We have entered upon another year, and, no doubt, many of us have resolved, as is generally usual at this season of the year, to turn over a new leaf, as the saying is. Many of us have just cause to turn over new leaves; but how many years has this resolve, of doing better for the future than in the past, not been thought of, without any good coming of it. We hear considerable about total abstinence in these days, about the drinking customs of society, but is their nothing to be thought of but the using consider it degrading to partake of a passing was 368. The following passed: glass of whiskey or beer. And is there not another evil in society that should be condemned? The evil of the oath and the curse, the habit of swearing is degrading and should be condemned equally with the habits of drinking and smoking. But are there not other things that should be condemned? What about backbiting and gossiping with and about your neighbors! Are these things not to be repented of? It would be well for us all before condemning the mote that is in our brother's eye, to pull out first the beam that is in our own eye. It would be well for those who condemn others in annual Christmas gathering at the residence come fault or failing to search their own conduct and household for fear that whilst they condemn others they them | host, some thirty years ago, and perpetuselves should be castaways.

A FINE PREMIUM by Miss Rachel Walker :-

TO MISS MARY J. GALLOWAY:

To Miss Many J. Galloway:

Wishing you a Merry 'Xmas and a Happy New Year, we, the members and congregation of the Methodist Church, Buttonville, in appreciation of your services as organist of our church, have met this evening to present you with this watch, as a very small loken of our estoem and regard for your very valuable assistance not only in the choir, but also in the Sabbath School, for the past fifteen years

Though at times we, as members of the choir and also of the Sabbath School, may have been indifferent and negligent of our duties, still, you have ever been faithful in the discharge of your duty, preferring unrewarded labor in God's service to your own ease and confort.

We therefore hope that you will receive this present, not as romuneration for your service, or for its intrinsic worth, but that it may keep you in rememberance of the many friends and of the pleasant hours we have spent together in Buttonville Church, working in our Heavenly Father's vineyard. In conclusion, we trust that your life may still be spared; that you may yet do as you have ever done in the past; and when your work on earth is accomplished, may you join the congregation of the redeemed, and there sing the Lamb in hymns above.
