We have considerable new blood in the Council this year, and some persons are inclined to think they will be rather extravagant. We do not think this will prove to be the case. It is of course necessary that certain expenditure should be made, that certain expenditure should be made, but we feel assured when the matter comes at Mr H Hopper's, furnished sport, in up for discussion, that the good sense and sound judgement of the Council can be relied upon to vote all necessary monies; not to neglect our interests for want of a few dollars judiciously invested, and at the same time refrain fron any needless exrense or waste of the public funds.
