LITERARY.

A book is soon to appear giving the wit, wisdom and pathos of Heine, the famous Cyprus is Hepworth Dixon's latest field, and his labours are to be given in a book one of these days.

An epigram "On the Accession of Leo

XIII," translated into nearly fifty languages. will prove the wonder of literary circles. I is soon to appear in London.

The next number of Macmillan's Magazine is to contain extracts from the commonplace book of Robert Burns.

This seems to be the year of Almanacs and several good ones have appeared, "The American Almanac," published in Washing ton is the best that has come under our ob servation. Another good one is issued from the New York Evening Express office which contains a mass of valuable information. John Burroughs will shortly publish " Locusts and Wild Honey." printed by a Boston house.

Stoddard the past is said to be contributing anonymously to Harper's Weekly. The sermons delivered by Dean Stanley in America, are soon to be published in Eng-

The essays of Mathew Arnold, embracing "Democracy" and other famous essays, have just been published.

Justin McCarthy the wordy and sketchy novel writer whose magazine writing has so delighted American readers, has written "A History of our Own Time," which is unfavorably received in the New York Herald. does not hesitate to tell that magazine writing is not history, and calls his work "Slapdash." Mr. McCarthy writes too much, con sequently, much of it must be trash of one kind or another.

"The Life and Letters of the Baroness Bunsen' is a work attracting much attention The attractiveness of the book may be judged of by the fact that the baroness lived through the most exciting period of the social and political history of England. Her acquaint-ance extended to Niebuhr, Overback. Thorwalsden and Neukorum, and many other foreign authors and musicians. She lived for a considerable time in Rome.

Thorbean description of the lived for a considerable time in Rome.

Thorbean less lines of Dobson's; yet Longfellow is the representative poet of America. Can it be that his powers are failing? considerable time in Rome.

that has been written.

by Harper Brothers under the title of "Rail like a true Milesian roared out from an arrange of a Journey from Bombay to the Bosphorus," by Grattan Geary. It is full of exciting reading.

It is full of exciting reading.

"Pepy's Dairy" has been regarded as one "Pepy's Dairy" has been regarded as one "Pepy's Dairy" has been regarded as one "Pepy's Dairy" has been regarded as one thing of a novelty. A book has recently appeared which is the biography of the Rev. John Russell. He appears to have been a new edition of the work is soon to appear in muscular christian throughout. The first money he made was a prize of thirty pounds at school, which he spent for a hunting horse. He was not a drinker, yet he would not refuse a toset. He married a wife who not refuse a toast. He married a wife who also had a penchant for the field, and could jump a ditch or four-barred gate with any herseman who followed the hounds. The following story is told of the Rev. "Jack" Russell, as he was called:

| Competent sanitary advice, with power to enforce it be given. This is all right as far as force it be given. This is all right as far as following story is told of the Rev. "Jack" tour in Greece." ussell, as he was called:

He was returning from a fox hunt when while the space intended for the centre arch tributor to the London literary press under on to the second, paused a moment on the wrote for the public. brink of the centre arch as if measuring the The poet Coleridge was no coward. Findexact width of the chasm, then rose coolly ing himself poor and destitute in London he and collectedly and cleared it at a bound.

his parish church. When a favorite hunter sidered four lines of poetry a day good work, died he had the skin taken off, tanned and but he could not be sincere in saying so. made into a chair covering, the legs and hoofs forming the legs of the chair. In 1873 he sofa, and Pope usually kept his poems a year Prince and Princess of Wales, and opened took a great deal of time, and had his chief in this city, they could save a city large perthe ball on New Year's eve with the Princes. Mr. Morks privately printed before being sub-centage of its crulest mortality. If they could be remained ten days with the Prince. Mr. mitted to a publisher. Tennyson spends a Russell is still living. The book purports to great deal of time over his poems. On the be a memoir of this remarkable divine, who other hand Byron, Dryden, Scott, Johnson is now in his eighty-third year.

mentator professes to have discovered that Shakespeare was the writer of order to defray the expenses of her funeral. an anonymous play published in England in 1599, under the title of "A Warning to Fair Women;" and the quotations he gives from it go a long way to establish the belief he entertains. He stakes his reputation on the fact that the extracts he given were contributed by the great dramatist. Only a single copy of the tragedy is known to exist.

The death of Elihu Barritt reminds us of the enjoyment of a pleasant half day with him many years ago. The genial old man him many years ago. The genial old man was endeavoring to enlist support in favor of his pet project of ocean penny postage.

Though the best linguist in America, he did material for a romance, but yesterday aftermaterial for a romance, but yesterday aftermaterial for a romance, but yesterday aftermaterial for a romance bu of which he had mastered while following the trade of a blacksmith, to which he was apprenticed in his seventeenth year. Desiring to put his learning to a Desiring to put his learning to a practical account, young Buritt tried school teaching, but his health failing he accepted the position of a commercial travellar and subsequently partial. ler, and subsequently settled in the grocery business, but the crash of 1837 ruined him, and he took himself again to the anvil which he followed until a turn for magazine writing and book making changed his course of life. "The Learned Blacksmith" was an admirable specimen of the self-taught humble and by the ingenuity he displayed? He published various works detailing his vast researches into the mysteries of science, and his inven-tions are world-famed.

spent much time in amusing those around him. He found time from his studies to take to see whatever sights were to be seen in the metropolis and was always kind to them.

extraordinary but unfortunate genius. For extraordinary but unfortunate genius. For seven years he was confined in prison on the plea that he was a lunatic. He died on the evening previous to his intended coronation as the prince of poets. A letter of his is evening previous to his intended coronation as the prince of poets. A letter of his is as the prince of poets. A letter of his is preserved, dated from prison, in which desires five shirts washed, "all of them," he adds "also require mending." The fate of Tasso is a disgrace to Italy, and indeed civil-Tasso is a disgrace to Italy, and indeed civilized society.

