The business of the Post Office Savings Bank for the Dominion shows a considerable increase. The balance due to depositors on the 30th June of last year was $17,159,372, an excess of $2 068,832 over the previous year. The following figures show the increase of percentage of the past year over the year before: Percentage of Increase of number of deposits 8⅛.; Percentage of Increase of amount of deposits 7 5-7; Percentage of Increase of open accounts 10 2-7. Balance at credit of open accounts is an increase percentage of 13⅜. On the 1st September, 1885, the Post Office Savings Bank system was extended to the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, nineteen offices being opened in the former and thirteen in the latter. The larger cities and towns in these Provinces were already provided with Government Savings Banks, under the management of the Finance Department.

The total number of Post Office Savings Banks in operation on the 30th of June was 392, an increase of 37 over the preceding year.

No Savings Bank Offices were either suspended or closed, nor were there any losses by fraud during the year.

Five hundred and sixteen claims to moneys at the credit of deceased depositors' accounts were disposed of. Twenty of these involved reference to the Minister of Justice. Four additional Branch Savings Bank Post Offices were established in Toronto on the 1st January, 1887, an extension of Savings Bank facilities which, it is believed, must prove convenient to suburban residents of that city.

A petition has been presented to Parliament from the Corporation of Woodstock praying for the repeal of the Scott Act.

Canada's Credit.

"Canadian three and a half per cents have reached par. This is quite an event in the financial history of the country. The next issue of our bonds should be at three per cent."—Globe.

Such a result, says the London Free Press, forms an excellent commentary on the assaults on the part of the Grit Opposition on Canadian credit and financial standing. It is also a rebuke to those sad-hearted individuals who are forever lamenting our forlorn condition, and who are "looking to Washington" as a means of bettering their pockets. The money market of England, the great financial barometer, is altogether satisfied with the Canadian status, and it gives proof of this by buying readily at par our securities carrying only 3½ per cent. interest. When Sir Richard went a-money-mongering in England all he could get for Canada bonds was ninety-one at 4 per cent. Since that time the Government of the country has been almost exclusively in the hands of the Conservatives, and during the whole of that period the people have been assured that everything was going to the bad, and especially that the finances were in an "alarming condition." But who has been alarmed? Certainly not the shrewd, long-headed financiers in England, who accept the 3½ per cent bonds at par, a rise in their value in relation to principal and interest equal to about 15 per cent., from Sir Richard's basis. Not so very "alarming," surely! And so confident is the Globe of the continuation and solidity of the existing state of things that it predicts that the next loan can be floated at a lower (a better) point still—at 3 per cent. It is to hoped that such will be the case. In all this one sees the absurdity of the Grit contention that the public finances are in such a bad condition that it requires the united efforts of Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr Mills to put them in reputable order. Previous to and during the electoral campaign the Grit press and stump orators asserted it to be accepted as fact that the country was "drifting." The fact that the Globe itself adduces, and the expectation it indulges, is in flat contradiction of that position. Now that the campaign is over, and little is to be gained by further misrepresentation, truth is permitted to leak out, and the assurances on the part of the Conservatives of a flourishing condition of things are more than justified.

The Budget Speech.

Sir Charles Tupper brought down the Budget, on Thursday afternoon last, in a speech of five hours duration. The beauty of it is, that it is not hard to understand, the statements made are concise and clear, and not by any means uninteresting. Sir Charles Tupper does not go into details at all. The financial statement shows that the receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1886, amounted to $33,177,040.39 or about $380,000 less than the estimate. The expenditure on the other hand, owing largely to the North-West rebellion, exceeded the estimates very greatly and reached the sum of $39,011,612.26 The deficit, therefore, for that year was $5,834,571.87, about the largest that Canada ever suffered. For the present fiscal year which ends June 30th, Sir Charles estimates that the receipts will amount to $35,300,000 or about $800,000 in excess of the estimates made by Mr. McLelan last session. This increase is, according to Sir Charles, to be reckoned to the increased prosperity of the country. The expenditure will be greater than was estimated up to the same date being likely to reach $35,600,000 Sir Charles estimates for next year are that the receipts will reach $36,400,000. The expenditure is estimated at $35,041,855 or over $800,000 less than that of this year. The estimated surplus for next year is $1,358,145. Sir Charles states that on the first of this month Canada's gross debt amounted to $270,072,855.27, and the nett debt $225,105,961.08, an increase, since 1867 of $149,377,319.71. We have spent upon increased subsidies of railways, canals, &c., about $183 292,584.76 or a sum in excess of the debt by $33,915,265 05, and that after providing new customs houses, light-house system, and other items of necessary expenditure. The Dominion has now no floating debt, and her 3½ per cents. have sold at par.

Sir Charles Tupper receives from every penny-a-liner throughout the Dominion who are opposed to the Government of which he is one of the members, more abuse than would sink any ordinary man, but thank goodness he is no ordinary man, and therefore, it is, that he is capable of rising above the calumny that envious scribes bestow upon him. It is a pity, but pity it is, but too true, that men should be found capable, for the sake of the pay of a dollar or two a column, to sink their manhood in abusing their fellow-creatures upon either side of politics, but such is the fact. They are willing to write down to-morrow what they had written up but yesterday, and the public who read articles inspired by such pens, cannot be blamed if they value them but lightly and pass them by as not the true opinions of an honest mind.

