Do It Now.

The Conservatives must recognize that "now's the day, and now's the hour," to turn the Ontario Grits from power. Vigorous and systematic work from the present time up to the evening of the 27th, will give them control of the Province, but it is only by careful and persevering effort that victory can be accomplished.

Confederation must be maintained! Ontario's rights by lawful and constitutional means. No confiscation of private property! No centralization! No encroachment on municipal rights! No politics in administering the license law!

The Streams Bill Concisely Stated.

When this question is understood, the only feelings are of astonishment and indignation that Mr Mowat could have the boldness and duplicity to rob a political opponent, at the order of one of his supporters, and then try to make the people believe that he was only actuated by the wish to benefit the Province of Ontario.

The whole matter can be clearly and concisely explained in a very few words. Mr McLaren, an extensive lumber dealer, bought large timber limits from the Government and other parties, along the Mississippi stream, in the Ottawa lumbering district. In many places this stream was un navigable, for miles, and no log could be floated down it, as there were enormous waterfalls, and in one place the water disappeared altogether.

The Mississippi is one of these streams. Mr McLaren, instead of hauling his logs for miles by land, expended between $150,000 to $200,000 in excavating the bed of the stream, building slides and shoots for the timber to float down, and in other ways Mr McLaren allowed all lumbermen to make use of his improvements, and save the trouble of hauling their logs for miles on land, when he did not need the stream for his own logs.

Any reasonable man, Grit or Conservative, must admit that there was no justice in this; they must admit that Mr Caldwell had no right to act in such a self-h, high-handed manner. But Mr Caldwell persisted in his course, and as Mr McLaren naturally objected to be ruined, he appealed to the Courts for protection. The Court of Chancery issued an injunction ordering Mr Caldwell not to usurp the property of Mr McLaren.

Then the Mowat Government stepped in to assist Mr Caldwell, who was a strong supporter of Mr Mowat, and had a nephew in the Local House. The Government passed the Rivers and Streams Bill to oblige their friend, and get him out of trouble. As a blind to the people a clause was inserted ordering the payment of certain tolls which Mr Caldwell had the privilege of fixing through his friends at Toronto.

Do the people of York think it right that Mr McLaren should be ruined by his great rival in the lumbering business because the Mowat Government had not the moral courage to resist Mr Caldwell's solicitations. It is coming to such a state of things that Mr Mowat has the power to take an opponent's property away and give it to a supporter whenever he pleases. Such tyrannical acts are more suited to the Middle Ages than the nineteenth century.

The Dominion Government refused to sanction such a disgraceful act, and Mr Mowat has passed it again and again, and he fancies the people of Ontario do not understand his motives, and will vote for him and Provincial Rights. Provincial Rights, indeed! If the electors do not turn out this Government next Tuesday it will soon come to pass that no one in the Province will have any rights at all, except some of his friends and supporters.

Able Men.

The Liberal Conservative Candidates for the Local House, at this election, contain amongst their number many of the ablest men in the Province. If Mr. Meredith is returned with a sufficient number of supporters to carry on the Government, he will have no difficulty in forming a Cabinet out of the material now before the country to select from.

Every friend of Ontario should support the party which protests against centralization and encroachment of Municipal Rights; which pledges itself to remove the License Law out of the political arena, and to exercise economy in all branches of the Public Service.

Whatever is to be done, must be accomplished within the next few days. The electors of East and West York have able men in the Conservative Candidates, men who will not prove mere voting machines, but useful, active representatives. Mr. Bain and Major Gray should be returned with good majorities, and from the reports of those who are well acquainted with public feelings in the ridings, we have no doubt that if every man turns out on the 27th, they will be the M. P.'s for the Yorks, for some years to come.

NOTES.

It sounds strange to hear of Gordon Brown suing the Globe, but such is really the case. He claims that he was wrongfully dismissed from his position, and has entered an action against the Company for $5000 damages.

Mr C. C. Robinson is the Conservative nominee in North York. He has just the pluck and dash to go in and win, to the chagrin and astonishment of his opponents. Mr Robinson is persevering, painstaking and clever. If he succeeds in changing the Doctor's majority, to one for himself, as we hope he will, he will certainly deserve no small credit for the undertaking.

