Farmers' Bank.

In another column is copy of a discussion that has taken place in the House upon the farmers of the country having more banking facilities. The subject was introduced by Dr.orton and supported by Mr. Hesson, who took the ground that the whole bank circulation of the country should be wiped out and substituted by a Dominion circulation, in other words, all notes circulated by banks should have the resources of the country as security that they would be paid. This is done already to a pretty large extent, and whether it would be judicious to have altogether a National Currency is a question that has been argued for and against by financial minds; time and again. We are surprised to see Mr. McMullen, a member of the Opposition in the Dominion Parliament, advocating the reduction of the rates of interest paid by the Post Office Savings Bank. This Bank is established to serve the poor man and others who have small savings to invest, and to reduce the interest from 4 per cent. to 3 per cent. for the purpose of driving them to the chartered banks is not what we would have expected from one of the friends of the people, such as Mr. McMullen claims to be. We believe the Government Savings Banks are the most secure for parties desirous of depositing their savings in, and we also think that it would be injudicious and injurious to reduce the rate of interest as desired by Mr. McMullen. Sir John Macdonald did not favor the views of the Member for the North Wellington, and gave him a reprimand such as he deserved.

Conservative Meeting.

The annual meeting of the East Riding of Yorkshire Conservative Association was held in the Franklin House, Market, on Wednesday, 18th inst. Mr. John Gibson, President, in the name of the Association, read a paper on the subject of the election of office a topic of the evening year with the following result:—President, John Gibson, re-elected. Vice-President, John Williamson, re-elected. It was here disclosed that a GLOBE reporter was in the room.

Mr. Gladstone's Government.

has been sustained by the scant majority of fourteen, in a house of five hundred and ninety members. For a Government that had at the commencement a majority of one hundred and fifty-nine votes must be considered as a defeat. The Daily News says, "The Government is inclined to regard it as a defeat. At the last general election, 242 Opposition as against 398 Liberal including Home Rulers were returned. The Globe of Monday says:—"We do not then, we repeat, believe that the Gladstone Ministry will resign because of the late vote on the Government's Egyptian policy. But if it should the crisis will only in that way be precipitated with results not encouraging to jingo cant and Tory reaction. The Liberal ranks will only then close up the faster and the firmer." The Mail is of the opinion "that it is a good thing for the Conservatives that they will not be called upon to form a new ministry." As Sir Stafford Northcote has committed them to a policy in Egypt involving more than it would be pleasant to undertake, and as Parliament will be dissolved before many months it is just as well to let Mr. Gladstone's Egyptian Policy have full sweep, and let him enjoy either the good or ill that may proceed from it.

Mr. F. M. Morson for Mr. Wilson.

Moved to set aside the election of Mr. Henry Dougan as Reeve of the Township of York. The County Judge is to take evidence in the matter.

The Local Election in Winnipeg.

on Tuesday, resulted in the return of Mr. Hamilton by a majority of 75. His opponent was Mr. Luxon, Editor of the Free Press. The gain gives Mr. Norquay 21 seats out of 30.

Presbyterian Conference.

A highly interesting meeting was held on Monday last, in the Presbyterian Church in this village, on Sabbath Schools, state of Religion and Temperance. The meeting was opened at 2.30 p.m. with devotional exercises. Rev. R. D. Fraser, M. A., read the report on Sabbath Schools. The report was not as full as was wished, owing to some of the schools not reporting. A very interesting address was delivered by the Rev. G. M. Milligan, of Toronto, on "The Spirit and Aim of Sabbath-School Work." A discussion on which was followed by several present.

The Rev. R. P. MacKay, M. A., of Parkdale, read a very interesting paper on "State of Religion" in which reference was made to the Salvation Army as being more pernicious than beneficial to the spread of religion. Mr. MacKay is a very fluent speaker. The afternoon meeting was brought to a close at 5.30 o'clock.

The evening session was opened at 7.15 by prayer. An address was delivered by the Rev. D. I. Macdonnell, B. D., the subject being "deligion in the Home." The Rev. gentleman handled the subject from different standpoints with an ability and force that delighted and pleased his hearers. A discussion followed which brought out several speakers in an interesting way.