The truth is that evictions in Ireland are nothing like as numerous and nothing like as heartless as they are in New York. In the last quarter of last year the total number of evictions in all Ireland was only 650. More than that often take place in New York City in a month. And while in Ireland the Poor Law Officers are required to be present at every eviction, and evicted tenants are frequently put back as caretakers, here people who can't or won't pay their rent are thrown out on the street or on the road and left to shift for themselves. Only last week an item was printed in our papers telling how a widow and seven children were evicted in Long Island and left with their little, effects on the roadside all night during a heavy storm, and how they were subsequently taken to the poorhouse, where five of the children died.—New York Standard.

The Tariff Changes.

Importers in Toronto and Montreal, especially of dry goods and iron, are up in arms against some of the changes in the tariff. Any and all changes are bound to crowd some interest or other—if they did not they would not be effective in the direction of the encouragement of home industries, which is one of the main reasons of the tariff's existence. But when the protests of the importers are sifted to the bottom it will often be found that the principal ground of complaint is that the importer had not been smart enough to clear a lot of his goods before the advance.

There are cases in which changes do inflict hardship on importers, as when a contract has been taken on the basis of the tariff remaining undisturbed, or in cases when goods have already been sold but not yet delivered. For instance, some contracts for iron have yet to be filled, and these were made on the old tariff; and some of our dry goods firms have sold large quantities of dress goods that have not yet been made, and which have had the duty on them largely increased. In these cases the Government ought to endeavor to meet the importers half-way. But, on the whole, advances in the tariff come out of the consumer and not out of the importer, and for one instance where an advance causes the importer a loss, there are ninety-nine cases where the importer, by the exercise of forethought, makes a lot of money out of the increase. Of these cases the public never hear a syllable.

The Globe is going into hysterics over these changes and the losses they entail on importers; before the public accept its howlings. The World asks them to consider the foregoing.—World.

A mass meeting was held at Toronto on Saturday afternoon last at which it is reckoned from 10,000 to 15,000 people were present. The following resolutions were passed by an almost unanimous voice:

1st—"That this meeting reprobates the action of William O'Brien in visiting this city for the purpose of exciting hostile feeling against His Excellency the Governor-General, on account of differences between His Excellency and his tenants in Ireland, and expresses its entire and unabated confidence in the high character of His Excellency the Marquis of Lansdowne, and in his fitness to represent Her Majesty in Canada."

2nd—"That this meeting looks with perfect confidence to the Parliament of the United Kingdom for a wise and just settlement of all questions relating to Ireland."

3rd—"That copies of the resolutions be transmitted to the Governor-General and to Lord Salisbury as Prime Minister of Great Britain."

At the close of the meeting this cablegram was sent "To Lord Salisbury, London: Great mass meeting in Park, Toronto reprobates O'Brien's mission and expresses confidence for a wise and just settlement of the Irish question.

(Signed) W. H. HOWLAND,
Mayor."

Mr. Ellis of the Barber & Ellis Co., wholesale stationers, Toronto, accompanied by Mr Cockburn, M. P, interviewed Sir Charles Tupper and Mr Bowell the other day in regard to the duty on paper.

Methodist Church Concert.

TESTIMONIALS.

Read the following testimonials of the excellent talent which will only appear at the Methodist Church Concert on the evening of the Queen's Birthday:

Detroit Song Journal, June, 1886.—The B. P. O. Elks gave a very successful concert on the evening of May 28th. The feature of the evening was the singing of the well-known Mehan Quartet. The Quartet's selections were chosen with much taste and executed with artistic ability, fully sustaining their well-earned reputation and giving unqualified satisfaction.

Bay City Tribune, May 22nd, 1886.—The 5th grand concert of the Bay City Musical Society took place last evening and was in every way successful. The Mehan Quartet of Detroit were engaged for the occasion and made an excellent impression. The gentlemen are all gifted with fine organs, which they use with excellent taste in part singing, their voices blending perfectly, &c.

Detroit Song Journal, June, 1886.—At the State Legislative Reunion which opened at Lansing on the 10th inst., one of the attractive features was the excellent singing of the Mehan Quartet, who had been engaged for the occasion, and whose rendering of some exceedingly appropriate pieces elicited the warmest applause from the large crowds assembled at each session.

Musical Journal, Toronto, Feby. 1st, 1886—"Mr. Arlidge's flute solo, "Du, du liegst mir am Herzen" (Bœhum) was played with his well known ability, and received an encore. There are not many performers on the flute, in the opinion of many Torontonians, who can distance our own Mr. Arlidge, and he is rapidly winning his way to the front ranks as a public favorite." [Toronto Philharmonic Society's Concert, Jany. 25th, 1887.]

