London papers of the 27th Sir, Yesterday quite a sensation was caused in our rattle market by the arrival of 102 Canadam cattle, spleudid animals, in fine condition, equal to our best English breeds; they came to Scotland from Monttreal, shipped by Messes. Barbour & Coghlin. o the consignment of Messes. Richard Hall and sous, of Liverpool, who have thus opened out another source of our food supplies. They were fitteen days on the journey, and were landed at Thames Haven without a single accident. They realized 6s, to 6s 4d, to sink offal, and will no doubt result in a very large and regular supply, and thus tend to lower the price of that prop of old Eng-
