

POOR AYLESFORD.

The Telegraph Earl who Won Simplicity Among the Cowboys of Texas.

A Colorado, Texas, despatch says: The Earl of Aylesford was liked and pined here at this centre of the outlaws. He was generally admired for his splendid physique, appearance, and his usual respect of him as the finest animal in Texas.

ANOTHER WAR BROKEN OUT.

Columbia in the Three of Revolution--A Battle Fought.

A Panama despatch says: An alarming condition of affairs prevails throughout the Republic. A general conflict is imminent.

A PECULIAR PENALTY.

The Tar and Feather Temperance Society.

On the night of December 31st, 1883, three young men sat around a tavern fire in Georgetown, a little village about ten miles from Norwich, Conn.

A SEND OFF.

Salvation Army Officers "Farewelled" at a Mass Meeting in London.

Last (Wednesday) night's London cable says: Euter Hall presented a scene of extraordinary religious enthusiasm.

RELIQUENT AUREAKEN.

Blithe Blithe and Her Landing Lady Have a Lively Squabble.

A despatch from Denver says: Helen Blithe is star in a dramatic company playing here. Donna Modica, ex-wife of W. B. Daniels, of Denver, is her leading lady.

THE RICHMOND HILL THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1885.

VOL. XXVII.

RICHMOND HILL THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1885.

WHOLE NO 1,385 NO. 34.

THE NILE EXPEDITION.

The Precarious Position of the British Forces--Desperate Fighting Expected--Discipline Expected to Overcome Superior Force.

A Cairo cable says: If General Wolsley is to succeed in carrying out his purpose of being in Khartoum on the 24th inst. news of heavy fighting may be expected at any moment.

A CAGED EDITOR.

Mr. Edmund Yates Enjoying the Sweetest of Prison Life--Four Months for Libel--His Jail Reception.

The celebrated Yates libel suit ended today by the appeal being dismissed and the sentence of the World surrendering himself to the officers of the law.

MARY BAGWELL'S FATE.

A Dark Mystery Solved After Seventeen Years.

One of the unsolved mysteries of Carroll county, writes a Villa Rica, Ga., correspondent to the St. Louis Globe Democrat, is the disappearance of Miss Mary Bagwell, over twenty years ago.

FARM AND GARDEN.

Reasonable Topics that Can be Studied with Profit at the Fireside.

More Eggs in Winter. This is the very time when eggs are worn the most, when hens want to lay as much or more than they do at any other time.

HOW TO PRUNE.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes: "Prune for a low and stout growth of tree. Fruit trees should be pruned downward more than upward."

Hard work pays large dividends on the farm. It is cruelly to clip horses used in slow work. Horse-radish demands a deep, mellow and rich soil, made fine by thorough and perfect tillage.

DRABDIL EXPERIENCE.

A Tale of Death and Suffering in the Northern Seas.

Some time since John Lowry, a well-to-do farmer of Centreville, Alabama county, went north to Alaska to investigate some mines in which he had acquired an interest.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Dr. Chavest, who is attending him, was asked for some details of the queer case.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

HOW TO PRUNE.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes: "Prune for a low and stout growth of tree. Fruit trees should be pruned downward more than upward."

Hard work pays large dividends on the farm. It is cruelly to clip horses used in slow work. Horse-radish demands a deep, mellow and rich soil, made fine by thorough and perfect tillage.

HOW TO PRUNE.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes: "Prune for a low and stout growth of tree. Fruit trees should be pruned downward more than upward."

Hard work pays large dividends on the farm. It is cruelly to clip horses used in slow work. Horse-radish demands a deep, mellow and rich soil, made fine by thorough and perfect tillage.

HOW TO PRUNE.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes: "Prune for a low and stout growth of tree. Fruit trees should be pruned downward more than upward."

Hard work pays large dividends on the farm. It is cruelly to clip horses used in slow work. Horse-radish demands a deep, mellow and rich soil, made fine by thorough and perfect tillage.

PHILOSOPHY ON THE BRIDGE.

The wind blew strongly across the bridge. The black derby of a large, burly, red-faced man suddenly cleared the iron one and fell upon the railroad track.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Dr. Chavest, who is attending him, was asked for some details of the queer case.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Dr. Chavest, who is attending him, was asked for some details of the queer case.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Dr. Chavest, who is attending him, was asked for some details of the queer case.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Dr. Chavest, who is attending him, was asked for some details of the queer case.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

NO MOURNING AND NO EXTRAVAGANCE.

A Good Man's Sensible View of His Own Death and Funeral.

The following is a copy of a letter that was written by one of the best of men ten years ago and ordered not to be opened until after his death. It was read yesterday at his funeral by the Rev. T. B. Forbush.

THE NUMBER YEARS OLD.

An Astonishing Story that Leads Some to Suspect That Adam and Eve May Be Alive Still.

Dr. Levi E. George was interviewed the other day concerning the Moqui Indians of Arizona, whom he recently visited. Said he: "I will describe the particular tribe of the Moquis in which I discovered the most remarkable case of longevity. They are called the Wokoyas and consist of about 150 people, males and females. Of these there are only about seventy children, about sixty middle aged persons, and the rest include at least fifteen centenarians. They do not intermarry with the roving bands of savages, preferring to live in their little village in the valley of the Chanaks River, one of the hundreds of small streams tributary to the Colorado. They dwell in stone houses or huts, engage in agricultural pursuits to a limited extent and enjoy many of the comforts of civilization. They are, nevertheless, very secluded in their little pueblo-bowl of a valley.

THE HEART ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

Strange Information Discovered in a Youth 18 Years Old.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Dr. Chavest, who is attending him, was asked for some details of the queer case.

A remarkable case of physical malformation, that must prove very interesting to physicians and the public, is attracting attention in the town of Lake, near Chicago.

Handwritten note in the top right corner.