A work on Afghanistan has appeared in England, by Col. Malleson, also the "Journal of General Abbott in Afghanistan." Count de Turrune has just published in Paris a book of travel, entitled "Fourteen months in North America."

"The Geology of Ireland," by Mr. Kinahan has met with a good reception in Eng-The latest poems is "Humanity and the Man," in blank verse, by Dr. Sharp.

M. Alphonse Daudet has taken the exiled Kings of Europe under his care, and has announced a novel under the title of "Le Rois en Exil." The late King of Hanover lasting knot was tied, and two throbbing hearts beat as one. The next place they nois en Exil." The late King of Hanover is the prominent figure in the novel.

An extraordinary book must be "A Military Essay, by an Austrian Major, on the trategy of Moses and Joshua." trategy of Moses and Joshua."

In the Chamber last Friday. Mr. B. followed on and on, and church last Sunday night.

Over the Gate," is disappointing, and by no got to Grenville too late. He also lost no means what it was expected to be. It is not time in reaching this city, arriving on Monworthy one of such poetic genius as Henry day last. Wadsworth Longfellow, author of that grand poem "Evangeline." One of similar length has appeared in England, by Austin Dobson, the most promising poet of the day. cannot resist repeating it:

Wistaria blossoms trail and fall
Above the length of barrier wall;
And softly, now and then,
The shy, staid-breasted doves will flit
From roof to gateway-top, and sit
And watch the ways of men.

AT THE CONVENT GATE.

The gate's ajar. If one might peep!
Ah, what a haunt of rest and sleep
The shadowy garden seems!
And note how dinly to and fro
The grave gray hooded sisters go,
Like figures seen in dreams. Look, there is one that tells her beads; And yonder one apart that reads A tiny missal's page; And see, beside the well, the two That, kneeling, strive to lure anew The magp.e to its cage!

Not beautiful—not all! But each With that mild grace, outlying speech,
Which comes of even blood;—
The veil unseen that women wear
With heart-whole thought, and quiet care,
And hope of higher good.

"A placid life—a peaceful life!
What need to these the name of wife?
What gentler task (I said)—
What worthier - e'en your arts among—
Than tend the sick, and teach the young,
And give the hungry bread?"

"No worthier task!" re-echoes she, Who (closelier clinging) turns with me To face the road again: —And yet, in that warm heart of hers, She means the doves, for she prefers To 'watch the ways of men.'"

The opening verse in Longfellow's poem

"Is it so far from thee Thou canst no longer sea In the chamber over the gate That old man desolate, Weeping and wailing sore For his son, who is no more?

How different from the smooth and fault-

Canon Perry has given to the world perhaps the best "History of the Church of England"

A good story is told of the great singer, Mario, He appeared in Dublin as "Manrice" in the "Troystore" beginning the first A good story is told of the great singer rico" in the "Trovatore," beginning the first An interesting book has just been issued song, Deserti sulla terra, which is always sung behind the scenes; one of his admirers, like a true Milesian roared out from the gal-

of the most interesting books

A book has actually been woven at Lyons.

was left entirely open, the river running the cognomen of "Boz." Being asked how rapidly some fourteen feet below. Mr. Harris he came to assume the name, he said he had He rode over the hurdles that fenced Moses in Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield," off the bridge, then giving the mare her head that he was called Moses also. A younger she felt cautiously for a sure foothold amid girl, who could not articulate plainly, called the broken masonry, and, collecting herself, him Bozie or Boz. The circumstance led she felt cautiously for a sure foothold amid the broken masonry, and, collecting herself, jumped to the top of the first arch and then bickens to use the name in the first thing he then came the hurdles, and away!

the quarters looked hard at Coleridge and, lisease are covered from sight, but he moves was possessed of high literary attainments, inquiring his name, added, "What do you in, and one after another of his family sickens and dies, and he learns at last, that he has and one the afternoon of the sixth day what most other persons come level of the property areas to the response come level of the sixth day what most other persons come level of the sixth hunted a whole week through bad weather, and on the afternoon of the sixth day looked at his watch and found it was two o'clock. Bidding his friends goodby, he turned his horse's head homeward, and did not quit the saddle, with the exception of the sixth day what most other persons come, to be made a whole was soldier." "Do you think," said the General, "you can run a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "To you think," said the General, but you can run a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not know," answered Colertidge, "As I never tried; but I'll let a Frenchman through the body?" "I do not kn tion of changing his horse midway, till he reached his own stable door at eleven o'clock in the evening, having ridden a distance of and the soldier poet was turned in the ranks. seventy miles. He then dined, slept, and the Some of our great writers have been slow next day he performed three full services in composers. Goldsmith is said to have con-

ristmes sermon before the or two before he published them Burke s now in his eighty-third year.

and Gibbon wrote hurriedly. It is said of about the adulteration of food as if that were Collier, the great Shakespearean com.

Dr. Johnson that he wrote his romance of a great thing, and our Board of Health busies Brete Hart is lecturing in London, England, and is considered the lion of the day.

> A ROMANCE OF THE GATINEAU. Travelling by Stage for Five Days to Se-Square.