The next subject taken up was on "Temperance" delivered by the Rev. John Smith, of Toronto, in an able and instructive address which was delivered with much force and power. When we mention that that gentleman has been one of the means whereby the Feet Act has been carried in so many of the counties of Ontario during the last 12 months, our readers will understand that any remarks we may make regarding his address will convey a poor idea of the same. Carleton, we think, is the latest and last place in which he took an active part contributing to the quota of the very large majority by which the Act was carried in that place. A discussion upon the subject after the delivery of the address called forth the Rev. Mr. Macdonnell, which, if we understood him aright, left the impression upon our mind that he was not in favor of Prohibition but advocated Temperance pure and simple, quoting some parts of Scripture to favor his views.

The meeting was brought to a close about 10 p.m. with prayer by the Rev. Jas. Dick. The choir added considerably to the interest of the occasion both afternoon and evening by the singing of some beautiful hymns accompanied by the sweet tones of the organ, brought forth by the talented Miss Flora Coulter who presided.

"Davy Crockett."

To the Editor of the Herald.

SIR,—I take the liberty of writing a few lines to you respecting an item which appeared in your newspaper of Feb. 26th signed "Davy Crockett," the writer of which is a fool, and what is worse a liar. Therefore I have to appeal to you as a gentleman, as your position indicates to me, for a remedy in the future. I think it a very hard thing that respectable people cannot be left alone, but must be abused and slandered in a public paper without any cause. If you would quietly read over such correspondence, I do not think you would allow them to be presented to the public as heretofore.

Yours Respect,
A FRIEND TO TRUTH.

Cranberry Marshville, March 3rd, 1885.

(We have to apologize to the party who feels so aggrieved over the letter of "Davy Crockett," and trust that no cause will be given in the future for complaints.—ED.)

A Collapse Imminent.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb 27th.—It is expected by many that the Exposition will collapse in a few days.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

STAFFORD, March 2nd.—Last evening, while the family of Mr Wm. McBride, Head Master of the Collegiate Institute, was at Church, Mrs Cumming mother of Mrs McBride, who had been left in charge of the house, accidentally fell into an open cistern in the back shed and was drowned.

Mr McBride above mentioned was, with his wife, sometime a resident in this village, and the many friends of Mrs McBride will no doubt greatly sympathize with her in the sad loss sustained in the death of her mother in so sudden and melancholy a manner.

LASKAY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Last week having said that my intentions were to leave here and my last letter would appear at this date, it would do for me to keep your readers any longer in suspense, and as I have done in the past that what I intended to do, I do not mean to break a promise on this occasion, although some of my friends may have no respect for my future welfare. I admit, I may have inserted too large a dose for me, but I defy any or all of the subjects that I approached which did not have a solid foundation for an attack. It was not my intention when writing you first to continue, but as some of our most promising young men were getting "giddy headed" about something that they or myself know nothing about, I thought a change would not be amiss, hence my writings commenced. Your spite, Barney McKay, of two weeks ago (by the tone of his letter) may have been one of the "giddy headed chickens." It is likely that his brain got turned up side down, if not he would never have thought of styling his soon departed chum an "hydra-headed monster." Not long ago Barney undertook to get up a piece of poetry for the press, and after spending three days and the same number of nights, he finished. It was late in the night when he did so and the quantity of foolscap paper (four sheets written on both sides) he did not attempt to read it over until the next morning, and then such a circus. He gathered together his family for an audience, and commenced the difficult task by reading and letting them know what a great man they had for a "pop" Poor fellow, he put his foot into it badly, for when he had finished, after two hours steady reading and explaining it to them, not even a smile greeted him. He cast it aside and said it was not worth the paper it was written on. The next day he started out with his horse and cart, and short distance from here, Barney traded the poetry for a bag of rags. I suppose Barney's next idea (if any) will be of a more serious character, possibly my funeral sermon. Barney adieu.

A funeral commotion was caused in this place a few weeks ago, since my last items appeared. "Dude" No 2 played the most prominent part in the affair, but with the help of his brother "Dude" and "Omaha" he escaped the punishment of the offence.

A wedding took place here not long ago, so no one or two of our young sardines look eyed ever since.

A bachelor living near King Creek went to a party on the 5th Con on a few nights ago, and when returning home he went to sleep, and could not realize the position he was in when he awoke to find himself cutter and all upon a snowbank. He thinks some one played a trick on him. The only harm done was a broken shaft.

