FIGHTING IT OUT.

The Franchise Bill is not yet passed through Parliament. The Opposition is fighting it hard, they have the dear peoples' interests (?) so much at heart that they do not mind spending a few thousand dollars of the people's money in obstructing the passage of a measure which apart from any other consideration, no reasonable person will undertake to deny but that the Dominion Parliament if it thinks proper has a right to pass. Why should it be thought an unreasonable thing for Sir John Macdonald to have a Dominion measure, and even made so as to suit his own friends in being more likely returned to Parliament than those opposed to him. What a horrible wrong he is being guilty of according to the views of some folks because for sooth he is not sufficiently Provincial, because he has got a mind sufficiently large to take in the Dominion as a whole. He,according to some folks' ideas, should not be trusted by Ontario, because he endeavors to give a measure to suit the Dominion at large. He is found fault with by those who advocate provincial rights. We read in some of the papers that the Opposition will carry the day at the next election just on account of this Bill. Now if this is the is playing into hands of the Reformers by shaping the Act just to suit their views, he should be considered a generous good sort of a fellow instead of being considered and called names unfit to be considered in connection with a fourfooted animal.

Some years ago he contended that these same Indians should an idea that they would support him support or no support, a vote or no vote It is not so much a question of civilization on the part of the Indians that all the fuss is made, so much as whether the gentlemen of the Opposition will be sure or not sure of the Indian vote. All things equal, the Indian is just as much entitled to have the use of the Franchise as any other person, and after the display made by the Opposition to the Indian vote, is it a thing to be wondered at, if he, in exercising his vote. should hesitate to cast it for men who so bitterly and so determinedly exercised every power within the limits of legisla-