The Conservatives of West Toronto have nominated Ald. H. E. Clarke. This is one of the numerous instances throughout the country, where the ablest and most successful business men are on the Conservative side. In Mr Clarke the party has a man who will be an honor in the House, to the city he represents. Mr Morris has again been nominated for East Toronto. He has been a useful and active member of the Opposition and during the recent session made it un-pleasant for the Ministers on many occasions by his keen criticisms of their defects, and the masterly manner in which he pointed out the necessity for a change in the administration of affairs.

Do the electors of West York approve of Mr Mowat surrounding himself by a ring of plumees to control the electors, and secure him a perpetual lease of power? Do they think it right that he should appoint license commissioners, division court clerks, bailiffs, and all the other officials who can be bought by their places to vote for him, and probably bring in one or two friends with them? Do they believe it is an economical Government which has doubled our expenditure in eleven years when our population has not increased in anything like the proportion?

The Liberal says: "In East York, a young and aspiring lawyer of Toronto, is the Conservative candidate who will oppose Mr G. W. Badgerow." About as much reliance can be placed upon the truth of the articles in the organ of the party as can be placed upon a broken reed. Mr Bain is a member of one of the best legal firms in the city of Toronto, of long standing. Vice-Chancellor Ferguson, before he was appointed to the position he now occupies, was head of the firm. We have no desire to contrast the two candidates for the East Riding; we have no wish to enter into personalities. All we have to say is that the temperance cause will gain nothing by the election of Mr Badgerow. On the contrary, Mr Bain is thoroughly abstemious. No man can say aught against him, either socially or otherwise. He is a man of good judgment and deserves the support of the electors of the East Riding of York.

Dr Widdifield, who opposes Mr C. C. Robinson in North York, gives as a reason why his opponent should not be supported, that "he is a son of the Lieutenant Governor, and a descendant of the Robinsons of the Family Compact times." The Doctor shows by this how very little real sense he is possessed of. Canadians can afford to smile at the man who thinks an opponent is not worthy of support because his father has been appointed to the highest office in the Province. The electors pity the man while they may have a feeling of dislike for one who hopes by appealing to feelings and questions of many years ago to injure a political opponent. Most people thought Dr. Widdifield would not stoop to such contemptible conduct; but it appears those who thought so did not know him. He has been in the House for some years, and has never made any mark. Being totally unacquainted with municipal matters, he has degenerated into a mere voter, a supporter of Mr Mowat through thick and thin.

SOME OF PORK.—One day this week Mr T. A. Lewis of Yonge street sold a porker to Mr Chas. Lundy, which weighed 508 lbs., for $40.40. It is said to be about the largest brought on the market this season.

Major Gray at Thornhill.

A meeting was held at Thornhill on Saturday night last, for the purpose of discussing Provincial politics. The hall was crowded to the doors. The meeting was called in the interest of Major Gray but invitations were extended to the Conservative and Reform candidates of East and West York to be present with their friends.

The chair was occupied by Mr F. Smith of Newtonbrook. On the platform were Major Gray, Thos. White, M. P.; N. C. Wallace, M. P.; John Bain, Conservative candidate in East York; James Armstrong, Toronto; G. Badgerow, Jas. Reith, H. P. Crosby, and John Lane. Major Gray was called on to address the meeting.

Major Gray on coming forward was received with prolonged cheering. He said he would not occupy their attention at great length because they had on the platform Mr Thomas White, whom they were all anxious to hear, and who was better able than any other gentleman present to enter into a thorough discussion of the important questions to which their attention was invited. (Cheers.) He desired, however, before sitting down to deny a statement which had been made in that morning's Globe to the effect that he (the speaker) had made an arrangement with Mr Patterson, the Reform candidate, to hold no meetings till after nomination day, and that the present meeting was a violation of that arrangement. No such arrangement had ever been made, and he challenged Mr Patterson or any of his friends to produce proof that what the Globe had alleged was true.

