. J. Herbert, Mr. Mr. William George Trank, to Miss Mary Ann English, both of Markham.

EPPS'S COCOA.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up, and strength acquired in a safe and pleasant manner. Hundreds of subtle maldies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure food and a proper regimen. Sold only in packets labeled—JAMES EPPS & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, 45 Theresdeside Street, and 170 Piccadilly, London, W.

AUCTION SALE.
FRIDAY, Jan. 7th.—Auction Sale of Farm Stock, Implements, &c., on lot No. 35, 2nd Con. Vaughan, belonging to Mr. Wm. Greenwood. Sale to begin at 1 o'clock. J. C. Stokes, Auctioneer.

Parties getting Sale Bills printed at this office will receive a notice similar to the above, FREE OF CHARGE.
