ADVERTISING STRAY ANIMALS.—The law requires that every person who takes in stray animals must notify the township Clerk of his municipality of the fact, in addition to advertising. The Clerk is required to keep a list of all such animals. Persons failing to comply with the provision of the law lay themselves subject to a heavy penalty, and besides cannot collect expenses for keeping, etc. These advertisements generally cost one dollar, and the amount can be collected by the advertiser from the owner, or remains a charge on the animal. Strayed animals should be advertised at once, and by so doing the owners would be saved time and trouble of far more consequence than the dollar required for the advertisement.

ENTERPRISING.—Mr R. Marsh, of Lorraine farm, is this week sending to the World's Fair at New Orleans, twenty of his best Southdown, Cotswold and Leicester Sheep, making altogether a car-load of forty. They will be under the care of two of his boys, Frank and his brother, and it is needless to say that we wish success to his efforts. Such enterprise deserves success, and we trust he may get it, in not only getting prizes but also in being able to dispose of the sheep at good figures and for spot cash. Lorraine Farm is well known to many persons in the neighboring Union, Mr Marsh having from time to time sold many of his pure stock to parties living in different parts of the States. Frank will have to keep his eyes open and not allow the Americans to get the better of him.

Well Spoken Of.

R. N. Wheeler, of Everton, speaks highly of Haysard's Pectoral Balsam. It cured him of inflammation of the lungs and an obstinate cough. It loosens the phlegm and heals the lungs.

Too Short a Notice.

To the Editor of the Herald.

Sir,—A Ratepayer informed me the other day that he knew nothing of the School Trustee Election until it was all over. He complained strongly of the meagre notice given, although it might have been sufficiently legal. It only shows that it is about time the Legislature took in hand the necessity of changing the law whereby the elections could be all held and the nominations on the same day as the Municipal. This, sir, in my opinion, is a reform that should have been had long before this. The ballot also should be introduced into School Trustee Elections as well, and whilst they are about it, introduce a measure giving us compulsory voting and also prohibit canvassing. Having done this, a halt might be called for. It is a farce long allowed to be kept up, that is, canvassing votes under the ballot. In fact, it is almost an insult to ask a man for his vote, seeing that the ballot was introduced for the purpose of giving secret voting. The ballot unless coupled with a strong measure of some sort prohibiting canvassing, only opens the door for falsehood and deception, and in a sense, I cannot blame parties for deceiving those who may solicit them for their votes. I look on it as a great piece of presumption in a man asking another for his vote under the ballot, but seeing that the law allows it and all do it, you can hardly blame a candidate for doing so. I have no doubt in my own mind that if there had been no canvassing at either our recent Municipal and School Trustee Elections, we would have had a different result at both elections. Trusting, sir, that I have not trespassed too much on your space.

I remain, etc.,

A RATEPAYER.

Richmond Hill, Jan. 13, 1885.

TESTON.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The members of the Methodist Church here intend holding their annual Anniversary on Monday, 19th inst., by having a grand Oyster Supper and Entertainment. Anniversary sermons will be preached on Sabbath, 18th inst., at 10.30 a.m. and 6.30 p.m. It is a known fact that parties in connection with this Church have always taken the "bun" from anything in this neighborhood. The Committee are doing all in their power to make this affair a most interesting event.

A great deal of sickness is in this vicinity at present, and among others Mr Wm Taggart has been laid up for a few days. The complaints all seem to be heavy colds.

Business in general seems to be dull on account of having no snow.

Yours, &c.,

TED.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Go where you may, in every country and in all climates persons will be found who have a ready word of praise for this Ointment. For chaps, chafes, scalds, bruises, and sprains, it is an invaluable remedy; for bad legs caused by accident or cold it may be confidently relied upon for effecting a sound and permanent cure. In cases of puffed ankles, erysipelas, and rheumatism, Holloway's Ointment gives the greatest comfort by reducing the inflammation, cooling the blood, soothing the nerves, adjusting the circulation, and expelling the impurities. This Ointment should have a place in every household as a remedy for all these manifold skin affections, which, originating in childhood, gain strength with the child's growth.

A Settled Fact.

It is a significant fact that Haysard's Yellow Oil is the best household remedy for internal and external use in case of pain, soreness, lameness and inflammatory complaints.
