

IT WAS HANGING IN A "WELL."

How the Body of Ben Harrison's Father was Found.

A Cincinnati dispatch says: The nomination of Gen. Ben Harrison as has set the tongues of all of the antiquarian gossip...

John Scott Harrison, the nominee's father, was a son of President William Henry Harrison. He lived at North Bend...

MARRIED IN A HURRY.

They Missed a Train in a Village and Wrote to Prevent Scandal.

A New York dispatch says: Last Thursday a wedding was celebrated in a town and a remarkably pretty girl...

The disappointed couple then retired to a restaurant near by and held a consultation. They concluded that it was impossible to get back to New York that night...

HIS BRIDE WAS DEATH.

A Young Man Shoots Himself Because His Wedding Suit Was Not Made in Time.

A last (Friday) night's Boston dispatch says: William H. Gibson, a young chemist and electrician...

The groom, however, was disappointed. He was disappointed because the family feared that the peculiar character of the melody to which he succumbed would make his body tempting to the medical fraternity of the general fear engendered...

While engaged in this work news of the disappearance of Mr. Harrison's body reached them. The bodies were removed by the ghonliar murderers and recover the bodies were redoubled.

A Perpetual Railroad Pass. A Boston dispatch says: A most singular case came before Judge Allen, of the Supreme Court, yesterday for decision.

A Widow's Revenge on a Railroad. The Savannah News says: A railroad running through Emanuel county recently killed a razor-back hog belonging to a widow, and she entered a suit for damages for the value of it.

The Skipper's Boy. "Are you the captain's boy?" asked the old lady on deck. "Yes, um," he replied bravely.

Lightning can be seen by reflection a distance of 200 miles. The old lady on deck. "Are you the captain's boy?" asked the old lady on deck.

BOUCICAULT'S WIFE WINS.

A London cable says: The celebrated Boucicaults divorced last week...

The petitioner, who had her maiden name as Robertson, and that she was born at Edinburgh in 1835, was educated for the stage, and that she first appeared at the Princess' Theatre in London, which was then under the management of Charles Keen.

Under the circumstances she consented to become his wife, and they stayed at the hotel for a week or ten days, living publicly there as man and wife.

LEFT HIM AT THE ALTAR.

Charles E. Brooks' Child-Wife Sues for a Divorce, and Swears He is After Her Money.

A Baltimore dispatch says: Florence R. Winchester, the child-wife of Charles E. Brooks, has applied for a divorce from her husband to whom she was married last March. She alleges that he obtained her consent through fraud and perjury.

Old World Jottings.

Mining operations in metal and coal are begun with great energy in China. The field of Bannockburn is about to be converted into the site of a coal mine.

Professor Huxley's second son is a student at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London.

So far Pasteur's recipe for killing the Australian rabbits with chicken cholera has failed.

Sure Not to See Him. Mrs. Yeast—Will you give Mr. Bacon a message to tell you if you should see him to-day?

He was wrong. "You are entirely too diffuse in your views," remarked Mrs. Squidly to her husband. "It is the man with one idea who succeeds nowadays."

Mr. Mowry, of Peterboro, is suffering from a peculiar accident. While driving a cat from among his poultry the vicious animal seized him by the hand and bit him severely.

FARM AND GARDEN.

How to Manure at the Lowest Cost.

One of the heaviest items in manuring the land is the hauling and spreading. This expense cannot be easily avoided, but there are many methods of enriching land that are available, though not always practical.

Early potatoes can be removed in time for a great use as manure, such as buckwheat and oats, millet, Hungarian grass or corn. These crops need not grow very high. Under no circumstances should they be allowed to mature seed, even if the season permitted, but should be turned under green.

The Willow a Sure Crop.

There is no tree that is so sure to grow without any special soil as the willow. A twig from a branch of a tree stuck into the moist earth, and the labor is completed.

For and About Women.

Madame Andre, the portrait painter, has given all her jewels, valued at $20,000, to the Paris Philanthropic Society.

Terrific Work of the French Rifle.

According to the accounts the new "Lebel rifle" is a wondrous weapon, and is destined to do terrible things in the hands of French soldiers.

Hats of Great Men.

"Seven" being the average size of a man's head as measured by his hat," says a London exchange.

Will be Willing to Risk It.

"Do you know, young man," said the old gentleman, looking keenly at him, "that in asking me for my daughter you ask me to part with something that is most dear to me?"

It is reported from Detroit that a lad named Frank Bailey, 16 years old, has such a mania for thrusting pins and needles into the right side of his face and neck that it has become necessary to send him to the Lunatic Asylum.

ary sprinkler. A gallon of tar costing 75 cents suffices for several acres of potatoes.