On the contrary, he had written Mr Patterson on the 5th of the month to meet him with the object of making an arrangement respecting the holding of such meetings, but to this day he had received no reply to that letter. The Globe's statement was one of the purest fabrications. If such an arrangement had been made why had Mr Patterson neglected to accept the invitation which had been tendered him to attend the meeting to-night? Why was he not there to substantiate the Globe's statement? He did not come because he knew that what the Globe had stated was untrue. (Cheers.) The speaker continued in a discussion of the license question, and showed by figures that the Government through its policy in this matter had robbed the municipality of York of enough money to erect all the new public buildings which it was necessary to build in the city.

Mr Lundy followed on behalf of the Reform candidate, but could not explain the Globe's falsehood. He continued for 15 or 20 minutes in a rambling and blundering speech regarding the boundary award, the Streams Bill, and other matters. He was frequently greeted with the derisive laughter of the audience, and at last he was obliged to leave the stage.

MASSONIC.—On Monday evening last, Most Worshipful Bro. Fisher, D. D. G. M., visited Richmond Lodge, No. 23, G. R. C. in this village. There was an unusually large gathering of the Brethren, many visitors being present from Patterson Lodge, Thornhill; Vaughan Lodge, Maple; and elsewhere. After the D. D. G. M. had witnessed work performed in the various degrees, he congratulated the Lodge upon the highly satisfactory manner in which the officers performed their duties, in particular paying a high compliment to the Master and Secretary for the way the degrees were conferred and the Lodge books kept. In these two particulars Richmond was ahead of many Lodges in the District, and was excelled by none, not even excepting those in the city of Toronto.

AN OPEN INVITATION.—A grand banquet will be given to Mr E. Jackson of Newmarket, Warden of York County, on Thursday evening, March 1st, by the citizens of Newmarket. The banquet will be given under the auspices of the Fire Brigade and Municipal Council, and an invitation is extended not only to the citizens of Newmarket, but also to any in the surrounding townships and villages, who may feel disposed to be present. Mr Jackson is worthy of the honor it is proposed to confer on him. He has been largely instrumental in building up Newmarket, and the whole northern part of the County is indebted to him in numberless ways. As Warden of the County whose prosperity and progress he has greatly assisted, he holds a position of which no one in the County is more worthy, or which was ever more deservedly won by merit and service.

HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT.—The Concert given in the Masonic Hall, on Friday evening last, in aid of the High School Library and Reading Room, brought out a very large audience. Although the weather was very unpleasant the hall was completely filled. Mr P. Patterson, ex M. P., occupied the chair, and in his opening remarks announced that the heavy rain had prevented several ladies and a number of gentlemen of Toronto, who were expected to be present, and assist in the entertainment, from attending. The programme was excellently rendered, the duets by the Messrs Gordon being particularly fine. The exhibitions of ventriloquism were good, and were warmly applauded. The whole entertainment was interesting and pleasing, many of the songs being highly amusing, and causing uncontrollable laughter. At the conclusion a vote of thanks to the gentlemen who took part in the programme, and gave their services gratuitously for the benefit of the School, was moved by Mr D. T. Fairbank, seconded by Dr W. H. Wilson, and heartily endorsed by the audience. The performers and a number of young ladies and gentlemen were invited to partake of refreshments at Mr McBride's where a few very pleasant hours were enjoyed before the College boys departed for Toronto, singing one of their merry choruses. We congratulate Mr McBride on the successful result of his indefatigable efforts to aid and improve the High School Library and Reading Room.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Outward applications.—Before the discovery of these remedies many cases of sores, ulcers, &c., were pronounced to be hopelessly incurable, because the treatment pursued tended to destroy the strength it was incompetent to preserve, and to exasperate the symptoms it was inadequate to remove. Holloway's Pills exert the most wholesome power over the unhealthy flesh or skin, without debarring the patient from fresh air and exercise, and thus the constitutional vigor is husbanded while the most malignant ulcers, abscesses, and skin diseases are in process of cure. Both Ointment and Pills make the blood richer and purer, instead of permitting it to fall into that poor and watery state so fatal to many laboring under chronic ulcerations.

