TO THE CLOSE.

Your course more than anything else has ruined Mr. Blake. Your tactics have been of the lowest ever known in Canadian journalism.

Do you think you can ever become respectable again? Your treatment of political opponents has been weak, unfair, dishonest and disgraceful.

THE GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED.

N. Clarke Wallace Re-Elected BY A MAJORITY OF 451.

It affords us much pleasure to announce to the readers of this paper that the Government of Sir John Macdonald has been sustained at the polls.

It affords us much pleasure to state that our candidate for West York, N. Clarke Wallace, Esq., has been once more returned to Parliament to represent us.

We had a tight fight in this municipality to give him even a small majority.

Our opponents fought and worked like beavers to carry their point so that Richmond Hill should not show a majority, but at the close of the poll they had to acknowledge themselves beaten.

Wallace's majority of 451 all over must be very satisfactory to him, and his majority in Woodbridge, the place of his birth and abode, must be very gratifying, and on the other hand, the defeat of Dr. Lynd in Parkdale by a majority of 39 must have been a surprise to the doctor.

There was one feature of the election in this place that we were very sorry for, and that was the swearing of such good citizens as Mr. John Elliott and Mr. Bricknell. Of course, the opposition had a perfect right to do it, but at the same time we question much the prudence of such a course or the object to be gained by it.

Our vote at the close of the poll in Richmond Hill stood: for Wallace 93; Lynd 90; being 183 votes. In the election in 1882, the number for Wallace was 78, and Hodgins 49; total 127; showing an increase of 56 votes.

Every municipality in the Riding gave Wallace a majority except Vaughan.

We will next week give a comparison of the votes polled last general election and the election Tuesday last.

No doubt, our candidate will give due credit to the HERALD for its support given to him during the campaign.

The ballots being printed at our office must have carried good luck with them to the Government candidate, and we hope it will show to all candidates desiring parliamentary honors in the future that they wish to succeed in their efforts they must patronize the HERALD in having their printing done.

It looks well for the country that that most able parliamentarian for mischief—should have been elected to stay at home. A fitting rebuke to him for the many scandals he has given birth to against men better than himself—M. C. Cameron.

We take the following from the World of Wednesday as the results of the polling:

A Little Previous.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 19.—The election of the Liberals, Messrs Jones and Fuller, for Halifax, is generally conceded irrespective of party.

The local elections in June last, run almost entirely on Dominion issues, gave the Liberals over one thousand majority in Halifax city and county.

Very many active Liberal canvassers think that this majority will be exceeded on Tuesday for the Liberals, and it really seems so, but the lists have been so changed in several respects not particularly to the advantage of either party, that a very close calculation gives the Liberal candidates about six hundred majority. At the same

That Markham Boodle Case.

MR HOOD READY TO FACE THE CHARGE BUT THE COURT ADJOURNS.

MARKHAM VILLAGE, Feb. 21.—Just before midnight on Saturday, Adam Hood, Vice-President of the East York Conservative Association, was arrested on a charge of having attempted to bribe certain electors of East York.

The persons on whose evidence it was said the charge was based are "Jim" Malcolm and "Sam" Lapp, two men, who it is said, have been unsuccessfully offering to sell their votes to at least five respectable Conservatives since the contest commenced.

The case was called this morning. Mr. Hood, through his counsel, Mr. W. G. Falconbridge, Q. C., pleaded not guilty. The names of the witnesses for the prosecution were called and all answered to their names.

To the surprise of everyone the presiding magistrate, Mr. J. Vanant, adjourned the case until Friday next at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Falconbridge, on behalf of his client, stated that he was ready and willing to go on with the investigation on the spot and complained of the adjournment, while admitting the jurisdiction of the Magistrate to adjourn if he felt so disposed.

No application was made in open court on the part of anyone representing the prosecution to adjourn the case.

It was quite apparent that there was no evidence forthcoming to establish the charge against Mr. Hood, and there was widespread feeling of indignation among the respectable Reformers in the neighborhood.

It was reported that one of the witnesses, Malcolm, was weakening, and the probabilities pointed to his leaving the country.

His action in this respect was anticipated by his arrest by an information being laid against him and Lapp for conspiracy.

Malcolm was arrested at the railway station. Mr. Hood has made a statutory declaration specifically denying the charges, and stating that Lapp and Malcolm approached him and asked him for money for themselves and for the purpose of corrupting Grit voters who they said they could purchase for about $3 a piece.

