

MR. HODGINS. The Opposition of West York have found a man at last. Mr. Hodgins, Q.C., and ex-M.P.P. for West Elgin is the individual.

At the Convention held in the Temperance Hall, Toronto, on Thursday last, six men were nominated, and all retired in favor of the unfortunate gentleman mentioned. The nomination was therefore unanimous and enthusiastic.

Mr. Hodgins accepted the solemn trust, and gave a few of his reasons for opposing the Government. If the report in the Globe is to be believed, Mr. Hodgins has very little to contest the riding on, except that he is "in the Government" on every occasion. He said that he was in accord with Mr. Mackenzie on the tariff question, and that certain interests should not be disturbed. But the hardships which "pressed sorely" on the people must be removed. Just what the hardships are Mr. Hodgins forgot to mention. No doubt they are something terrible, and too frightfully appalling to be mentioned. It is a most unfortunate thing for Mr. Hodgins and his friends that the people are not crushed under these imaginary burdens. But they are not, nor is there any indication that they are likely to be, and if the amiable Q. C. builds his hopes on this he will never take his seat on the left of the Speaker, for West York. As for the other side, he may view that as the Jewish law giver viewed the promised land, and that is about as near as he will get to it.

Mr. Hodgins, however, is sanguine that he will succeed. If he really thinks so, and can manage to make his friends believe that he means it, they will rejoice and be glad. But unfortunately, Mr. Hodgins is of a sanguine temperament. He is always sure to win. He had the most honorable and very best intentions in regard to West Toronto in 1878, but he got left by over a hundred votes. If the majority is not quite so large in West York, it will at least be sufficient to extinguish Mr. Hodgins, as effectually as the six hundred in West Toronto.

Between man and man there is no reason why Mr. Hodgins should be preferred to the present member. He is an outsider, and Mowbray like, all his wants is a chance. Just give him a footing and he will be satisfied. No doubt he is a good speaker and a very fair lawyer, but neither the one nor the other is any reason why he should be elected. If they were, the House would be filled with nothing but lawyers, and people who like to hear themselves talk. A few such representatives are well enough in their way, but the country is not suffering for want of them, nor does it hanker after them very much. The men who elected Mr. Wallace will want more substantial reasons than Mr. Hodgins' friends advance to induce them to vote against their representative.

Strikes and the N. P.

There are two ways of looking at the Strikes and the National Policy, but the average Brit persists in only taking one view, and a pile-driver would have to be employed to knock any reasonable idea in favor of the N. P. into his head. Admitting that there is some connection between this policy and the strikes, it certainly is not right to say that the men are forced to strike solely because the N. P. has raised the expenses of living so high that they cannot exist on the wages formerly received. But every intelligent man will admit that the employers are making money, and that they can afford to give the increase demanded. The men see that the National Policy has benefited trade, and they naturally ask for a small share of the wealth being amassed. Strikes always take place after bad times have left the country, and when things are booming. It is not denied that some articles of provision have increased in price, but not to an unreasonable extent, and as the employers generally are giving the increase demanded, the men will be satisfied that the N. P. has not injured them.

PARNELL RELEASED.—Parnell was released from prison Monday morning. He was released on parole for a week in order to enable him to visit his sister in Paris, whose son has just died.

The Farmers Advocate is a good magazine. The April number, in particular is almost worth the price of subscription for the year. Published by W. Weld, London, Ont. Send 10 cents and get a sample copy.

In the County of York during the last three months Justices of the peace disposed of 136 drunks and disorderly 11 assaults, 2 for malicious injury to property, one for disturbing public ship, 2 for threatening, 2 for trespass, 4 for non-payment of way, 3 for insulting language, 1 for peddling without a license, and 1 for fast driving.

The following from the Markham Sun is about correct:—"You see it would be for some, if the publisher of this paper would allow every one the privilege of striking anyone else over the shoulders. We are very accommodating, but we cannot afford to be the shield of all attacking parties, or the champion of every injured man."

WOODBRIDGE.

