Not Satisfied.

The St. Catharines News, a Reform Journal, is not satisfied with the leadership of the Reform party. There is a strong impression in this Province, says the News, and indeed throughout the country, that the position of the Reform party is wanting in originality, independence and force. Mr. Blake is good at criticizing, but there is something more than criticism required. A platform is wanted. If objections are made to the policy of the Government, it is reasonable to suppose that those objections should give rise to suggestions wherein the objectionable features of the policy of the Government can be bettered.

OBITUARY.

We are called upon this week to chronicle the death of Mr. Abraham Law, J. P., one of our village forefathers. Mr. Law was born in Pennsylvania near Philadelphia, Oct 13th, 1806. At the age of 18 he moved with his parents to Canada, and settled near Stouffville. He came to Richmond Hill, a small hamlet of a dozen and a half houses, about the year 1826, where he soon after purchased the property whereon he has resided to the time of his death. He has (until five years ago) always been a very active business man, and for a number of years was engaged in business as a general merchant. During the troubles of 1837, he took an active part in assisting to restore quietness by joining the loyal party, and opposing rebellion, although always a consistent Reformer. He became a member of the Methodist Church early in life and in uniting with the Church here became one of the first members. The Church then being in its infancy and numbering only about 15 members, all of whom are gone but one or two. Later in life he received the appointment of J. P., which position he filled with considerable ability for a number of years, and till death. In 1873, he was elected to the honorable position of Chief Magistrate or Reeve of our village upon its formation into a separate Municipality. In the fall of 1879, through cold and over exertion, his heretofore rugged constitution began to give way, and in the spring of 1880, he was seized with a severe illness of which he never fully recovered and was altogether incapacitated from engaging in active business, since which time he has been gradually going down to the grave. He died as though going to sleep without the least struggle. He had a family of thirteen, nine of which are still living, four sons and five daughters, but only two reside in this village. The funeral took place on Tuesday last, and was largely attended.

Cameron and others for the use of the Town Hall for the purpose of holding a tea-party therein [by the members of the Presbyterian Church] be granted on condition that they make good all damages that may be caused thereby.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Elliott, seconded by Mr. Malloy, that the caretaker be instructed to get the door of the store in the Town Hall repaired, and also the opening under the door put in proper repair before the next meeting of the Council.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Elliott, seconded by Mr. Malloy, that this Council grant permission to the ratepayers of Vellore to erect a weigh scale on the side of the public road on condition that it does not interfere with the public travel, and that Mr. A. Cameron be appointed to attend to the proper placing of the same.—Carried.

By-Law No. 478, regulating the salaries of Councilors for the present year.

The Council then adjourned until Friday, 13th inst., to meet at 11 a.m. in the Clerk's Office for the purpose of taking up certain road By-Laws.

SPECIAL MEETING.
A special meeting was held in the Clerk's Office, Richmond Hill, on Friday, 13th inst., at 11 a.m. The Reeve in the chair. All the members present.

Moved by Mr. Malloy, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that the Treasurer be and is hereby authorized to pay J. P. McMahon the sum of $4 for foot-paw paper, $2 for printing 100 bills, $75 for nomination bills, in all $81.—Carried.

Therefore the Council of Vaughan requests that he will take immediate means whereby said amount will be refunded to the township, and the Clerk is hereby instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to Mr. Forthright.—Carried.

The following By-Laws were then passed:—

Woodbridge Jottings.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

On Tuesday evening last a surprise party from Woodbridge and the 6, 7, 8, 9 Con. Vaughan went to Mr. R. Taylor's to spend the evening. On arriving there the proprietor and proprietores made them welcome, and the largest room in the house was soon cleared for any wishing to trip the light fantastic toe.

This being a success, they concluded to surprise Mr. Samuel McClure on Thursday evening, when they found they were all made welcome. The music was furnished by the party, and a very agreeable time was spent.

Births.—In our village this last week the wife of Peter D. McLean, M. D., also the wife of John McCulloch, both daughters, all are doing well.

Our M. P. paid us a visit on Saturday evening, and left on Monday morning.

Henry Abell is away attending to business in the North-West Territories. Gilbert Gilmore left on Tuesday morning to attend the Grand Orange Lodge at Wingham.

Wallace Bros have engaged their old miller, Henry Holland. Give him a call.

A week ago the man that Kyle & Co have superintending their business in the store of Fyfe & Co., said to himself, I have been confined close here for a week, I will take a drive, and getting a horse and rig started. On being informed there were tolls on the road, that would have to be paid, he said, he would see about that he knew the law, and would not pay them, driving through at a rapid rate not heeding what the keeper said. A day or two afterwards a County Constable from Weston, came to our village with a document and a red seal attached to it inquiring for this gentleman, and on finding him the Constable made him a present of this paper with the red seal attached, requesting him to attend at Weston at the very hour named on this document. The Superintendent of this firm getting advice from several parties, advised him to settle the matter, and he came to the conclusion he would, and went to Weston and paid over the sum of nearly $5.00, saying that the laws were different here than in Hingham. When he has been around Woodbridge as long as I have, he will find out the laws.

