The Public Schools.

The Public Schools in this village, were closed on Wednesday and Thursday last. The visitors on both days ent branches, and acquitted themselves were numerous, and a decided improve to the satisfaction of their parents an i ment was apparent in the interest manifested over former years.

on Wednesday, by the Principal, the ing. About 30 persons were present, Rev. Mr. Shanklin, Rev. Mr. Campbeli | and all appeared to take a deep interest and the Master of the High School, Mr. Carscadden. Subjects being History, delivered by the Trustees, Messrs. John Geography, Grammar, Analysis, Read- Helmkay, Wm. Burr, and Wm. Muning and Arithmetic. The scholars ro, who expressed themselves as highly showed themselves well up on all the pleased with the manner in which the subjects, and reflected great credit on Mr. Bracken, the teacher. After the studies since the previous examination. examination was over six prizes were awarded to the following scholars, viz.: M. A. Teefy, E. Marsh, F. Coulter, B. Wilson, C. Skeele and G. Moodie for punctuality, during the first six months of the year, not one being absent at roll call in the morning, at recess, or noon; (the books were bought at the HERALD store.)

A Silver Medal having been generously subscribed for by a few of the ratepayers to be given to the pupil who made the highest number of marks for general proficiency in all subjects taught son A. in this school, the result to be attained in this school, the result to be attained by a written examination at the end of J_{z} ; 3rd, McKleod N. and Patters n A. the year. The successful Competitor was Robert Durham, he having obtained per J.; 3rd, Vanhorn C. seventeen marks higher than any of the 2nd, Beynon G., and Brown B. others. The Medal was presented by Mr. Carscadden in a very neat and appropriate speech, explaining the plan on which it was awarded; showing it was impossible any partiality could be shown, as the questions lor examination were prepared by strangers, who were also the examiners. To further ensure justice to all the Candidates, no names were on the papers, numbers being used instead. At the close of the exercises, Mr. Teefy was requested to take the Chair. He expressed great pleasure on bei g present, and was highly pleased with the examination.

Mr. Shanklin on being called upon, referred to the Candidates who had competed for the Medal, to the orderly manner in which the school was con- Lawrence C. ducted; and to the method adopted by Class 1 _____ M Million 0. which the Communications.

To the Editor of the Herald.

Sir,-The communication of "Fair Play " in your issue of last week appears to me to be very fair. I am one of those who do not wish polit.cs introduced into our Municipal affairs, at the same time the thing is done, and this nobody can deny. As a Reformer, I am willing to give a chance to the opposite side, in the person of a moderate and good man; and of such a one, Pool, in the Township of Vaugnan. Sheep claims were presented by Jacob Puterbaugh, John Hislop, John C. Kurtz, I have no objection to support him; and I be-lieve he will be returned. If not, I would be willing to vote again for our present seeve, although, he has been in two years, which gives him a fair share of honors.

Yours, ELECTOR.