Tim O'Day in going his rounds last week, forgot to call upon Alderman Rowntree, our village butcher, whom we should not forget, as we depend upon him for the staff of life. Mr. R. purchased from Mr. Andrew McNeil, 6th Con. of Vaughan, for our Easter dinner, two 6 year old steers, weighing over 4000 lbs., at a cost of $6.12 1/2 per 100 lbs., live weight. They were two beauties, as most of our villagers know. As Mr. R. says, Toronto Market could not surpass his beef.

SUCKERS. Our new incorporated Sister Wessay, must have a lot of suckers down there, as they send them up here by the wagon load, and poor Sister Woody has to put up with them, and take them in. The poor creatures are nearly all bones. Our Council were discussing the matter last night, but they are like a lot of dummies, you can't make head or tail out of them.

LACROSSE. Our Lacrosse Club has again re-organized, and played their first game on Good Friday, on the fair grounds. They had quite a friendly game among themselves, and a number of villagers were down watching the performance of the sticks. The club is called "The Echoes," of Woodbridge. They have members tickets out now, and will, I suppose, soon be ready to receive orders for summer work.

BAND. The Woodbridge Brass Band turned out on Good Friday, and marched through the streets, playing some of their most lively airs, in very good style, but there is lots of room for improvement. They are now about one dozen strong.

OUR MEMBER. Our M. P., N. C. Wallace, came up from Ottawa to spend Easter with his family. He looks hale and hearty. He returned again to Ottawa on Monday, taking his family back with him and will remain away about a month yet.

PREBYTERIAN SOCIAL. The Presbyterian held a Social and Entertainment in the Orange Hall, on Thursday night last, which was quite a success. The tables were well filled with the best of the ladies could get up, and ample justice was done,—"you bet," as a great many did not eat anything all day, (being lent), to have a good feed at night. After the tables were cleared off, Dr. Grant was called to the chair and made the opening address. He had a bad cold, and addressed the audience all in coughing. Soon after wards he was called out to attend to the sick, which made him smile all over his face. The Rev. John McCullough, was called to take his place, which he did like an old man of 80, and sang a Scotch song to the bairns. There were several recitations, songs and readings, by our local talent, which were rendered very close, and the entertainment came to a close at 10 p. m.

Mr. J. J. Reenan has gone to Manitoba. Who is Town Clerk? A good many of our villagers started gardening last week, but this cold snap has spoiled their little fun, if there is any fun in it.

The roads are in splendid condition just now, and our village seems lively and as usual.

WOODBRIDGE, April 12th, 1882.

Yorkville.

YONGE-STREET ON SUNDAY. The appearance of Yonge-street on Sunday afternoon was very animated. From two o'clock until near dark there was a continuous stream of conveyances going out and returning. About seven o'clock there were no less than twenty vehicles coming down Gallows Hill towards the gate at full speed, and it could be too plainly seen that several of the occupants were under the influence of liquor. There was a good deal of shouting and swearing, and the crowd could only be compared to the return from some great sporting event. One buggy lies on one side of the road a complete wreck. The attention of the License Inspector as well as the constables of the county are called to this matter.

Scrutator's Charges Proven.

To the Editor of the Herald: DEAR SIR—I feel that it is necessary to apologize for taking space in your paper to answer the attacks I made on Mr. J. P. Rupert, of Maple, and especially so when I am replying to such an article as appeared over his name in the LIBERAL of last week. In my opinion such a tirade of abuse as he showers upon me, and such a very weak and feeble attempt at argument or reasoning is not worthy of an answer. I am conscious of lowering myself, somewhat, in replying to it, and would not do so, only to inform that gentleman and your readers that all such attacks in the future will fail to command my notice. The reputation of the LIBERAL, and of some of the readers of the LIBERAL, do not, I suppose care about reading such unmeaning articles, and whether my letters are interesting or not, I decline to adopt Mr. Rupert's style of letter writing. I hope Mr. Rupert is not so childish as to assume, as he has formerly done, that because I do not abuse him in language, similar to his own, he does not deserve such, or that I am unable to do so. Any one can command abusive language, but it is no more commendable than the indulgence in any other evil passion. It is hard to see what Mr. Rupert has gained by his rather original epistles. My first letter has long ago been admitted even by him, to be substantially correct,—that the meetings were held at the Post Office. In his last letter he admits the fact of having made use of his position to further the ends of his friends, and has also admitted, in a former letter, that he circulated anti-Syndicate petitions, in order to influence the Government. These were the real substance of my remarks, and I am very well satisfied to leave my friend, in the position in which he has placed himself. I must say, however, that I am disappointed in seeing such letters appear over the signature of one who I heretofore considered possessed of a fair amount of intelligence and conscientiousness. The only charge that Mr. Rupert has not admitted,—that of the Post Office being read, is also true, and I have been furnished with the name of a gentleman who was in the office at the time, and who will take an affidavit to that effect,—if Mr. Rupert refuses to credit his statement. In Mr. Rupert's last letter he appeals to my sympathy regarding the publishing of the names of my witnesses, and as I have given every other name by his own admission, I can afford to comply with his desire in this particular. I will now thank you, Mr. Editor, for the space you have afforded me, in answering these letters. Yours, etc. SCRUTATOR.

