LAW CONCERNING NEWSPAPERS Any person who takes a paper regularly from a post office, whether directed in his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publishers may con-tinue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not. 3 The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
