NEW PAPER.—We have received the prospectus of a new paper, "The York Tribune," about to be published at West Toronto Junction, of which Dr. J. T. Gilmour, M. P. P., is to be the editor. It is to be an eight-page weekly.

Atkinson can sell crockery cheaper than any man in town can buy them wholesale, and he can afford to give a gift with all he sells.

A HINT.—Parties who are owing for the HERALD, and have been enjoying the reading of its columns for the past 3 or 4 years or more, would confer a favor by paying the printer for his labor, material, &c. Please remit, as at this time money is much needed.

THE great Gift Sale at Atkinson's will be continued until New Year's so as to give everybody a chance to get Dry Goods, etc., at bargain prices with a magnificent gift on the head of it.

AS THEY ARE.—A public meeting was held at Unionville on the 17th inst. to consider the York Roads question. The majority voted in favor of no change in the present system, and all the candidates pledged themselves to vote for the continuance of the toll-gates, so that when the County Council meets we will know on which side of the fence to look for the Markham men.

STRIKING.—If you call at R. Siver's during the next three weeks you will find something striking in the way of ladies, gents and children's boots, shoes and slippers Good value for your money.

YORK TOWNSHIP COUNCIL.—Messrs. S. T. Humberstone, Newton Brook, is running for Reeve of the York township Council, and W. Clarke, of Fairbank, as 4th Deputy-Reeve. Both good men and true, and we hope to learn that they will be successful at the polls on Monday next. We think, however, they have made a mistake in not getting their cards printed at the HERALD office. It seems somewhat of an understood thing for York folks to run to the city under the mistaken idea that they can get their printing done to more satisfaction.

Atkinson has a grand line of fur goods in caps for $1.25 up with the gift thrown in; capes for $1.75 also with the gift; muffis, Astrachan Jackets, etc., and don't forget the Gifs.

P. T. BARNUM WRITES A STORY.—The opening chapters of a splendid story for the young, by the famous showman, P. T. BARNUM, appears this week in columns of THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER. The story describes the adventures of an American boy, whom Mr. Barnum calls "My Plucky Boy Tom," and whom he sent to India in search of wild, fierce, and rare animals to replace those destroyed by the disastrous fire at Bridgeport last month. The reader is thrilled by the hair-breadth escapes of this dauntless American boy when capturing the fiercest and wildest animals ever seen in any travelling show. THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER is for sale at all news-stands.

FIRE BRIGADE CONCERT.—All arrangements are now completed by the members of the Fire Brigade for holding their concert and social on Monday evening next. As to the social, its success is assured, as the best culinary art in the village will be exercised in the production of choice dishes for the tables. After the social, the concert will be held, and regarding the excellent programme to be presented we need only publish the names of the following talented amateurs who are advertised to take part:—Mr. Charles Savage, of Toronto; Mr. Jos. Dundum, late of Beverley, Eng.; Miss Ida Simpson, Mrs. A. J. Hume, Messrs. A. J. Hume, W. Sanderson, W. D. Atkinson, and the Harmonica Club, all of Richmond Hill. A torch-light procession of firemen with their appliances will leave the fire hall at 6 p. m. and march through the principal streets, headed by the Fire Brigade Band. A fine display of fireworks will take place immediately upon the close of the entertainment. At the exceedingly low admission fee of 25c for adults and 15c for children, the hall should be filled to overflowing.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE.—Christmas services were held in St. Mary's Church on Sunday last, on which occasion an eloquent sermon was delivered by the Rector. The Christmas decorations are very neat and pretty; thanks especially for the same should be given to two young ladies of the congregation. The offertory, amounting to $15.40, was a Christmas box to the Rector.

THE "NEWS" OF THE EMPIRE.—The new Conservative organ, the Empire, made its first appearance on the streets this morning. Its editorials are about as good as those of the Globe, only from the other point of view, and certainly some of its selections are exceedingly ill-timed. For instance, its alleged original poem dedicated to Canada is headed "The Land of Snow," but they have had far more snow this season to the south of us than we have had here. The poem is said to have been written by a New York lady, which probably accounts for its sarcastic tone. If the News was starting an Empire it would choose another poet. However, the paper has a good staff, and its first number should not be too severely criticised.

