THE HERALD

RICHMOND HILL, AUG. 25, 1876.

SIR JOHN.

We cannot take up an exchange paper, whether in favor of or opposed to the Ministry, but the two words at the head of this article are sure to meet our eyes.

OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

The Globe takes the opportunity in commenting upon the number of people out of employment in New York, to have a slap at those papers who take the part of our mechanics against the foreign workmen.

ridiculous, and cannot, by a thinking and reasonable people, be for one moment entertained, as before this can be accepted the Globe and kindred papers must show to the satisfaction of its readers how it would be, provided there was no protection granted to the mechanic.

The next Provincial Exhibition will be held in Hamilton on the 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st and 22nd of September. All entries for Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Agricultural Implements, and Machines, must be made on or before Saturday, August 19th.

A Reform paper starts the idea that Mr. David Glass is about to be elevated to the Bench. It may turn out to be an elevation for Mr. Glass, but a deterioration for the Bench.

It is insinuated in the miscellaneous news' column of the Economist, that Sir John was drunk at the picnic at Colborne. It would be as well for some people to look nearer home.

John Douglass & Son, Publishers, have placed upon our table the New Dominion Monthly for August. Its contents are, as usual, interesting and instructive; the frontispiece has an illustration of Sir A. T. Galt. Price $1.50 per annum: 15 cents per copy.

Agricultural.

PEAS BEFORE WHEAT

The Country Gentleman strongly recommends the above order as preferable to summer fallowing, unless the land be too foul and weedy to admit of sowing a crop. A fallow is good to destroy weeds, and while it cleans, it at the same time enriches the soil, but it involves more or less labor, and what is worse, the loss of a crop for the season.

BOYS, STAY ON THE FARM.

I am so tired of staying on this old farm, and never having a chance to rise in the world, Uncle John, said Rufus Cole one day. 'I wish I could go off somewhere, and do and be something sometime.'

On some of the best managed farms in Great Britain and Ireland hay and straw are always "chaffed," that is cut into short lengths with a machine before being fed to horses, cattle or sheep.

A writer in the Scientific American says, in reply to a correspondent who is troubled with Canada thistles:—The mode that I found most expeditious and effective is to wait until the thistles are in full bloom and before the seeds were far enough advanced to ripen, and then mow them down with a scythe, which always ended the course.

DON'T.

Don't say "I told you so." Two to one you never said a word about it. Don't imagine that you can correct all the evils in this world. A grain of sand is not prominent in a desert.

EPSS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epss has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.