Read the card in another column,

A BIG TIME ON THE 24TH.—We invite all persons desirous of spending a pleasant Queen's Birthday to come to Richmond Hill, as we intend having a big time. The Spring Exhibition will prove a greater attraction than ever and the ladies of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches will, as usual, supply their excellent dinners and teas for the small sum of 25 cents each. In the evening there will be two grand Concerts, the like of which you probably have never heard before, and we are sure that those who do not spend Tuesday next in this village will regret it,

"GRIP'S" PREMIUM PLATE.—Grip, Canada's Comic Paper, has just issued a very fine lithographed group of Reform Politicians in Canada. This is a companion group to the Conservative Leaders issued from the same office last year, and is the same size, 18x26 inches. When framed the pair make a handsome ornament for any library, dining-room or reading-room. The portraits are well executed, and the plates are a credit to Canadian enterprise. They are sold separately for 25 cents each, or a copy of either plate is sent free to any one paying two dollars for one year in advance to Grip, or subscribers sending one dollar and ten cents will receive Grip for six months and their choice of either Reform or Conservative groups. Address, Grip, Toronto, Ont.

HOME RULE.—For many years it has been the custom of the Ladies of the Presbyterian Church to hold a Concert on the evening of the 24th of May, and there can be no question that the high standard to which entertainments have been raised in this village is due, in large measure to their efforts. The rapid advancement in literary and musical circles which characterizes the "Queen City" of our country, to which we are in close proximity, has been reflected to our own village, and the Concert to be held in the Presbyterian Church will overcome all opposition, and give no uncertain sound on the Home Rule issue of this village. We have never been in the habit of instituting comparisons with nor casting reflections upon entertainments purporting to be of a similar nature as our own, though possibly they may not have arrived at that degree of excellence to which we would wish to see concerts maintained in this village. This is a progressive period in our history. Our inhabitants should be considered as possessing sufficient intelligence to think for themselves and to decide on the respective merits of the talent which is offered for their entertainment. Pachydermatous non vertebrated animals should alone be dictated to, and for such, coercion may have a semblance of justice. The mission of O'Brien may possibly injure the cause of Ireland, but that freedom of thought, liberty of speech and action are the birth-right of a free born citizen cannot be called in question. We are a loyal people and because we are such we accord to every man the privilege of forming and expressing an opinion All our talent comes highly recommended. The superior culture and inherent merit of the vocalists who will take part in the Presbyterian Concert is admitted by all.—COM.

The evening of the 24th of May, however, will be both pleasant and profitable to the many who will find admittance to the Concert to be held under the auspices of the Ladies Aid in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond Hill. Physicians

Are usually averse to proprietary medicines. Nasal Balm is a specific for cold in the head and catarrh, and having faith and evidence that it will cure those troubles, we ask and court a fair trial of the discovery, and a full investigation at their hands.

Sudden Disappearance.

"My face was covered with sores, arising from bad blood. By the use of three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured." R. E. Sinclair, Port Burwell, Ont.

A GHOST.

Come with me; I'll show you one; don't be afraid, it cannot hurt you; they only possess weakened human powers. They are those human beings who do not eat enough, or of the proper kind of food, thus becoming weakened; and they soon may vanish if they don't soon get something to eat of the proper kind. Don't scare your dear friends to death by appearing as such, but go and buy Alimental Supplies from Kirkby's and eat.

Tamarac.

A cold will often cause an irritation, dryness and soreness inside the throat. The first dose of Tamarac Elixir will afford relief.

Use Prof. Low's Sulphur Soap for Prickly Heat, Nettle Rash, Scaley Eruption, Itch, and all diseased conditions of the skin.

National Pills are sugar coated, mild but thorough, and are the best Stomach and Liver Pill in use.

Moisture is the greatest enemy of the piano, and it cannot be too carefully guarded against.

Never have a sink under a window if you can avoid it.

Lacrosse Notes.

As Lacrosse is fairly going to boom this season, we have decided to allow a small space each week for "Lacrosse Notes," and will try and secure such items as will be interesting to all admirers of our national game.

The Brantford team plays at Orillia on the 24th and Niagara Falls at St. Catharines.

The match on the Park here on Saturday next will no doubt be a rattling good one, so be sure and attend.

The Young Canadians will leave here for Ottawa on Monday evening next, about 5 p.m., in order to take the C. P. R. at North Toronto at 8 o'clock.

Mr. A. Mager, the old reliable defence player of the Young Canadians, arrived in town on Monday last, and was welcomed back home by his many friends.

Major R. B. Hamilton, of Toronto, President of the Canadian Lacrosse Association, will Referee the match in this village on Saturday next between the Ontarios and Young Canadians.

The Torontos and Ontarios have a match on the Rosedale grounds on the Queen's Birthday, and a great difference of opinion prevails at to which will come out best, as the Ontarios are credited with having a fine team this year.

We take the following from the Orillia News Letter of last week:—"There are many townspeople much disappointed because the Richmond Hill nor Paris lacrosse teams will play in Orillia this year. These two are, undoubtedly the best drawing clubs that could be brought to town. The clubs who are to play here throughout the season are all good, but they do not interest Orillians nearly as much as the two mentioned. At the end of the season, perhaps one team will be as interesting as another to us The Orillias will have a very prosperous season."

BIRTH.