VINDICATED.—Ever since the arrival of the little immigrant known as the sparrow its usefulness and desirability have been repeatedly questioned by one class of people and as often warmly defended by another. We are pleased to state that the Biological Section of the Canadian Institute has decided that the sparrow is in the main beneficial and not nearly so destructive as is generally supposed. It was shown that the sparrow drives away frogflies, gnats, petiole-lid in luminous, and tachyctenid bicolor; that it is a deadly enemy of coleoptera-carabidæ, chelonogium album and polygonumsoiculare; and that it was seen chasing up Church-st in Toronto, a C. femur-rubrum and C. E. Carolina, and when found in the Normal School grounds it was discovered that the latter had suffered the loss of its head, both elytra, one wing and three legs, and that the thorax was badly crushed. Apart from the sympathy we feel for C. E. Carolina's friends, all this gives us great satisfaction, and we say—great science! Let it be known throughout all the land that ornithologically speaking, the character of the sparrow is vindicated.

CATTLE FAIR.—On Wednesday next the usual monthly cattle fair will be held here. At the December fair there were but few buyers and much dissatisfaction was expressed by those who had brought animals for sale. Several said the fair was "running down," "playing out," etc. Assuming that there is ground for such remarks, steps should at once be taken to remove all cause of complaint. There is no reason why Richmond Hill should not have a first-class fair every month, such as would attract buyers and sellers from a distance. The difficulty in bringing buyers and sellers together is that the former do not wish to travel fifteen or twenty miles to attend a fair unless they are assured that there will be cattle for them to buy, and the latter do not feel disposed to bring their live stock unless they are reasonably certain that there will be a good competition among buyers. In some parts of the country where monthly fairs are successfully conducted, the plan pursued in establishing them is this: As large a number of buyers as possible are induced to consent to attend the fair; their names are then printed and circulated among the farmers with a request that they inform the secretary of the fair what stock they will be able to offer for sale; the secretary forwards the list of stock to the buyers, and thus, at a trifling cost, the success of the fair is rendered certain. We trust that some steps will be taken to place the fair here on a better footing than it at present occupies.

BAND OF HOPE CONCERT.—On Monday night the Masonic Hall was crowded to the doors by people who had come to hear the second Christmas Concert by the Richmond Hill Band of Hope, and they well appreciated the efforts of their youthful entertainers. The concert commenced by a short speech from the Chairman, Mr. J. Sanderson, followed by a chorus from the Band entitled the "Jubilee of Temperance." Then came the Opening Address, which was well done by Louis Harrison, welcoming the audience and announcing the progress of the Band since last Christmas. It was succeeded by a series of well-rendered choruses, dialogues, readings and recitations, conspicuous among which were the "Motion Exercise" and "Turkey Bird" choruses by the Band, the "Essay on Girls" by William Trench, and the recitation "Night and Morning" by Estella and Annie Sheppard. The harmonica selections by six boys accompanied by Mr. W. D. Atkinson on the guitar was excellent and reflects great credit on Mr. W. D. Atkinson. After a short intermission, followed the feature of the evening, a drama, "Mother Goose and her Temperance Family"; the different characters were well chosen and represented the points taken to perfection, so that scarcely any distinction can be made, but we must not neglect to mention John Ball—the representative of Old England—and Miss Canada—that of our fair Dominion—who formed Mother Goose's court. We have, however, almost forgotten a notable personage, viz.: Mother Hubbard's dog whose principal occupation consisted in eating mince-pie. The concert closed with the National Anthem. Too much praise cannot be awarded to Messrs. John Sanderson and W. D. Atkinson, Mrs. Wiley and Miss L. Wiley, and other ladies of the W. U. T. U. for the patience and pains they have taken in training the children who now number about 130, and we hope that the Band may meet with all success. The receipts of the evening amounted to $56.