LOCAL ITEMS.

AROUND AGAIN.—We are pleased to see that Capt. McConnell has recovered from his severe and protracted illness, and is now able to move around again, and take a part in the tussle and turmoil of life in this commercial and aristocratic centre.

A large and jolly crowd of Sabbath School Scholars, of the Presbyterian Church, drove from here to Bond's Lake on Saturday last, and on their return had refreshments in the Lecture Room. They seemed to enjoy themselves.

A PLEASANT SCENE.—The Band Carnival on Saturday night last, was well attended, but the soft weather in the earlier part of the week, no doubt, dissuaded many persons from preparing costumes. Mr G. Gilmour, of the Commercial Hotel, Woodbridge, brought over a load of young ladies and gentlemen, who appeared on the ice in some very pretty and handsome dresses. The music by the Band was good. The following are the names, an character represented, of some of our Woodbridge friends:—Miss A. Crawford, "Gipsy Queen"; Miss L. Crawford, "Queen of Spain"; Miss S. Gilmour, "Indian Princess"; Miss M. McCullum, "Daughter of the Regiment"; Messrs W. Earls, "King Charles 2nd"; J. Harris, "Prince Rupert"; H. McGilvray, "Spanish Cavalier"; R. Stewart, "Sambo."

VEPERS AT THORNHILL.—The musical vespers in the R. C. Church, Thornhill, on Sunday evening last, were well attended. The Church was crowded to the doors. The singing was grand and beautiful, including the best musical talent ever heard in Thornhill. The Choir was composed of the leading members of Toronto Choirs, and Father Murray accompanied on the organ in a masterly style. Father Teofy's lecture was in interesting and profitable, and he commanded the close attention of the large audience from the beginning to the end. There was a large number of people present from Richmond Hill and other adjacent villages. Father Egan deserves credit for providing such a choice musical programme, and securing such an eloquent speaker. He has also reason to be pleased with the success which attended his efforts in purchasing the beautiful organ for the Church.

TESTON. (From our own Correspondent.) Business in this part of the country is booming just now. The elections are just coming on, and the Grits are all down in the mouth about something. The only one thing accountable for it is they feel that all their hard work is going to be for nothing.

ONE OF OUR MOST NOTORIOUS GRITS was heard to say, a few days ago, that it would be no use to vote for a man who would vote down the working-man's rights. They should extend the franchise to mechanics and others, as well as to farmer's sons. He was surprised to think that Mowat did not know better, when he spoke so bitter against working-men in the House, at the late session. He says he knows that John A. could see farther, at half a glance, to work his cards to better advantage than our friend "Oliver" did. The Grit party, in this neighborhood, is completely broken up? It is to be hoped that they will not have to fall back on "A Minister of the Gospel" to resuscitate it, and put it on footing again. Such things have taken place in days gone by. It looks very hard indeed. I think that Mr. Patterson, the Grit Candidate for West York, did a good turn for the Conservative party when he distributed his election letters around to the intelligent farmers in this neighbourhood. They could see his little game at once, and they think it everything but a clever trick to assume that they would at once be trapped by a one-cent yellow letter.

A GIFT MEETING. Some of the "faithful," gathered a few evenings ago, in a ranch not far from here, where a meeting was held to trap the country for Grit votes. After sitting for some time, the silence was broken by Archy, who said that "since the late election last June, when we were so badly beaten, a lot of new names appeared on the voters list, and they should be looked after now. There is that Painter in Teston, who never voted before, but has a vote now. What is the opinion of the meeting about him?" This question was settled by Spruce D., who said he had often seen him, when he was obliged to take his little hand-saw, up in that direction to set it repaired, and he thought him a slippery customer. Who is the next, Archy?

There is to be a big torch light procession in Teston, on Tuesday evening, 27th inst, in honor of Major Gray's large majority.—301 Yours, &c., SHORTY. Teston, Feb. 20th, 1883.

MAPLE.