He told them that he had no money for such purposes and that he was certain that there was no money in the riding for any such purpose.

Lansing.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The old folks Social and Concert held in the Willowdale Methodist Church on Tuesday, 8th inst, was a grand success and more than realized the most sanguine expectations of the committee.

The waiters were dressed in "ye olden style." The ladies with their old-fashioned caps of fifty years ago and leg of mutton sleeves looked surpassingly lovely and the gentlemen looked very becoming in their old-time collars and neckerchiefs.

When ample justice had been done to the excellent viands provided by the ladies of the congregation, all repaired to the auditorium of the church where a good programme was rendered.

The choir gave selections in the most stylish manner, and the organ, the "star" of the evening was Miss Abbs of Stayner, who gave several solos and fairly captivated the audience.

Miss Abbs has a very sweet voice and rendered the selections in a very clear and expressive manner.

Mrs. John Morgan accompanied Miss Abbs on the organ in her usual first-class style.

Mr. Joseph Sheppard, the well-known elocutionist, gave several recitations, and the applause that greeted him showed that he had lost none of his old-time popularity.

The Skating Carnival at the Rink here on Tuesday evening last was indeed a grand affair, the costumes were very numerous and all of the characters selected, were well represented.

The sweet strains of the Richmond Hill Band added much to the pleasure of the evening. The attendance numbered about 300.

The following is a list of those in costume and the character represented:—Mr. Sam Dunn—"Mud Turtle"; Miss Maggie Pease—"Lady Kyline"; W. G. Long—"Irish Gentleman"; Ed J. Jackson—"Jockey"; Hattie Pease—"Florence Nightingale"; Alice M. Porter—"Snow"; Miss Wallace—"Russian Princess"; M. Long—"Rainbow"; Mrs. J. P. Stuart—"Turkish Girl"; Ruth Caruthers—"Winter"; J. Long—"Jockey"; Frank Long—"Chinaman"; W. Wallace—"Indian"; Annie Laekie—"Highland Lassie"; O. D. Bales—"Broadway Belle"; Annie Cooper—"Swiss Peasant"; Joe Duff—"Colored Gentleman"; George Cooper—"Cowboy"; George Troyer—"Soldier"; Frank Cooper—"Soldier"; A. McGlashan—"Lady of Olden Time"; Arthur Cooper—"Thresher."

On Thursday evening, March 3rd, another grand carnival is announced to take place.

DEBATING SOCIETY.—This Society meets to-morrow (Friday) evening, when "City and Country Life" will be discussed. Full attendance requested.

NEW Era Baking Powder with presents at the Fire Proof.

BY THE countenances of some of the Reformers in this village for the last day or so, we should say that Wallace's large majority has been (c)rying news to them.

NEW MOON on Tuesday last, 22nd inst., at 4.40 p. m. Have you seen it yet? And was it over your right shoulder? If so, according to old saying, you will have a lucky month.

LENTEN SERVICES.—Yesterday, being Ash-Wednesday, the commencement of Lent, Services were held in St. Mary's Church here, at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. During the Lenten Season services will be held each Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7.30 p. m.

ANOTHER GOOD TIME COMING.—The management of the Lansing Skating Rink intend having another Fancy Dress Carnival on Thursday evening next, March 3rd. The Richmond Hill Band will be present, and a good time generally is expected.

A UNION of all that is agreeable, refreshing and aromatic, Mr. W. Atkinson's Unity Tea.

ALL the members of Government were successful in being elected on Tuesday last. How wonderful after all the abuse sustained by them. Abuse is not argument, and some people found that out on Tuesday night. May it be a warning to them for the future.

NO EFFECT.—Evidently the poetry in the Liberal of last week and written by P. L. G., did not have much effect upon the intelligent electors of the West Riding of York. Probably the same author might frame a few verses on the great Conservative victory, which we will insert if space permits.

LADIES, if you want the neatest and most stylish things in Millinery and Mantles, go to the Concrete.

REGISTER THEM.—Some day or other, not far distant some person may be looking up the delinquents in the matter of registering births, marriages, and deaths. The penalty for neglect is $20, and it would be well for all those interested to see that all are registered with the Clerk of the municipality.

SPRING Goods arriving at the Concrete, Shirts, Cottonades, Denims, Tickings, extraordinary value.

