In ent periods in the history of the nations, January last the Earl of Erne was created some of them look as if they where a Baron of the United Kingdom, and Mr. J. R. Ormsby-Gore, Mr. Henry Gerard Sturt, Mr. John Tollemache, and Sir Robert Gerard were raised in a "batch" to the ting long so I shall close for the time Upper House as Lords Harlech, Allington, being; but it warmed my heart to see Tollemache, and Gerard; while the Earl our Canadian display and to meet Canaof Abergavenny was created a Marquis, and the Duke of Richmond had an additional glowing with pride at our share; here dukedom, that of Gordon, bestowed upon him. Since that time Lord Northbrook had been rewarded with an earldom for his services in India, and the Earldom of Beaconsfield has been also bestowed on Mr. too the mother land had gathered in Disraeli. The exact number of peerages, nroud array all her Colonies, showing spiritual and temporal, including those enjoyed by members of the Royal Family, stands consequently at the present moment at 503, headed by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales as Duke of Cornwall, and ending with "Mortimer, Lord Sackville," the juntor baron. The dukes number 21, the marquises 22, the earls 132, the viscounts 31, the archbishops and bishops 26, and the barons 265. The rest of the roll is made up by the Royal Dukes. There are one or two things to be noted in the present roll. Firstly, that the number of peerages on it is slightly in excess of the actual total number of the lords spiritual The Globe favors a further bonus to Lehigh Valley R. R. passing Portage asked judge McAlister of Chicago, to and temporal; Lord Cairns being enumorated twice over, both as a baron and as Lord Chancellor; the Duke of Richmond both as a duke and also as Lord President of the Council; the Marquis of Hertford. both as a marquis and also as Lord Chamberlin; Earl of Beauchamp both as an earl and also as Lord Steward of the Household: and, lastly, the Earl of Erne both as an Irish representative peer and also as Lord Fermanagh. Again, it may be observed that the Buckhurst title has disappeared since last year as a separate entry, being merged in the superior honor of the Earldom of De la Warr, and that blanks are put The name of the Earl of Beaconsfield also figures twice in the roll, firstly, in his own place at the end of the Earls, next after Lord Northbrook, and again as Lord Privy Seal, in which capacity his Lordship takes precedence above and before all Dukes, next after the members of the Royal Family, the two Archbishops, the Lord Chancellor, and the Lord President of the Council.