TEMPERANCE. An entertainment, under the auspices of No. 23, was held at Teston, on Tuesday evening, 27th inst. The programme was good, especially a reading by Mr Scott, entitled "Drunk in the Street." The entertainment was a very edifying one, and will, no doubt, greatly assist the cause of temperance around Teston.

MENHODIST S. S.—The young folks of this Sabbath School had a sleigh-ride a few miles down Yonge street on Wednesday afternoon last. They made quite a large and merry party, numbering several loads. Refreshments were served in the vestry on their return.

Mr T. Williamson, of Almira, is a candidate for the Reeve of Markham owing to the resignation of Mr Eakin. He is opposed by Mr Crosby of Unionville. Mr Williamson knows more about municipal affairs than Mr Crosby can learn in several years, and he has no superior throughout the township in experience and judgment in municipal matters. The ratepayers are well aware of this, and will consult their own interest by electing such an able man.

PRESBYTERIAN S. S. CONCERT.—The anniversary of this Sabbath School, held on Thursday evening last, was fairly attended. An excellent tea was partaken of, after which addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs Dick and Addison. Mrs McBride and Miss Flora Coulter, varied the programme in the most pleasant and agreeable manner, by singing beautiful songs during the evening. Rev Mr Parsons was prevented by illness from being present, as was announced.

A correspondent from Headford wants to know what is the difference between a political candidate making a donation to a Church, or presenting the minister's wife with a cake for which he gave $7. Mr. Badgerow was sorry the law would not allow him to make a handsome donation to the Headford Church fund, so he invested the whole of $7 in a cake! George Washington is not so slow.

OPENING ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary services in connection with the opening of the C. M. Church, were held on Sunday and Monday last. On Sunday, Mr J. McDonald, of Toronto, occupied the pulpit in the morning, and Rev Dr Dewar, Toronto, in the evening. Both services were well attended, and the sermons interesting. Special selections were pleasingly rendered by the Choir. On Monday evening tea was served in the vestry, after which addresses were delivered by Revs. Messrs Howell and Pickering. The Trustees read their report, showing the finances to be in a very satisfactory condition. Proceeds for the whole services and entertainment amounted to about $100.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WEST YORK

Your Vote and Influence are respectfully requested for

John Gray

As your Representative in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

TO THE ELECTORS

EAST YORK.

Having been honored with the nomination to contest your Riding as the Liberal-Conservative candidate at the approaching Election for the Provincial Legislature, I venture to ask your support and your influence on my behalf.

In doing so let me say shortly, that I am adverse to any policy injurious to the prosperity and welfare of the Province, and in my opinion, any action that is calculated to arouse and maintain hostile feelings between the Dominion and the Province cannot but be injurious to the best interests of both; that prosperity for the Dominion and therefore for the Province can best be attained by harmonious action on the part of the two Governments.

I deprecate the action of the Provincial Government in thrice carrying through the Legislature the Streams Bill, solely for the purpose of creating and keeping alive ill feeling between the Dominion and the Province. I am adverse to the policy of the Government in passing unnecessary retrospective legislation, and especially when the rights and property of the people are taken from them without fair compensation.

I am desirous of seeing the Boundary Award question settled at the earliest possible period, and this cannot be done if the Government is permitted to pursue its present policy. I am in favor of Ontario obtaining all the territory awarded and any more to which she is entitled.

I desire that the Liquor Laws be made more effective by taking the authority to grant Licenses from a partisan License Board and placing it in the hands of a non-political one.

I desire to see a more economical administration of the Provincial finances.

I wish to see the powers of the Municipal Councils maintained unimpaired.

I am in favor of a liberal extension of the franchise, for I cannot see the justification of giving the right to vote to the sons of a particular class in the community and withholding it from the sons of other equally intelligent classes.

Above all I desire to see the Government of the Province carried on for the people, and not in the selfish interest of any Government party or clique.

If successful in becoming your representative, my endeavor will be to serve the interests of my constituents whether Conservatives or Reformers, and in the Legislature to support good measures, irrespective of the party introducing them into the House.

Soliciting your vote and influence,

I am, Yours Respectfully,

JOHN BAIN.
