The Events of the Year.

The year just closed has been a busy no powerful dynasties have fallen, or mighty empires been overthrown, there have been many important events, some of which promise to greatly mould the history of the present year.

In Canada we had the Dominion Elections, which resulted in the Conservative Government being sustained, and the trade policy of Canada being firmly established on a protective basis. The remarkable boom in the settlement of the North-west, and the marvellous progress made in building the Pacific Railway have sent the country ahead with rapid strides, and made us figure prominently before the whole world. The death roll of eminent men is not very large in Canada this year, but includes several of our most distinguished citizens :- Sir Hugh Allan, H A Nelson, Montreal; Dr Oiver, McKay Wright, Quebec; Senator Hope, Hamilton; E B Wood, Winnipeg; Archbishop Grasset, ex Provost Whittaker, and Father Stafford.

There has been exciting times in the United States. The murder of President Garfield and the trial and execution of Gitteau; the Star route frauds; and democratic victory in the fall Congressional elections, are the chief events which engrossed public attention. The death-roll includes, besides the murdered President; the poet Longfellow. whose beautiful poems will ever keep his name fresh in the memory of his Ralph Waldo Emerson; and the prominent journalists and politicians. Thurlow Weed and Richard H Dana.

In Europe we have had the Itish Ouestion, characterized by the assassination of Lord Cavendish, Secretary for Ireland, and Mr Burke, under Secretary, besides made other murders and deeds Parliamentary contest. of violence. The establishment of the Land Courts, and other legislation by the Gladstone Government seems to be putting things in better shape in Ireland.

The Egyptian war created a good deal of interest throughout the world. at one time it was feared would lead to a general war; but the conflict is over, and England remains virtually master of the country, and the whole situation. The attempted assassination of the Queen, by a lunatic named McLean, last March, is about the only "startling" event in England. The death list includes Archbishop Tait, of Canterbury; Dr Pusey, Anthony Trollope, and Chas. Darwin. Throughout the continent there has not been anything of great and general importance to chronic cept the annexation of Tunis by France; the death of Gamberta, Garibaldi, Gen Kauffman and Gen Skobeleff.

But what will the ensuing year, -- so quictly ushered in, -bring forth? Those Christmas Tree held in the C. M. Church, of us who live to see its close, will have heard of many startling events, before horse was left standing in the Church shed, we again wish each other "A Happy when it is supposed, the cowardly work was New Year."

The "Bystander's" Opinion.

Goldwin Smith, in the Bystander, points out with considerable force, some of the objections to allowing the Mowat Government to control the Licensed Victuallers. He claims that instead of working in the interests of temperance, it is directly opposed to it, as the power and patronage becomes too serviceable to the party to be easily relinquished.

Even if it is true that more Conservatives than Reformers have been granted licenses, it has also been shown that many of these Conservatives have been compelled to do pretty much as their political opponents desired, and in numerous cases, they were forced to remain quiet during a political contest, through tear of being deprived of their living.

But even outside of such instances, the principle of increasing patronage and personal power in every manner possible, which the Mowat Government has so persistently practised, is decidedly wrong, and must result injuriously to the whole country When such shrewd and cautious observers as Goldwin Smith see danger ahead, it is time that the electors gave serious attention to the matter, and refused to continue in power. men who seems to hesitate at hardly anything that they believe will continue their existence in office.

East York. The nomination of Mr John Bain as member of the Ontario Legislature for East York is popularly regarded as a most judicious one. A gentleman of education and ability possessing all those solid qualities of character which are more desirable in a representative than mere glitter Mr Bain is #### [Seward (Neb.) Reporter.] Remarkable Disclosures.

Mr. B. S. Crane, manager and treasurer of the Alvin Joslin Comedy Company struck Cehyenne the other day upon business connected with the appearance of that splendid company in this city at an early day. A re porter called upon Mt Crane at his rooms at the Inter-Ocean and spent a few pleasant minutes in conversation about the coming attraction. Mr Crane assured the writer that the personnel of the companyis all that could be desired, and that the public may look for even better performances this season than last. Noticing that the manager looked a little pale the writer remarked upon the fact, but received the reply that he was in good health

But, continued Mr Crane, 'I did have a pretty serious time of it last summer in New York.

'What was the trouble?' 'I had a very sharp attack of rhoumatism. The disease attacked my left leg and left arm, and for a time I could neither walk upon the one nor raise the other tomy head I suffered horribly. Did you ever have the rheamatism, sir? addressing the reporter. 'If ever you are stricken with it there is one thing which I can recommend as a pretty sure cure, and one which will probably give you quicker relief than anything else you can employ. I refer to the Great German Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. I am aware of the prejudice which many entertain against a tversised medicines. I felt thus about the St Jacobs Oil and thought my affliction was too deeply rooted to be dissipated. But a cert took the crowd in the evening. man will sometimes catch at a hope as it flies. I purchased a bottle of it, when I found nothing else I applied would give relief, and commenced applying it. It proved a most effectual remedy, and the use of three bottles cured me.' 'And you are now quite a devotee of St Jacobs Oil ?'

That is, perhaps, drawing it too strongly I certainly do believe it a fine specific for rhoumatism, and as my belief is based upon personal experience, I don't mind commend ing its use to others.

In the office of the hotel, the reporter and flicient representative in Chevenne of olation of by-law. commission merchants. At midnight a gun was fired, the Methodist Church bell tolled out the old year, and the town bell rang in the new. The and played appropriate airs, followed by a large crowd. The night being intense ly cold Mr P. G. Savage kindly invited the band boys in to thaw out their instruments, and partake of wine and cake. After a pleasant time was spent in singing and selections by the Band, they seren ided the Rieve elect, Mr John Brown, the Councilors, and the ex-Reeve, Mr. Wm. Trench. Mr Brown invited the serenaders in, expressed his thanks for the honor and made a handsome contrison passed around the cake and wine in generous style and thanked the serenaders. Mr Trench also produced refreshments in unlimited qunatities, and a piece of "the silver wedding cake" At each of the above houses, the boys sang a number of songs, choruses, and gave instrumental selections by the whole band. Before leaving they tendered their hearty thanks to each host and hostess for the kind and pleasan reception, wished them many happy New Years, and hoped to have the pleasure of serenading them on the anniversary of their Golden Wedding At the conclusion Mr Powell, leader of the Band, invited the members and other friends present to the Grand Cen tral Hotel where a good spread was provided. The company separated as the grey dawn was breaking, highly delighted with the evening's programme, and hoping to meet again, on the occasion of such pleasant social gatherings in the