[From the Montreal Gazette.] noon a Gazette, reporter was made acquainted with the following facts. It will be understood that the Gatineau takes its rise somewhere up in the wilderness of Northern On-tario, and flows through a labyrinth of pine forests until its confluence with the broad and picturesque Ottawa, at Gatineau Point, a hamlet three or four miles from the "metropolitan village," where is located the seat of the Dominion Government.

Well, a great many miles up this comparacomfortable circumstances named Nathaniel Butters or Batters, who was blessed with two daughters and three sons, the edgest of whom, aged twenty years, delighted in the euphon-of Humphrey Davey at Penzance, Cornwall, England, and what has the world not profited by the inconnity he displayed? He published the eye of Samuel Degeer, a young farm arious works detailing his vast researches to the mysteries of science, and his inventions are world-famed.

Macaulay was very fond of children, and the contemplation of children, and the contemplation of children, and the contemplation of children are served. father stoutly and emphatically objected, for various reasons, among them that young Degeer was very poor, and that if he consent metropolis and was always kind to them.

Torquato Tasso, the Italian poet, and anthor of "Jerusalem Delivered," was an extraordinaw but well-anthor to the consentant of the pound man had determined to go to the pound man had determined to go to this, and forbid his daughter ever to have anything more to do with December 1. anything more to do with Degeer. To make longer in the neighborhood. The explanation was simple. An elopement had taken place.
The old man, from information received as to the course the flying pair had taken, no time in pursuing. Jumping into the saddle, he was hard after them. tive point of the lovers was the Q.,M.,O. & O R. R. which passes the front of the Gatineau River, where the train could be taken for Montreal or any other place they choose, and where the services of a clergyman would be at their disposal. All the way down the river the old man got word of them, but they managed to keep well ahead, although they travelled by stage. After four days' travel they reached the railroad, where they took the train for Grenville. Here Hymen's ever-the interference of Mr. B., Samuel and his bride would have been off with the party. The old man had managed to circumvent them in this manner. Learning of their whereabouts in the city, through divers enquiries and searches, he laid his plans and to make the cup more bitter, waited till the last moment to checkmate them.

Mr. B., secreted himself in the door of the Traveler's Hotel, Chaboillez square, where called her-Elva. lovers, especially as regards the girl. The whole matter had assumed its worst-or wilderness. VILLAGE BOARDS OF HEALTH.

ged and snow-bound roads

recent address before the New York State Medical Society on the "Relations of the Medical Profession to the State," Dr. Holland thus discusses a very important topic: Doctor Roosa very wisely says that there should be a board of health in every county supervision. Men are dying in New York fatal traps we had set for human life. House a block, and offers his house for sale. The brain. pality or the state has afforded him no pro-

The truth is that we not only need to have powers much enlarged where they exist. No one, we suppose, can doubt the great usefulness of our New York Board of health, but if they could be armed with powers that would enable them to act more directly upon the prevention of disease they could be much more useful. If they could have authority to dictate the plumbing and ventilation of every structure, private as well as public, erect does any one doubt that they would greatly improve the health of the city? We talk about the adulteration of food as if that were itself about it in the absence of other work. but the adulteration, the absolute poisoning of the air we breathe, is of almost infinitely more importance.

Doctor Roosa speaks of what is done in the way of preventive medicine by our wise system of quarantine, by which the city has heen saved from destructive enidemics. With our yellow fever lesson of last year fresh in memory, it really seems as if town should learn cure Marriage—Scene in Chaboillez these epidemics become fatal in the degree in which the air is vitiated by poisonous odors. When yellow fever or cholera visits a place, it becomes a terrible or mild visitation according to the conditions which it finds.
If it finds a people already poisoned with foul streets and bad drainage, it finds food for a great and grave mortality. If it finds a place where everything is pure and sweet, it does not stay long or work such mischief. There armed with a considerable amount of power with the power, at least, of holding inques on private premises, and determining what shall be done to remedy evils; but what we tion, such as shall make it incumbent upon every builder to secure the approval of such a board before he can live in his house himself, or offer it for sale or rent.

HOW WE DIE.

The returns made to the Government in the blue book just issued, show that persons engaged in the following occupations were the longest lived in 1877, the numbers dying being also given :—

	No.	Average Age.
Weavers	31	70
Gentlemen	135	69
Soldiers	59	68
Paupers	26	66
Public officials	41	63
Coopers	17	62
Clergymen	31	61
Farmers	2482ne	a'rly62
Brickmakers	6	60
Masons	41	59
The ten lowest are :-
	No.	Average
		Age.
Telegraph operators	3	23
Milliners and dressmakers	16	30
Undertakers	3	32
Railway employees	37	33
Seamstresses	22	34
Chemists and druggists	9	35
Barbers	4	35
Dalamand and attended
Bakers and confectioners	16	36
Merchants	20	37
Artists	3	38

The average age reached by members of the three professions, divinity, law and medi-cine, was 55.

-The distinctive feature of a Free Method ist church in Toledo, Ohio, is the belief that all Christians ought to wear some distinctive badge. The members keep on their breast a wide, red ribbon, with a cross printed on it. The pastor of a Campbellite church in Austin. Texas, pricks an Indian ink emblem on the arm of every convert, and calls it " the saving mark." -A correspondent, who forgets to send his name and address, complains of the unruly

LITERARY EPIDEMIC.

