> Let us look for a moment at the work which has been done by the Sabbath School. It is impossible to estimate the good that has been effected by Sabbath Schools since they were first organized one hundred years ago. Eternity alone will show how many hearts have been made happy, how many hungry souls have been fed, how many burdens have been lightened, how many men and women have been saved from lives of vice and wretchedness by the truths taugnt in the Sabbath School.

> These truths have, in Christian countries, permeated and leavened all the strata of society, and, like the pure sun-light, have exerted a silent, but potent influence. But what work are Sabbath Schools doing to-day? Why, Sir, the work has become so extensive, and has assumed such importance in the eyes of the Christian world, and has so taken hold the second in 3.11, and the third in 3.04 of their sympathies, and drawn to itself the best talent, the most noble hearts. and the most self-denying labor of the 2 2 3 Church that it is to-day the grand instrument for the evangelization of the world.
