

Dr. Reid, and the Dunkin' ... Revenue etc.

THE LONDON GAZETTE

VOL. XXI. RICHMOND HILL, THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1879. WHOLE NO. 1,088—NO. 43.

MOTHER'S BOYS. Yes, I know there are stains on my carpet - I know the floor, muddily boots - And I see your feet, and your shoddy white - All spotted with blossoms and fruit!

—England is expected to come out of the Zulu affair the gainer. It is thought that the Zulu war, besides resulting in the annexation of Zululand, will lead to the purchase of Delagoa Bay from Portugal, and to vast extension of British influence on the southeast coast of Africa.

—New Zealand, like Australia, groans under the burden of debt. The point of a pencil is attached to two zig-zag lines around the paper; on removing the latter the rate of traveling may be studied.

—A proposal is made to establish day feeding schools in Edinburgh. At Comar-Angus a curling match was played by candle-light.

—The subscriptions in Edinburgh towards the National Fund for the relief of the sufferers by the failure of the City of Glasgow Bank now amount to £26,895, 19s. 8d.

—A new telephone has been recently exhibited before the Academy of Sciences, said to give remarkably good effects. It is the invention of Mr. Gower, an American.

WORLD WIDE NEWS.

—There are sixteen retired colonial bishops now holding good benefices in England. —Lady Dudley, in her invitations to dance in London, limits the hours from 11 to 2.

—The late Mrs. Grote desired that her body be borne to the church by four villagers, and the funeral services were then read by the Rector of the parish, the latter portion over the grave by Dean Stanley. By her desire neither hearse, mourning, coach, pall nor hat-bands were used.

—The Russian Government favors the project of admitting women to pharmaceutical schools and drug stores. In Holland women have enjoyed this training since 1869, and female druggists are eagerly sought for.