It will be remembered that on Tuesday last a party of twenty left Bonaventure depot for the Prairie Province, and had it not been for the interference of Mr. B., Samuel and his in the Academy of Music. As anticipated, it was a decided success. Before eight the hall was filled to its utmost capacity by an intelligent, fashionable and aristocratic audience. Myriads of our Hamilton friends who had come in their triumphal chariots emblazoned with the family coats of arm to do honor to the occasion, mournfully retraced their course, loundy, Iowa, and another from Anton L—being unable to gain admittance. Every spot of 735 South Seventh street, St. Louis, reof vantage ground was occupied by enthushe had put up, as he was aware they would lastic spectators. Some mounted the chan-pass that way about 9 p. m. He had not to deliers by scaling ladders, while others reckpass that way about 9 p. m. He had not was all lessly jeopardized life and limb by clinging wait long, for presently an open sleigh came from the direction of St. Maurice street, and from the dark and cozy recesses of innumer was an assembly embracing the literation of the dark and cozy recesses of innumer.

Wits and poets whose racy bon bons marry again, and wants the union to be made in a husiness-like way and with despatch. He able buffalo robes, he heard a well-known, the land. Wits and poets whose racy bon bons timid voice, that of the "arrant"—as he and matchless epigrams had entranced many in a business-like way and with despatch. He timid voice, that of the "arrant"—as he and matchless epigrams had entranced many called her—Elva. With chain-lightning a coterie of the fair sex. Grit politicians who speed he was out in the middle of the street, had become prematurely bald in vindicatand in a voice resembling distant thunder, commanded the Jeliu to halt, at the same time seizing the horse by the head. There was like Great Heart, had cast the gauntet down like Great Heart, had cast the gauntet down and the seizing the horse by the head. time seizing the horse by the head. There was like Great Heart, had cast the gauntlet dcwn a perceptible shudder and look of astonishment and crossed swords with Beelzebub as one obticeable on the part of the unsuspecting worthy of their steel. Municipal orators of overs, especially as regards the girl. If the council Chamber, whose abstruse and written to him. Following are some of the cloths. street had opened out and swallowed her she perplexing logic passes the understanding of could not have been more astonished. After all beyond their magic circle. Barristers, very many threats and even blasphemies, the chimney sweeps, hod-carriers and navvies began to cool down. It was no use. were there to pay homage to asolde matter had assumed its worst—or piring youth. Before proceedings com-The whole matter nad assumed its worst—or perhaps its best—shape, and he was power-less to interfere, legally or morally. As is always the case, a reconciliation followed, but the trip to Manitoba was abandoned for the time being. All of a sudden Mr. B., became as affectionate to his hitherto objectionable understanding, as Pecksniff would observe, and the other a farmer. We are desirable young ladies, wishing to get married, and the occupations of those gentlemen are very would tend to cultivate the taste, refine the mind and enlarge the sphere of the human lass affectionate to his hitherto objectionable understanding, as Pecksniff would observe, the one being a baker memory with the other a farmer. We are desirable young ladies, wishing to get married, and the occupations of those gentlemen are very suitable. The baker will please to write a letter and direct to—Buren street, Baltimore, and the other a farmer. We are desirable to observe the cocupations of those gentlemen are very suitable. The baker will please to write a letter and direct to—Buren street, Baltimore, and the other a farmer. We are desirable to observe the cocupations of those gentlemen are very suitable. The baker will please to write a letter and direct to—Buren street, Baltimore, and the other a farmer. We are desirable to observe the cocupations of those gentlemen are very suitable. The baker will please to write a letter and direct to—Buren street, Baltimore, and the other a farmer. We are desirable to observe the cocupations of those gentlemen are very suitable. as affectionate to his hitherto objectionable of three amicably arranged, and the old man showered his blessings on the new weedlad were amicably arranged, and the old man showered his blessings on the new weedlad were amicably arranged. Degeer and lEva were to return to the home He contended that hearty co-operation. on the Gatineau, wait until May, and then they were at liberty, if nothing better turned up, to go to Manitoba and be happy. The party left the city on Wednesday evening, and about this time are going over the rug-ged and snow-bound roads leading to the atent resourses of the youthful mind, through innate modesty would never be rerealed to bless and edify mankind. To night forests of pine away up the Gatineau, into the these aspirants for literary laurels would kind indulgence of the audience as amateurs, who had embarked on the high road to distinction; amateurs who were striving to secure a niche in the temple of Writing in Scribner for April of Dr. Roosa's Fame, and who were desirous of bequeathing o posterity,names immortalized by the splen dour of their genius. The exercises of the evening embracing vocal and instrumental music, recitations, essays, etc., opened with a ly propped by an empty lager beer keg.

The fair manipulators of the ivories were, nowever, loudly applauded. The amorous respective gladiators. Young Sprouts deserves soon. poisoning has now become the most common form of poisoning. Diphtheria, pneuments and high appreciation of dram vicious effect places him ckeck by jowl with of dramatic modes of building, and there is no authority, famous Booth. The evening's pleasantries apparently, to prevent the formation of the sources of these diseases. A builder puts up a prize poem, the offshoot of his versatile In introducing the poet Laureate, the buyer sees everything fair, for the sources of president remarked that the youthful rhymer at times he would straddle his spavined mag production :-In the inn ye ancient bacchanal, He chaffeth one of three,

"By thy bright red nose and blood-shot eye,
Thou'st been upon the spree.

The bar-room door is open wide, And I am mighty dry, The liquor's prime, I've got a dime To treat both you and I."

