The Missionary Meeting in connection with the Church of England, I spoke of in last week's letter, was held on Wednesday evening last, in the Orange Hall, and was very slimly attended. Three Rev gentlemen held forth and also the church choir, which were nearly one-half of the congregation, much to the disgrace of our village. If The first ballot was taken and resulted it was a concert or a dance, you might be sure the hall would be pretty well filled, but it was only a Missionary meeting and of course no account.

Surprise parties nearly every night. Also Cap and Tie parties which is something new, and all well attended. We have two separate Societies here, one is called the "Bon Tons" and the other the "Upper Tens," Oh yes, and another the "Lower Tens," which latter ones generally stop at home. Why, because they are not invited, very good reason. I heard the two first parties had a row at a party the other night which I believe will put a stop to parties for a while. On Wednesday, the Weston Public School had their annual drive to Wood- Grain bridge. About noon 10 sleigh loads came up well filled with children and came up well filled with children and some of the older ones to look after them er, with a Burr Stone, and is prepared to crush which they needed very badly, not all, but some of them. As Mr Humm, Mr Porter said whoever did it should do correspondent of the Brampton Conservator, here, said amongst them was a lot of "apes," and you might distinguish them by their small size and long cigars But they had a jolly time anyway They brought their lunch along with them, and adjourned to the Orange Hall, where they had coffee, cakes 4 o'clock.

The Grits had their anti-Syndicate meeting in Weston, last Thursday afternnon, which turned out to be a real Syndicate meeting, and the last one I think they will call in West York. Dr S. S. LIBRARY. McConnell had better attend to his patients and W A Wallis, Esq., to his "cadi" duties, which they can manage F. B. HEMINGWAY, Librarian, or better than anti-Syndicate meetings.