An "Indiana Farmer" correspondent advocates the use of rocks and stones for mulching newly planted trees, and where at hand they are superior for the purpose.

The Home and Farm gives the following novel method of making cabbage head. It says that "when the plants are about eight inches high, and have formed woody stalks, make incisions in the stalks with the small blade of a penknife, insert small pieces of wood of the size of a match, and break them off.

A cleanly kept cow will yield sweet milk with an agreeable, sweet odor, and quite free from any taint or injurious quality whatever, says Hoard's Dairyman.

THE BLACK WATCH.

Death of Sir Duncan Cameron, the Veteran Colonel of the Regiment.

General Sir Duncan Alexander Cameron, G.C.B., died at Blackheath on Thursday last. This distinguished officer was born in the year 1808, and the date of his first commission was 1826.

There is no tree that is so sure to grow without any special soil as the willow. A twig from a branch of a tree stuck into the moist earth, and the labor is completed.

Madame Andre, the portrait painter, has given all her jewels, valued at $20,000, to the Paris Philanthropic Society.

Terrific Work of the French Rifle. According to the accounts the new "Lebel rifle" is a wondrous weapon, and is destined to do terrible things in the hands of French soldiers.

Hats of Great Men. "Seven" being the average size of a man's head as measured by his hat," says a London exchange.

Will be Willing to Risk It. "Do you know, young man," said the old gentleman, looking keenly at him, "that in asking me for my daughter you ask me to part with something that is most dear to me?"

It is reported from Detroit that a lad named Frank Bailey, 16 years old, has such a mania for thrusting pins and needles into the right side of his face and neck that it has become necessary to send him to the Lunatic Asylum.

ary sprinkler. A gallon of tar costing 75 cents suffices for several acres of potatoes.

An "Indiana Farmer" correspondent advocates the use of rocks and stones for mulching newly planted trees, and where at hand they are superior for the purpose.

The Home and Farm gives the following novel method of making cabbage head. It says that "when the plants are about eight inches high, and have formed woody stalks, make incisions in the stalks with the small blade of a penknife, insert small pieces of wood of the size of a match, and break them off.

A cleanly kept cow will yield sweet milk with an agreeable, sweet odor, and quite free from any taint or injurious quality whatever, says Hoard's Dairyman.

THE BLACK WATCH. Death of Sir Duncan Cameron, the Veteran Colonel of the Regiment.

General Sir Duncan Alexander Cameron, G.C.B., died at Blackheath on Thursday last. This distinguished officer was born in the year 1808, and the date of his first commission was 1826.

There is no tree that is so sure to grow without any special soil as the willow. A twig from a branch of a tree stuck into the moist earth, and the labor is completed.

HIS GIRLS WILL BE INDEPENDENT.

A Californian's Plan for Keeping Boys on the Farm.

A San Francisco father writes to the Alta California: An editorial paragraph in a recent issue of the Alta says: "The best way to keep girls on the farm" is to "keep the boys there, and the girls will stay to keep them company."

Some competent teacher, say one of the boys, in an advanced school, where they may keep pace with the intelligence of their times. Already their new life has set its mark upon them in the glow of health and strength of limb; and withal and above all, they have work to do, that greatest of all blessings.

WASHED IN HUMAN BLOOD. The Ceremonies with Which an Ashante King is Celebrated.

When an Ashante King dies a human sacrifice of 200 victims a week is offered for three months. A King's mother died in 1810 and her son slaughtered 3,000 people, 2,000 being persons just captured from the Fantis.

The Hast to be Rich. "But now one word to the young man who is making haste to be rich. Not one out of ten thousand who give talent, energy and life to this race ever reach the goal.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

Ventriloquism in Nature. While pioneering in south Brazil Mr. Withers was struck by the low and plaintive cry of some creature calling in the night.

A Girl Abuses. London St. James' Gazette: The Archduchess Marguerite Sophie, daughter of Archduke Charles Louis, has been installed at Prague as abess of the community of Noble Ladies of the Hradiska.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

At the King enters each cell with a meat and drink offering to the departed, and the band plays the favorite melodies of that particular King, and unawares the royal visitor signs to the executioners who have followed him, and a guillotine is placed through the cheeks and killed, the King washing the skeleton in the warm blood.

A Serious Humorist.

My story is a sad one, and won't be long to tell. To any sort of meter I can suit it just as well. You'll understand my misery before the tale is done.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.

I might perhaps have since escaped the direful consequences. He'd perhaps a feeble joke when hardly in my senses.