He holds him by the button-hole, Quoth he, "I had a pup." Nay, now before you spin a yarn, Old bummer, 'set 'em up.' " He holds him with his shaky hand,

"Now make yourself (hic) sung :"—
"Oh cheese that yarn, don't chaff with me Or I'll lam you on the mug." He calms him with the glittering coin, The thirsty soul stopped still, And listened with a watery mouth To please the hardened pill.

The old man stopped, his eyes were closed, He spoke not any more;
For in a swound his head reel'd round,
And he tumbled on the floor.

The landlord came and yanked him out. His face bedaubed with blood; He sprawled round light, and on the left Went down into the mud.

The cops were hailed, ye man was nailed, All merrily did they drop; While ye old man's nose through blood and blows, Loomed like a light-house top.

The magistrate spoke up in wrath, I'll stop your drinking ale; Your sentence, mind, without a fine, "Is thirty days in jail."

A REMINISCENCE OF 37. A Loyalist who Carried a Rebel Builet in His Brenst Over Forty Years.

Mr. William Jameson of Point Fortune, Quebec, who died at Woodstock the other day at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Cunningnam, requested a few days previous that, if the attack of heart disease, from which he was suffering, should prove fatal, his body should be opened before burial and a sealed made for a pistol bullet and a portion of a brace buckle which he had been carrying within him for about forty-one years. In within him for about forty-one years. In 1837, the memorable year of the rebellion in 1837, the memorable year of the rebellion in that would have won him an encore on the mother is made uneasy by taking the chicks themselves to be suffering from unwonted away from her. If you think you must help depression and uneasiness, accompanied with strong man, resided at Carillion, in the Lower the ball that he quite forgets his appearance in some way, remove the shells from which loss of appetite and inability to sleep; and strong man, resided at Carillion, in the Lower Province, and one day, in the post office there, got arguing politics with a "rebel," until he is reminded by a suppressed titer the chicks have emerged, but leave the chicks have the chicks have emerged, but leave the chicks have emerged, but leave the chicks have with the chicks have with the chicks have emerged, but leave the chicks have with the ch him, whereupon he drew a pistol and fired at his loyal opponent. The bullet broke the iron buckle of the right suspender, and then his loyal opponent. The ounes proke the irron buckle of the right suspender, and then entered the breast, inflicting a wound which came near proving fatal, and from which he came near proving fatal hone, the bullet resting on the diaphragm and entirely enveloped in the cartilaginous formation of considerable size, while the other article was partially hidden by a deposit that since the milk vendors have been under a more nearly resembling flesh. The bullet is retrict surveillance, the mortality among child-round, but is much damaged at one spot, no doubt where it struck the buckle, which was -A farmer in the neighborhood of Doncas broken by the blow, part with the tongue or tongues attached probably remaining fast to ter, was met by his landlord, who accosted the others. The oldest child is now forty brate the hundredth anniversary of the birth the suspender. The portion driven in by the bim thus: "John I intend to raise your bullet forming three sides of the buckle, and is of the simplest description, being merely a piece of iron wire, about two inches long and it myself.

bent at right angles a little more than half [From the Slabtown Gazette.]

Last evening the members of the Eclectic made by the blow of the bullet is still plainly visible.

MATRIMONIAL.

Native Maidens Ready to Step in Ahead o

the Girls from Foreign Lands. About two weeks ago Superintendent Jack son of Castle Garden received two letters, one from Louis P. Bode of Shenandoah, Page questing him to send them each a wife from the young German, Swiss or Scandinavian women arriving as emigrants at this port.

Bode complained of the "dearth of marriageable women in Iowa," and, being a childin it, that God never placed a tiger or in a business-like way and with despatch. He writes that he is a well to do farmer. Anton I writes that he is a baker. As Mr. Jackson does not feel equal to the seriou duties of a matrimonial agent, he has paid proposals : Balthmore, March 6, 1879.

Sire: We saw your advertisement in the newspaper stating that there were two gentlemen wishing wives, the one being a baker of the same of the same the farmer can write a letter also, and direct amicably arranged, and the old man showered his blessings on the new wedded pair. At last accounts the affair stood about thus;

Bagger and lEva were to return to the home NEWARK, N. J., March 11, 1879. hearty co-operation. He contended that notwithstanding "knowledge with her ample page, rich with the spoils of time," was within the reach of all, it was expedient that these societies should be formed to develope the marriage. I would be willing to enter such an arrangement. I understand kinds of work-house and needle work, I be accommodated. Yours with respects, -Academy street, Newark, N. J. NEW PARK, Pa., March 8, 1879. Seeing by the newspapers that a gentle-man, an Iowa farmer, offers himself as a husband, with good references, I accept his heart and hand, and give mine in return. I piano duet from Bellini's opera of Norma by the Misses O'Rourke. The effect was slightly sire to settle in the West, with a good husband the same port realized that other agents in the same port realized to the control of the same time. marred by the instrument falling to the floor and a good home. I am 23 years of age, during the artistic execution of the piece. This disastor was traceable to the fact that the propped by an empty lager beer keg.

blue eyes, and make a very genteel appearance. I am an orphan; have three sisters, all married—one lives in Philadelphia, one in Hartford county, Maryland, and I remain with one in this place, six miles from the owever, loudly applauded. The amorous with one in this place, six miles from the Esculapius followed by a recitation entitled station on the Pennsylvania Railroad. I be this country is by no means an unprofit foreign market and improved means of transfering modulated voice, the exquisite she is dead, and I am out of a home and about two dollars per barrel, and those ship portation. Many factories of different classes, and the state of the country is by no means an unprofit foreign market and improved means of transfering modulated voice, the exquisite she is dead, and I am out of a home and He was returning from a fox hunt when his progress was momentarily arrested by discovering that a bridge in his road, consisting of five arches, was under repair four of these were only partially finished.