Haigard's Yellow Oil is at the head of the list for all purposes of a family medicine. It is used with unprecedented success, both internally and externally. It cures sore throats, burns, scalds, frost bites; relieves and often cures catarrhs.

Good Friday.

Places of business were closed, generally, in this village, on Good Friday, and Richmond Hill had on a very quiet and Sunday-like appearance.

SERVICE. Service was held in the English Church at 3 p. m., and a large congregation assembled. The Rev. Mr. Shanklin delivered a good discourse, and the choir sang appropriate music.

FIRE COMPANY. The Fire Company assembled for practice in the afternoon. In the absence of the Captain, Engineer MacDonald took command. The engine was taken to the school house tank, and for half an hour or so, the boys were busily employed on the brakes. The engine worked very satisfactorily, and two good streams of water were thrown.

C. M. C. SABBATH SCHOOL CONCERT. In the evening the anniversary Tea-meeting and Concert in connection with the Methodist Sabbath School was held. The usual abundant supply of provisions was furnished by the ladies, and until about 8 o'clock the vestry was thronged with people, with appetites like an average sword-fish, judging from the enormous quantities of provisions which the ladies continually placed upon the tables. After tea, the audience adjourned to the Church, where a. t. e. scholars were seated upon a platform, erected in amphitheatre style. The programme consisted of Dialogues, Recitations, Solos, Duets and Choruses by the scholars. Among the most interesting part of the programme was the recitation of "Hold the Fort," and "Scatter Seeds of Kindness," by three little girls, hardly able to speak plainly, and one apparently not yet past the stage of baby-hood. They sang very nicely, and to the evident satisfaction of the very large audience. The programme was an interesting one throughout, and a great deal of credit is due to those who trained the little children so carefully and successfully in singing the various hymns. Mr. Wm Harrison, the Superintendent of the School, occupied the chair. The proceeds amounted to nearly $60.

How the "Soap" worked at Thornhill.

THE MAGIC SOAP RACKET. On Tuesday following case was tried before the Police Magistrate, in Toronto John Griffin and Hugh Barry were charged with having on the 4th inst. defrauded Frank Hoff and C. L. Lufford out of $8, the former out of $5 and the latter $3 and they were also charged with having stolen $5 out of Hoff's pocket, to which they pleaded not guilty. Hoff stated that on the 4th inst. the two prisoners arrived at Thornhill with a team of horses and a large box of soap which they were trying to sell to a crowd which had congregated. After a time when one of the prisoners had apparently wrapped a $5 bill around a piece of soap and they wrapped it in paper, remarking that the people had the money but not the nerve to buy, complainant bought the package for two dollars and upon opening it found he had received a little piece of paper and a good deal of experience. Again Hoff tried the racket and lost $3 and used some more soap and experience. Witness then followed the prisoners to the city on foot and he was arrested. After the arrest one of the prisoners offered witness his money back.

With reference to the $5 which had been stolen out of the pocket of witness, complainant knew very little, but it was taken out of his pocket while he was taking a drink. Complainant did not think Barry had any thing to do with the racket.

Robert Lelett said he saw the game going on, and saw the two prisoners leave the village together.

Richard Walkinshaw, who keeps hotel a short distance south of Thornhill, said the prisoners called at his place, had a drink, and then went away like gentlemen. While in the hotel the two prisoners were counting some money.

