RICHMOND HILL, APRIL 28, 1876.

LOCALISMS.

—Spring.
—Now Croquet.
—Holding up gates—the "coming man" on the one side and the "coming woman" on the other—will be in fashion during the summer season.

—The annual ploughing match of the West York Agricultural Society, will be held on the farm of Mr. Brown, 5th Con. Vaughan, on Saturday, 29th inst.

—Mr. Jacob Spence, Secretary of the Ontario Prohibitory League, will deliver a lecture at Patterson, on Monday evening next, May 1st., to commence at 7:30 o'clock.

—A log dwelling house, on the farm of Mr. Hiram Bernard, Elgin Mills, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last. The building had been unoccupied for some time past, and its destruction was evidently the work of an incendiary.

—The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Mechanics' Institute will be held in the Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening, May 2nd. Election of Officers and other important business will be brought before the meeting. A full attendance of members is requested.

—Mr. W. E. Silence, special lecturer from the Grand Lodge of the United Temperance Order of Ontario, will deliver a lecture in the Masonic Hall on Monday evening next, May 1st. Subject "Intemperance and Prohibition." Collection at the close in aid of the Lecturer Fund.

—This is the season of the year when a man comes down for dinner and finds the partner of his "joys and sorrows" tearing round her head, a tack hammer in each hand, and a look of "temporary insanity" in her eye; who betide him if he grumbles at laying to eat a cold dinner off the head of a flour barrel.

—With a white chip bonnet, paper of pins, and a box of miscellaneous feathers, lace, ribbons, and flowers, any girl of the period, with a small stock of ingenuity can convey the impression to the public at large that she has half-a-dozen bonnets this season. A very fashionable shape is that made by sitting down, or stamping on an ordinary shape, and then putting in some large roses.

"THE EVENING TELEGRAM" is the title of a new evening paper, started in Toronto, the first number of which reached us last week, too late for notice. It is a neat, tidy sheet, containing the latest news, carefully arranged, and deserves to be ranked among the "real live" papers. Mr. J. Ross Robertson, who formerly established the Telegraph, is the publisher. We wish him every success in his new undertaking.

—On Monday last, we had the pleasure of inspecting a new omnibus, from the manufactory of Mr. W. Trench, Jr., which, for combined strength and beauty of finish, surpasses anything heretofore turned out of that establishment. The painting was in the hands of Mr. R. H. Wilson, and "Bob" has proved himself no "slouch" in handling the brush. The omnibus was built for Mr. Jno. Thompson, Thornhill, and is intended to run between Eglinton and Toronto. Mr. Trench has established a reputation second to none in this particular branch of business. He has, we understand, two more in course of erection.

—On Friday night last, an old man named Gordon, a well known resident of Maple, met with an accident, which, in all probability, will prove fatal. The old man, who is supposed to be about 90 years of age, has been engaged for some years past in carrying the mail from Richmond Hill Station to the village of Maple, and on returning homeward, between 8 and 9 o'clock on Friday night last, after leaving the mail bag at the Post Office, his attention was drawn to some object behind him, and before he could turn around a couple of men in a gig, coming in the opposite direction, ran over him, the horse stepping on the old man breaking three of his ribs. The brutes; for it would be unjust to call them anything else, never halted to see whether the old man was injured or not. Mr. Waterhouse found the injured man lying on the road and procured the services of some neighbors and carried him home. Dr. Rupert was called in and did what he could for the sufferer, but, owing to his extreme age, his recovery is more than doubtful.

—A fire broke out about midnight on Saturday last, totally destroying the barn, all the outbuildings, about 400 bushels of barley, all the farming implements and two horses, belonging to Mr. Robson, situated in the fifth concession of Pickering. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Robson was insured for $1400, which amount will nearly cover his loss.

—A petition signed by upwards of sixty ratepayers of Newmarket, has been presented to the Reeve, requesting him to call a meeting to protest against the action of the Commissioners, Messrs. Wm. McMaster, Jr., D. Sutherland and W. Bennett, for the partial and "political" manner in which they have granted the shop licenses. Accordingly a meeting of the ratepayers was held on Wednesday evening last, the Reeve in the chair. Upwards of 300 persons were present. A resolution, moved by Mr. N. Gorham, J. P., and seconded by Mr. J. S. Marsden, was carried with only three dissenting votes, condemning the action of the commissioners in granting shop licenses in the village. A copy of the resolution is to be forwarded to the Board of Commissioners.

—Two daughters of Mr. Henry Smith, butcher, Yorkville, left Toronto by Saturday morning's train on a visit to Mr. George Brodie, at Franklin, near Newmarket, and arrived at their destination in the afternoon. Immediately after supper, the youngest, named Lillian, was attacked with a severe vomiting of blood, caused by the bursting of a blood vessel. The sight was so ghastly that Mrs. Brodie left the house and fainted, whilst Mr. Brodie went for some neighbors, who, on entering the bedroom and gazing upon the girl, retreated and left, but soon gained strength to enter the room. The girl Lillian, saturated with blood from her neck down to her feet, lay a corpse in the arms of her sister Sarah, who was so shocked that force had to be used to make her loosen her hold on her sister's body. Her hands and gress were stained with blood, and she remained till two o'clock in the morning before she would allow herself to be cleansed. The doctor pronounced her mentally deranged. She left Mr. Brodie's Tuesday morning, accompanied by her brother, who came to take the corpse to her father's residence.

—The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Mechanics' Institute will be held in the Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening, May 2nd. Election of Officers and other important business will be brought before the meeting. A full attendance of members is requested.

—Mr. W. E. Silence, special lecturer from the Grand Lodge of the United Temperance Order of Ontario, will deliver a lecture in the Masonic Hall on Monday evening next, May 1st. Subject "Intemperance and Prohibition." Collection at the close in aid of the Lecturer Fund.

Rev G. C. Moore, of Moorfield, was tried at Police Court, Guelph, on Saturday morning, on a charge of committing an indecent assault on the person of a colored woman, named Jackson. He was committed to stand his trial at the next assizes, bail being accepted for his appearance.