A Dook has actually been woren at Lyons, and those ship-levery day because houses are built improper law, the great silk manufacturing city of France. The letter press was executed in silken thread, instead of being printed on type.

Charles Dickens was just known as constitutely vicious and murderous. Men put up sister," surpasses the happiest efforts of Mrs. to say any more, hoping you will send this on ments: and from information sent to ments. buildings all over the country just as they please. We have built houses for human please. We have built houses for human he accidently slipped on an orange skin and at once. He will please send his picture to the gentleman whom I have mentioned he accidently slipped on an orange skin and at once. He will please send his picture to the gentleman whom I have mentioned he accidently slipped on an orange skin and at once. He will please send his picture to the gentleman whom I have mentioned he accidently slipped on an orange skin and at once. He will please send his picture to the gentleman whom I have mentioned he accidently slipped on an orange skin and at once. He will please send his picture to the gentleman whom I have mentioned he accidently slipped on an orange skin and at once. be accidently slipped on an orange skin and was carried out insensible. Throughout, the me, and I will send mine in return. I will was left entirely open, the river running the cognomen of Box. Deing asked now present the name, he said he had dwellings, and we have never yet been questioned by any public officer as to how many was on a Foxbury mare, and a perfect a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop, hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that gentleman to have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from that the have a little brother who resembled so much the stop hoping to hear from the have a little brother who have never yet been questioned by the stop hoping to hear from the have a little brother who have never yet been questioned by the stop hoping to hear from the have a little brother who have never yet been questioned by the stop hoping to hear from the have a little brother who have a

WEDDING ON A TBAIN the Married at the Rate of Thirty Miles (From the Pittsburg Leader.)

On the fast line on the P. R. R from the West, which left this city at 8.06 on Friday evening, was a lady unattended occupying a section of sleeper. While stopping at the depot she informed the conductor that she effusions had frequently graced the columns desired to remain sole occupant of the section Boards of Health established in many places Pegasus and take a canter in the fields of where they are not, but need to have their pears. Blushing like a rose of Sharon, the ette. She then called the conductor and Blushing like a rose of Sharon, the ette. She then called the conductor would be performed there in the car. She at once and acquiesced in the arrangement. The top. In selecting trees consider whether Upon the arrival of the train at Harrisburg at 3.50 a.m., there "sure enough" stood ket. The scarce varieties are not needed for at 3.50 a.m., there "sure enough" stood ket. The scarce varieties are not needed for the little company in the depot, and the one purpose; as for the other, select mostly young man, the centre of it, commenced a trapid survey of the train. He was approached by the conductor and directed to the section it very gently at first. Manure liberally and by the conductor and directed to the section where the anxious bride waited his coming. All the arrangements worked like a charm, and while the train thundered through the night the young couple stood up in the car, the porter held a lantern, by the light of which the minister read a brief marriage service, and the blushing bride and fond the porter were declared one. After a number of the section it very gently at first. Manure liberally and cultivate at least around the trees. Grow mouth-wash three or four times a day. As an instance of the effect produced on a patient suffering from that dread disease in its worst stage, we mention the following:—planting. It pays better to do this way than to underdrain. Set the earliest variety of trees in the lightest soil and as near the house as possible. If in the garden so much groom were declared one. After a number of house as possible. If in the garden so much congratulations had been passed, the company left them to continue their journey of life together. The section had been engaged for as far as Washington, and there the conductor HINTS FOR THE POULTRY YARD bade them adieu.

EXPENSIVE POLITENESS.

of that period he was nearly well again, and never afterwards felt any ill effects from the hurt; but as the bullet had not been extract. more internal profanity and still more vio soft-shelled eggs. ing his last illness, the wish that after his death the locality of the "foreign bodies," as medical men would call them, should be ascertained, and Drs. Allen and Bryson searched for and were successful in finding them. They were together and a standard that the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the control of the room, you would not recognize in that red-faced, wild-eyed man, standing there holding his clothes to the control of the room, you would not recognize in the room, you would not recognize in the room of the room for a pistol of rather large bore, and originally ren from diarrhœa has decreased fifty per

WAIFS FOR THE LADIES.

werth of diamonds. -Berkshire and Georgia, Vt., have elected female town clerks. -A Mrs. Miller of Portland, Ore., has given Brilliant Repulse of the Afghana by the birth to her twentieth child.

-Florence Nightingale has sent $125 to the Mayor of Sheffield to be employed in making garments for the distressed.

-The most fashionable flower in Paris no is the dagmar, a large pansy, just the shade of Third Scinde Horse and 120 bayonets of the Princess Dagmar's eyes.

-The Japanese ladies paint their cheeks with a green substance, which, on exposure to -Victor Hugo says, and there is a volume in it, that God never placed a tiger or a wolf in the child that clings to its mother's dress. -Ann Eliza Young says: "I voted once-lication has interested a number of the gentler sex to that degree that they have -East Earl, Pa., has a young lady who for men wishing wives, the one being a baker misconduct, and she then made a vow of While extricating his sword from a man's

-Sarah Bernhradt, the actress, author, æro naut, painter and sculptor, is going to sue a journalist who insinuated that she employs others to paint pictures and make groups of statuary a nd then signs them, and she in tends pleading her own cause.