William Hopper was called for the defence, to show the character of the complainant Hoff, but he would not say he was dishonest or that he lied more than the ordinary young man.

The magistrate held that there was no evidence against Barry, and discharged him on the charge of swindling Hoff.

Caleb Ludford was then called to show how he had been swindled.

The charge of larceny was dismissed. Hoff was allowed to go altogether, and Griffin, for swindling Hoff and Ludford was sent to goal for sixty days on both charges.

Artemus Ward and the "Michigan Regiment."

In a Louisville Ky. hotel one day, Artemus Ward and introduced to a Colonel who had commanded a Mississippi regiment in the war. Artemus, in his way that was "childlike and bawdy" said "What Michigan regiment did you command Colonel?" I then it was that the Colonel upon like a top and swore like a sailor, ut pacified sufficiently to hear an explanation. Artemus, with surprise, observed "that he was always getting mixed about the war. It is always unfortunate to get things mixed, but never more so, than when one is sick. Then it is that the right thing in the right place is wanted more than any other time in life, or under any other circumstances. It is a pleasant for us to note in this connection, the experience of our esteemed fellow citizen, Colonel Samuel H. Taylor, who as is well known does not get things mixed. In a recent communication he writes: "I do hereby certify that I suffered very much from rheumatism and neuralgia during the fall of '79, and tried many remedies with little or any good results. I had heard of St. Jacobs Oil and concluded to try it; more as an experiment than with any hope of good results. I can with great pleasure commend it to others, for the reason that I know it cured me." Such an emphatic endorsement coming from one of the very foremost lawyers of our state, well and widely known, carries with it a degree of importance and suggestiveness, which one is sick. Then it is how little is the real science of man studied. If people understood and heeded the laws of health, and if when out of sorts would resort to common sense like Burdock Blood Bitters, many of the "ills to which flesh is heir to" might be effectually remedied. It invigorates and regulates all the secretions to a healthy action.

His many friends were pleased to see his cheerful countenance, radiant with health and pleasure. We have made enquiries as to the insinuation contained in a certain paper that parties were refused admittance to the Conservative meeting lately held in the Masonic Hall and find that no one was refused admittance, but on the contrary several members of the Reform Party could be named as being present, and no objections were made to them.

Readings and recitations will also form part of the programme. Prof. Walmale, of Toronto, has been secured, and a number of ladies and gentlemen of local fame have kindly consented to assist.

NOT NECESSARY.—In reference to a letter from "A Subscriber," Oak Ridges, regarding the "Rapid Transit to the North-West," we think the points worthy of replying to were fully covered by the letter which appeared from a correspondent signed "A Friend" and that it is not worth while to notice any further remarks of the writer referred to by "A Subscriber."

A TONEY SHOP.—When our enterprising artist in the tonorial line, does anything, one may safely wager that he will do it about Wright. This town is all alive on the 24th, and it will not pay to forget it. Further particulars will be given later on, when our telegraphic dispatches come in.

LECTURE BY PATERSON.—The lecture given by the Rev. Mr. Crosby, at Patterson, on Tuesday evening last, 11th inst., was fairly attended, a number of persons from this village being present. The lecturer referred to his experience as a Missionary among the Indians in British Columbia which included many interesting and humorous anecdotes, as well as pitiful and thrilling accounts of the condition and acts of these poor heathens. The lecture proved a very interesting one, and continued a great deal of information respecting the climate, soil and resources of the country on the Pacific Slope. Mr. Crosby has been a very successful missionary, and accomplished a great deal of good. He has endured great privations and hardships, in this work, and an account of his experience reads like "a romance of ye olden time," in many respects. In illustrating portions of his lecture he wore the dress of an Indian "Medicine man" and showed the audience a number of Indian articles of dress, & weapons, including a scalping knife, which had been utilized in the "scalp business" several times. The object of the lecture was to secure funds to assist in supporting an Industrial Home for Indian girls, established at Fort Simpson, by Mrs. Crosby, and the proceeds will prove quite an assistance.

Mr. Addison delivering a very impressive sermon from the text, 1st Samuel, Chap. XX, and the latter clause of the 3rd verse: "There is but a step between me and death."
