We have taken the trouble to obtain the figures upon which the advocates for the removal of the scholars attending the High School to the Masonic Hall, as a building more suitable for the purpose of accommodating the scholars and also for appointing a third teacher to the High School. We would recommend our readers, who may be interested in this matter, to cut it out for future

It will be recollected that it was stated that an increase of teachers would so govern the Government grant that it would prove to be positively cheaper. It would almost seem (however strange it may appear,) that such is the fact Nevertheless we believe some other arrangement could have been made besides saking away from the villagers the use of their public hall. If they use it now it is done at great inconvenience and trouble to everyone concerned, which could and would have been avoided if their action, as an addition could have been made to the High School building. which would have served all purposes and been equally as cheap as under the present arrangement.

The Toronto World goes in for Canadian National Money, and gives the following case in point in support of its taking this stand :- "A poor woman who had a family to support found that all the money she had was a ten dollar bill riality creeps up, and it usually ends in a company back. She started out general break-down of the choir. A case to buy something, but had the bill re fused in several cases and a big shave wanted in others. She has held on to the bill yet, hoping that it will become good- she cannot afford to lose one tenth of it-though she has had to forego the necessaries she desired."

Although we are altogether in favor of a national currency, we are not so is now on the tapis. but what the World's poor might not have had palmed off on her some bill of a defunct bank instead of a national currency bill, There is no doubt in our mind as to the superiority of the American system to ours, and we trust to see before long the same mode adopted with us. Why should the bank bills of one province be refused or at all events shaved in another, when at the same time the American national notes be taken at par all over the Dominion.

We notice some of our exchanges coming out forcibly in favor of doing away with the system-too much in vogue now-of convassing at elections. The ballot is supposed to be secret. It was adopted for the purpose, more especially of securing to the workingman the privilege of casting his vote in accord with his views, without being hindered from so doing by those who might try to influence him in the manner of his vote. So long as canvassing is allowed in connection with the ballot, so long will inconsistency and bribery follow. Have taking nauseous medicines for weeks, but as many public meetings as may be thought necessary; address your constituents through the press, if you think proper, but prohibit canvassing, make voting compulsory, and by so doing a step in the right direction will be reach We trust to see the law altered in this respect and that too, before very long. - So mote it be.

THE MURDERER'S DOOM-LUTHERAN CELE-BRATION - DISCORDANT VOCALISTS

(From our own Correspondent.)

The principal topic of conversation on the streets of the city the last day or two has been the story of ANDREWS MURDERING MARONEY, and the exceedingly light sentence passed $42 and $32 62 by the Judge on the murderer Satarday The petition of morning. Not only have the pros and cons of the subject been thoroughly ventilated and resterated time and again in the street, copy of the Toronto Telegram of 31st Oct. but I venture to assert in every warehouse, and in the World of the 1st Nov., to workshop, and other places of employment, the all-absorbing question has been, "and Liberal office had been caused through at-what's your opinion of Andrews' sentence?" tempts to set fire to the said building by Receipts and Expenses of the That there are two sides to every question, and that this, too, has much to be said for and against, is well known to every intelligent person. There is no denying the fact that Andrews murdered Maroney, but it is claimed that if the latter had never insulted him no murder would have been committed. It is also alleged that Andrews was partial y under the influence of liquor at the time n id at all, for he expressed his sorrow for him sentence. Andrews has, however, to serve five years in the penitentiary at Kingston, time he will be a wiser and a better man.

THE LUTHERAN CELEBRATION On the 12th inst., promises to be a grand affair The united Protestant denominations of the city will take part,-the choirs in singing, the pastors in speaking, and the congregations by attending. It is estimated that in the neighborhood of a thousand voices will comprise the choir, and undoubtedly the sweet strains of music will be superior to anything of the kind-in the shape of church choirs-ever heard in the city. Special appeals for

It is to be hoped this kind of people may be brought to understand that only help is given to those who help themselves.

> A KING STREET MERCHANT Was badly duped the other evening by a gang of confidence men. He was coaxed by some means to join the gamblers in a game of euchre at a well-known saluon, and before he left was the loser of $500. After a few hours' sleep with a light head he informed a detective of his loss, who is now trying to find the gamblers.