The Congregational Sunday School of Pine Grove and Pine Ridge passed through here on Tuesday on their annual sleigh ride, and made a splendid turnout.

The Salvation army still continues here. Before long we will have some blood-washed soldiers.

Our Miss Elliott is visiting friends at Hamilton.

Woodbridge, Feb. 17th, 1884.

LASKAY.

(From our own Correspondent)

I must crave your leniency in the matter of correspondence. It was not my desire to interfere in this line at all never again, but I have both seen and heard of the wisecracks of that unfortunate Peter Pad. Inconceivable and unconceivable he is a hydro-vented monster. He has vexed the souls of families and made wretched the eyes of hearts that should know no sorrow.

In one sense I felt sorry for him for he is subject to strange influences, there is an older head than his whose bright light sends its piercing rays over what otherwise might be a peaceful village. I have been informed that for some time past he has had considerable business to the town, also I notice, that there is to be a new book out shortly which is now in the press, and that as soon as the world has it, the pleasure of perusing its instructive pages there will be a wonderful change in all things orthodox. Peter is young and rash, he tempts us in our day and generation; but this man of light he wants to interfere in our future welfare, he is more to be pitied than the Pad. I am fearful of his misguidance. But he is naturally perverse and somewhat high minded, and perhaps not satisfied with the notice he gets from ordinary matters, he must needs try to away with the teachings of ages that are as the hills immovable unto all time. It grieves my heart to think that people should be so self-willed and opinionated even to their own destruction. I think we do not sufficiently consider these things, and I charge Peter Pad to be careful of his associations or he may some day wish he had taken my advice. Peter laughs and thinks it all right, but he would not be a willing ear to my counsel, I think to his peril, as well as pleasure. The one thing that makes my heart sad in these days of books, papers and general information that should be instructive to all, that there are persons in our very midst, who are by nature misguided than the masses, from whom the people should learn that which is to their benefit, instead we are face to face in our every day life with a species of consummate indifference to things that should be interesting to everyone.

The man of the swivel he has gone a little astray. It seems he professed, so I am told, his lefty yomom's hand to a young lady sometime in the recent past, but the heart of the fair one would have none of Billy's overtures, and I understand poor Billy's heart fell considerably, his stock of hope went down below par. Nevertheless, his nightiness wills, and the brawny hand of toil was proffered yet once more. Still she preferred not to the coveted yes in answer to earnest pleading, Billy was still of the same opinion. How exactly it came about I do not know nor could I be certain in the matter. That ice-bud at Springfield—the ice was cold and in the evening the supper was hot, Billy was late, he overtook a young lady, possibly the loved one, perhaps he was none too sure of her identity, however, he felt that he had a foot-lace down the 4th as far as opposite the station, should he say she must consent, if he felt never the swiftest in the race he should never mention matrimony to her again never, under penalty of a heavy fine. A fair start, so with an eye-witness, away went the damsel Billy's wind gave out he was losing, this was desperate. Billy put on a heavy spurt. No use, he fell, his mighty proffering, fell althwart the fair one's track, a collision, a fractured leg. Ah Billy, poor Billy, I am told he has been sick, and the maiden is more averse to him than ever.

FORGOT TO YIELD.—A good many subscribers to Picturesque Canada, after taking several numbers repented and refused to accept the remainder. A person thus refusing at Port Hope, has been sued by the Company, and the decision of Judge Benson is to the effect that the defendant must pay for the remaining numbers. The books had been delivered according to the order signed by the subscriber, as against which any other arrangement made by an agent and not embodied in the order, was not binding on the Company. Any person contemplating resistance of payment will find by the above judgment what are his chances of success.

Piper, Managing Committee. With the above officers our Lacrosse Club will, no doubt, be run on a solid basis, and even eclipse the many victories of former years. We wish it success for the season of 1885.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Diseases of Advanced Years.—The grand climacteric being passed, mankind passes to old age. Then the digestion becomes impaired, the nervous system grows feeble, and the physical powers become enervated. Now arise congestion of the liver, lungs, or head, followed by dropsy, asthma, or apoplexy, which frequently afflict and often destroy the aged. As the liver usually becomes torpid, its activity may speedily be revived by rubbing Holloway's Ointment thoroughly over the pit of the stomach and right side, at least twice a day, and taking the Pills at the same time. This treatment also dispels all other congestions by varying the parts rubbed according to the situations of the mischief.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

CATARRH—A NEW TREATMENT.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the patient medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting with the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissue, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination—this accomplished, he claims the Catarrh is practically cured, and a permanent cure is unquestioned, as cases effected in less than four years ago are cured still. No one else has ever attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple, and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favorable for a speedy and permanent cure. The majority of cases being cured at one treatment. Sufferers should at once correspond with Messrs. H. DIXON & SON, 3 & 5 King Street, west, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.—Montreal Star.