LOST.—On Yonge St. between Brilinger's Hotel, Richmond Hill, and corner of side road leading to Richmond Hill Station, or on side road between Yonge St and 2nd Concession, a parcel done up in brown paper containing Winery, Cotton, and other sundries. If finder will kindly leave it with Wm. Atkinson, Concrete House, Richmond Hill, he will greatly oblige.

JUST REMEMBER.—Some people fancy they are slighted if they don't see everything they would like to in this paper. Well, how in the world do they expect us to find out everything? If you want some personals about your friends or your own family, or if you know a good thing about some one else, just hail us on the street or call at the office and it will be all right. It would be a terrible wise newspaper man who knew everything without being told.

SERMON AT ST. MARY'S.—A sermon of much force and many points was preached in St. Mary's Church on Sunday night last from the words of the 5th Chapter of Ephesians, 22d and 25th Verses, by the Rector. A large congregation was in attendance and paid great attention to the remarks of the preacher whilst he set forth before them in homely but earnest words, the duties of the husband and the wife, one towards the other, and each towards their families.

DRESS Goods sold at a great reduction at Crosby's.

ACCIDENT.—We are very sorry to hear that our respected townsman, Mr. Wm Atkinson, of the Concrete House, met with a severe accident on Wednesday last. It appears that he was in the hardware department of his store, handling some axes, when one of the heaviest and sharpest accidentally fell on one of his feet, cutting it very severely. The doctor was immediately called and stitched up the wound, but it will be some little time before Mr Atkinson will again have the free use of his foot.

RACES AT BOND'S LAKE.—The postponed races came off at Bond's Lake on Saturday last, and, although the day was rather blustery and chilly, a large concourse of people witnessed the sport. The track was in good condition, and the competition for first and second place was very keen. The following were the successful prize-winners:—1st Race—Gentlemen's Road Race—1st, L. Wide-man's Chestnut Gelding; 2nd, Wm Proctor's Chub; 3rd, Smith & Button's Kendall. 2nd Race—Free for All—1st, James Lawrey's Moss Rose; 2nd, S. Ritter's Black Gelding; 3rd, Palmer & Proctor's Sleepy Nell.

THOSE ARTICLES.—Now that the Liberal man has found out that Sir John is supported by so many of the intelligent voters of the Dominion, and that he has still a majority in the House, it is to be hoped that he will "let up" on publishing those scurrilous articles which have been adorning his editorial columns for some time past.

A SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL.—On last Monday evening a social was held at the Rectory, Thornhill, in aid of the funds of Trinity Church. The guests began to arrive about half past seven, and continued to come until between fifty and sixty had arrived, nearly half of whom were from this village. Music, songs, amusing games, and supper, served at ten o'clock, formed the programme of the evening. Shortly after midnight all had left for home, having enjoyed the affair very heartily, and leaving an addition of nearly twenty dollars on the credit side of the Church-wardens' account.

Hence these Pills are the surest strength-givers and the safest restoratives in nervousness, wasting and chronic debility. Holloway's Pills are infallible remedies for impaired appetite, eruptions and a multitude of other disagreeable symptoms which render the lives of thousands miserably indeed. Every day, almost, the newspaper reporters are sought out and begged not to give publicity to this or that occurrence. It is a disagreeable thing for any reputable scribe to write that which may hurt the feelings of any innocent person, no matter how much the guilty ones may deserve exposure.

The true stories that newspapers leave out of their reports out of consideration for the feelings of good men and women, who have committed no offense, but who are related in some way to guilty ones, are more numerous than those they do tell. But there are some things that cannot be overlooked and passed by in silence. Reporters do not make the histories of the sinful living or dead; they merely record what they may have done, and leave the public to form its own opinions and sit in judgment upon their acts. As a rule reporters do not write scandals or private misconducts, unless these scandals or doings become bold and public, and the acts are such as may scandalize the peace or good order of society. But there has always been an unsettled question in our mind, whether if it were known to a certainty that the public wrong doings of people were at all times to be held up to public gaze, it would not cause reformation in many cases and induce better behavior. There is one certain way to keep out of the papers, and that is to live and act that nothing but good can be said of us, one and all. It would be a little severe on the papers for a time, but it is a good plan.

Many Persons Suffer. From Impure Breath and suppose it comes from a disordered stomach. In many cases the actual cause is Catarrh. Nasal Balm will remove the cause, and cure.

Prohibition and Politics. The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one sure to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when left alone, even in medicine. Burdock Blood Purifier is not a bar beverage, but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunks.

Among the Indians. While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for colds and colds more throat, etc. Mrs. A.
