The Annual celebration of St. Andrew's Day has come and gone. At one time a large and influential society sat down at the festive board in this village on that ocallowed to dwindle and die away. Surely it was not for the want of "canny" Scotchmen in our midst.

What we might term a self-constituted Committee from Newmarket, visited the Attorney-General, on Monday of last week, concerning County separation. What about East Gwillimbury, North Gwillimbury, and Georgina? Their municipal officers would doubtless like a say in the matter, leaving King and Whitchurch out of the question. We shall return to this subject again.