A big farewell is being prepared for me at the "Bayou House" next Saturday night. The invitations will not be limited, so I extend them to one and all. Friends adieu. vobiscum.

Woodbridge Jottings.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Kyle & Co's new store is raising a furor, and with new posters up headed with the words, "A Market opened in Woodbridge last night." They are doing a good trade in the liquor line. Mr. Watson, the cooper from Elmhurst, was twice there this week with empty kegs ranging from 4 to 16 gallons each. This speaks well for the liquor line.

On Friday the school children from Kleinburg, lumbering six sleighs, drove to Woodbridge and paraded our streets for a couple of hours, the teamsters enjoying the melange as well as the children. They started for home about 4 o'clock, being all well satisfied that they came to Woodbridge.

On Friday evening a sleighing party drove up to the Woodbridge House about one o'clock from Toronto, numbering about 20 people, having with them a brass band and fully equipped for a dancing party. The large dining hall being cleared, the dancing soon after their arrival commenced and kept it up until 4 o'clock in the morning, all well pleased with their night's pleasure, and the sleighing proprietress of the Woodbridge House used them, left for Toronto.

On Saturday evening as the Salvation Army was on their parade down Pine street, they halted opposite the Woodbridge House and the new wholesale store. The Captain or some of the blood-washed soldiers ordered those that were in procession to kneel down on the snow. A great many obeyed the orders, and a few short prayers were offered up.

Mr. David Allen returned home on Thursday evening last being absent eight weeks in the State of Illinois, settling up the affairs of his father-in-law, Mr. Alfred Jeffery, deceased. He got everything wound up to his satisfaction.

Mrs. Wm. Mackie has returned being absent about three weeks at the Skating Carnival, Montreal.

Mr. M. P. arrived here on Saturday morning and remained until Monday morning, when he returned to Ottawa, taking his wife and family.

Mr. Henry Abel is expected to return in a few days, when the men that have been off work so long expect to be taken on.

Our woollen mill hands were idle a short time last week, owing to the breaking of the crank of the engine, but are running again.

Mrs. W. W. Smith is recovering very slowly, after a long severe and lingering sickness.

At Bolton Skating Carnival Misses Maggie McCallum and Sarah Gilmour of our village, carried off the first prize for fastest skating.

Regular monthly meeting of L. O. L. No. 28 in Orange Hall, on Tuesday evening at half-past seven. A good attendance is requested.

Don't order your spring suit before seeing what Wallace Bros. and their new tailor can do for you. The Less tailor they ever had.

CHANGE THE PAKE—A petition is on the rounds asking the Council to change the site of the park. What the intention is in regard to the present ground we do not know, but it seems to be the opinion that it will not answer the requirements for which it was bought without a considerable sum of money being spent on it.

LAIN AT REST—The funeral of Mr. R. Sivers took place from his residence in this village, on Tuesday last, at 2.30 o'clock. It was attended by a large number of the villagers; the remains were placed in the vault at the cemetery.

The Rev. Mr. Barker of the Methodist Church read the burial service. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Brown, Poulter, Blouie, Atkinson, Newton and Crosby. Mr. Sivers was an old and respected resident of this place, and being so suddenly taken away, after only a few days illness, has been a severe shock to his wife and family. He was in his 66th year.

The Agency buys anything that any person wants, at the lowest prices, and ships the goods by mail or express, charging nothing for the services. See particulars in the Magnet. Address Magnet Purchasing Agency, 88 Adelaide St. West, Toronto.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE—On Monday afternoon last as the two young ladies, who were on a collecting tour for the Church of England Mission Fund, and were being driven up Yonge Street by another young lady in a cutter with a horse that was somewhat spirited, an accident happened that might have proved more serious. It appears they were met and passed on the road by another fast and spirited animal, which the horse of the young ladies did not like, and therefore started off with the hopes of overtaking the other, in his endeavors he managed to get one of his legs over the shaft causing a breakage. The driver of the other team on being called to, drew up and helped the young ladies in their trouble. Great credit is due to the young lady who was driving for her firmness under the difficulty in which she was placed. If the horse had got away a serious mishap might have happened. Mr. Playter very kindly undertook to bring home the cutter and horse, also the young ladies.