-In Persia a girl is expected to yield he arents a good round sum at marriage, and he people of that country are indignant and their ardor lessened at witnessing the utter horrified when told that in America daughters are are given away in marriage, as though the parents considered them as worthless

enter into CANADIAN PRODUCE IN ENGLAND

A London correspondent writes :- The last am a widow, aged 32. If the gent wishes to lot of turkeys for this season arrived at Liver- Tanner. am a widow, aged 32. If the gent wisnes to correspond or exchange pictures, he can pool on Monday last, and the whole consignment was sold a fair prices. I am informed ment was sold a fair prices. I am informed who had espoused our cause, and was in that upwards of 40,000 Canadian turkeys the cavalry camp when his clansmen have been landed at Liverpool and Glasgow surprised us, disappeared during the confusince the first of last December. Generally the trade has been a success; but some ship-pers have been unfortunate enough to send their consignments to unscrupulous commis I sion agents, who have sacrificed their tur keys at sixpence per pound at the same time for similar birds from eightpence to tenpence during the past season have realized upon the average eightpence per pound in the feathers and undrawn. From this readers of the Globe will see, knowing as they do the price of turkeys in Canada, that the export trade The proprietors of these are cheered ments; and from information sent to me tention of some prominent poultry dealers in London, Birmingham and Liverpool to send buyers to Canada next autumn to purchase estate and building interests are active. arge quantities of turkeys, geese and ducks. Canadian fowls do not compare with those from Ireland either as regards quality or price. The trade in horses imported from the Dominion continues exceptionally dull.

LOOK TO THE ORCHARDS.

In walking through the orchard attention of a Hamilton journal with which he was until reaching Harrisburg, and would probidentified. This proper sphere, however, was a ably occupy it further. The conductor the muse though thought no more about the matter at the apple growers that the trees having the top apple growers that the trees having the top time. After leaving Altoona the lady rose left well open to permit the free admission of critic and the poet came to the front. Poistimidly confided in him to this effect. She ight fast for the harmonious balance of the tree, in fast for the harmonious balance of the tree, is determined by the precised the following original and inimitable production:

| Consider the conductor and production is the poet came to the front. Poistimidly confided in him to this effect. She fast for the harmonious balance of the tree, fast for the harmonious balance of the tree, precisely the same qualities that the production is explicitly always all the world to her; the production is explicitly always and it is especially valuable since it may

Do not allow the gaps in the orchard caused would be performed shere in the cal. She can be supported by the death or destruction of an occasional that the performance would not be intertree to exist any longer. Purchase stock rupted. pted.

three years old. If the roots are cut off to The conductor of course became interested any great extent compensate by cutting away

This month and next are of great importance in the poultry yard. A great many hens will manifest a desire to set, and in this and recover his perpendicular with noth- fowls should not be allowed to disturb her. ing more serious than a very red face and a Nests arranged according to the plan suggest general sense of having done something for ed in a former article will prevent this. In which he should be sent from the room. But setting a hen at this season do not give more which he should be sent from the room. But in nine cases out of ten he never fully recovers the good opinion of himself that he possessed before he undertook the recovery of that ball. It is always just beyond his reach, and in a moment of weakness he drops on his vest and commences to work himself under the sofa by a series of acrobatic feats that the season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned that season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned to season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned to season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned the season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned to season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned to season do not give more west. The sneril is officer has just returned to season do not give more to season as the hem in another snack, somewhat reduced the season as the hem ein another snack, somewhat reduced to size, and with a fine perception of the merits of tawl-fishing in February.—Mayfair.

—The London Lancet thinks that the "public are altogether wrong in attributing the dome in another snack, somewhat reduced to size, and with a fine perception of the merits of tawl-fishing in February.

—The London Lancet thinks that the "public are altogether wrong in attributing the dome in another snack, somewhat reduced to season as the hem in size, and with a fine perception of the merits of tawl-fishing in February.

—The London Lancet thinks that the "public are altogether wrong in attributing the season as the hem in another snack, eyed man, standing there holding his clothes together with one hand and trying to smooth down his hair with the other, the smiling, genteel ladies' man who stooped down to pick up that ball of zephyr a moment before.

THIRTY-FOUR CHILDREN. [From the St. Louis Republican.]

—The Board of Health of the city of Darmstadt (Badeu) appropries "officials" together with one hand and trying to smooth down to pick up that ball of zephyr a moment before.

—The Board of Health of the city of Darmstadt (Badeu) appropries "officials" declares his ability to live at least twenty the eration on the hundreth apprivatory of the cospel which thou hast reteachings of the Gospel which hot only give the promise of eternal life, but guarantees soial order for the whole of France, of which Paris should be the head reported.

—The Board of Health of the city of declares his ability to live at least twenty that so the control of the complete that the complete from the portification of the promise of eternal life, but guarantees soial order for the whole of France, of which Paris should be the head reported from the portification of France, of which Paris should be the head reported from the portification of the city of the Gospel which not only give the promise of eternal life, but guarantees soial order for the whole of France, of which Paris should be the head reported from the portification of the city of the Gospel which not only give the promise of eternal life, but guarantees soial order for the whole of France, of which Paris should be the head reteachings of the Gospel which not only give the promise of eternal life, but guarantees soial order for the whole of France, of four years of age, but hale and hearty and declares his ability to live at least twenty years more, but nevertheless is in a constant state of preparation for his departure for another world in case he has made a mistake in his calculations. He is now the husband of his fifth wife and the father of thirty-four training might will indeed be accounted dead his calculations. He is now the husband of his fifth wife and the father of thirty-four "Sir, I am years of age, and the youngest but five in Aungier street of cannot raise months. He says that he expects to have at ishable 'Melcdies.'" least one more wife and add six children to his family, making a grand total of forty, and when that is accomplished to apply pension the balance of his life.

FIGHTING HAND TO HAND.

Scinde Horse. (From the London Times.)

Attakarez (via Chaman), Feb. 27.-Col. Malcolmson was yesterday encamped at Khushki Nakhud with 268 sabres of the the Second Beloochis Cavalry, and at 4 p. m. 1,500 of the Alizais, under Majid and Abubuk Khans, suddenly swarmed over the ridge 1,000 yards distant, bearing down in two bodies on the camp. Their right wing-a column some six or eight deep--in dead silence made direct for our cavalry.

They advanced in true chivalric style, and arrived at charging distance just as the -Ann Eliza foung says: "I voted once—being compelled to do so by Brigham Young —and his coachman was deputized to takeme to the polls and show me how to vote."

-The draperies worn by Mme. Roze as The enemy unfinchingly accepted the shock, The enemy unfinchingly accepted the shock. no attention to the requests, but their pub. Pamina in the "Magic Flute," are said to be which, however, broke their solidity, and, ordered, developing into panic, when Maitland's squadron wheeled up, smashing in body, his charger stumbled, and four Afghans cut him to pieces, their own bodies immediately afterwards being stretched around his corpse.

Our casualties are one officer and four troopers killed; Col. Malcolmson (slightly) and 15 men wounded; while 150 Afghan hodies now lie scattered about the camp. The Scinde Horse has dealt the enemy terrible lesson. The enemy's left wing had discomfiture of their comrades, and purhed toward the Beloochis, who repulsed them splendidly, killing 30 men. Col. Tanner, seeing the cavalry far off in pursuit, wisely abstained from following up this success and leaving the camp unguarded. One Afghan penetrated alone through the skirmishing line, and was shot dead near Col.

Dost Mohammed, the Alizai chieftain

STATES MANUFACTURING INTER-ESTS.

Manufacturing interests in the North and West are reported as generally flourishing. The pig iron and leather manufactures still tures are only now beginning to accustom themselves to a new condition of affairs.
These are the exceptions. Flour mills in many cases have been running all winter pers who have paid special attention to the trade express themselves well satisfied with full time, and, with the flour mills, are find ing difficulty in supplying orders as fast as received. In the grain States an

SOOT IN THE GARDEN

Those who have soot, either of wood or bituminous coal, should carefully save it for but a revival is anticipated in May or as soon as warmer weather approaches.

In the garden. It is valuable for the ammonia it contains, and also for its power of re absorbing ammonia. It is simply charcoal (carbon) in an extremely divided but from the creosote it contains is useful in destroying insects, and is at the same time valuable as a fertilizer for all garden crops. It must not be mixed with lime else its am monia will be dissipated, but if the soil is dry rose left well open to permit the free admission of toil-sunlight and air always produce the best and flavored fruit. If some branches grow toe allow for itings for house plants, prospecing of horse's hoofs do. For flowers out of doors Harrisburg she expected to meet a young gentleman who "was all the world to her;" so thrifty. Five years of cultivation and that arrangements had been made whereby the train would at that point be boarded by the gentleman mentioned, together with a minister and seme few friends and a cerestant mony—the most interesting of her life— years.

The form of horse's hoofs do. For flowers out of doors of the sepecially valuable since it may be easily all the specially valuable since it may be easily the train would at that point be boarded by the gentleman mentioned, together with a minister and seme few friends and a cerestant properties and the properties of the growth into other branches that are not its especially valuable since it may be easily applied, and tends to increase the vividness of the bloom, and, mixed with salt, it is a most excellent fertilizer for asparagus, onions, and the properties of soot. For 2 bushels of compost this quantity makes a heavy dressing for each square rod to be worked in next the surface of the

CURREOR DIPHTHERIA

We have been informed by Dr. Alloway, of Radegonde street, of the following simple cure for diphtheria, which is scouring our neighboring towns and suburbs:—Bailie's bi-sulphate of lime, 2 oz; water, 2 oz.; carthroat. He prescribed this treatment with the most remarkable success, the patient having recovered sufficient to attend to ness in the course of a few days, -- Montreal

-A delicious incident happened at a seaside place the other day. A sheriff's officer It is a critical moment in the life and cases where early chicks are desired, they will went on board a smack to detain her for a clothing of a man when he gets down on his knees to look under the sofa for a ball of zephyr that a lady friend has dropped. It is possible that he may be able to accomplish

The lagses where early chicks are desired, they will debt. He was no sooner en board a smack to detain her for a debt. He was no sooner en board than the some good coops, so as to have them ready, when a hen has commenced to set, other when a len has commenced to set when a len has commenced to set when a len has commenced to set when a len has com sheriff's officer along with her. One may gest In with the wind, like Hamlet, mad at Nor'-norwest. The sheriff's officer has just returned

Feed plenty of lime food if you don't want ders of science, industry and art; great city soft-shelled eggs. so rich in the gifts of God; so wealthy in the traditions of faith, and yet sometimes overclouded when thou forgettest Christ and His Church; wilt thou hear with docility the teachings of the Gospel which thou hast re-

Ireland might well indeed be accounted dead to every sentiment of pride and patriotism if in Aungier street of the author of the imperly storped and had the place of the grant and the