HIGH SCHOOLS.

The St. Mary's Collegiate Institute Board has initiated a movement intended if possible to overcome the growing expensiveness and inefficiency so far as practical education is concerned of our High School system. The Board, as an evidence of the need of improvement, in these regards, notes that in the Inspector's last report upon the school, "the essential part of the work of a school—the education of youth—is passed over lightly, and with scarcely a remark, while every part of the building, and grounds, and equipment, receives a more or less unfavorable share of attention."
The St. Mary's Board further expresses its opinion thus:

"We think that a number of High Schools distributed through the country, with due regard to the requirements of the population, and the financial ability of the municipalities, is desirable, and they form an important link in our educational system but when the number of these schools entails too great a burden upon the taxpayers the whole High School system falls into disfavor, the financially weaker schools, although doing excellent work, must succumb, and only those that can afford extensive buildings, expensive equipment, and to pay high salaries, will survive. We believe we are not alone in our dissatisfaction at this continued call for further expenditure, and at the classification of our schools, not on the basis of educational work done, but on the willingness and ability of the municipalities to spend money. We believe other boards feel that, although all the Department requires in what is useful and ornamental, whether in grounds, in buildings, or in equipment, is admirable and may be desirable, nevertheless it is not always prudent to ask councils for the necessary grant to procure it. If this is experienced generally by Boards, too questions are suggested—Wherein can we best curtail or limit our expenditure and how can we most effectively lay the issues before the officials who have the control of these matters. It is evident that no one Board can successfully act by itself. Nor should any action be taken in regard to matters upon which there is such a difference of opinion among Boards."

In order to ascertain the opinions of various Boards throughout the Province the St. Mary's Board has submitted a series of questions to other Boards, which as they raise subjects of importance to every parent and ratepayer we quote in full:

1. Is it the opinion of your Board that the work required to be done by the High Schools is more provincial than local in its character, and that the burden of their support is too unequally divided between the municipalities and the Government?

2. In your judgment, are pupils passed too rapidly through our schools, whereby thorough work, or permanent value, has to give place to cramming for special examinations?

3. Do you find that monthly examinations promote sound education, or do they disturb too much the regular work of the school, exhaust the energies of teachers and pupils, and are they followed by an unhealthy reaction?

4. Do the English branches receive as large a share of time and attention as you think they require?

5. Is the teaching of science, as required by the Inspector, (a) given too prominent a place? (b) does the prescribed equipment including laboratory and practical chemistry apparatus, involve too large an outlay? (c) Are your constraints, in general, satisfied with this expenditure?

6. Has your Board fully met (or is it making provision to meet) the departmental requirements in regard to a gymnasium and the equipment thereof? (a) What do you regard as essential in the paraphernalia demanded for physical culture?

7. Is it your opinion that the general expenditure required by the Department in support of High Schools and Collegiate Institutes (grounds, buildings, equipment, staff, etc.) is greater than municipalities can afford at present?

8. How many mills in the dollar do you require to raise in your municipality, by taxation, to support your school, ordinary expenditure only?

9. What means do you suggest as best adapted to bring these, and other matters of a like nature before the notice of the Department? Do you consider the Ontario Association of school trustees to be the best?

Retaliation.

We are rather glad than otherwise at the American threats of retaliation. It will help to make a nation of us and depend upon our own outlets to the sea using our own sea ports, it could not have come at a better time. Hope that it may be more than a political dodge of Glover's.

We have before us a copy of Sir Charles Tupper's Budget speech in the House of Commons, made 12th May, 1887. When looking to this thing happening he made use of the following language:

"There is, however, Sir, a single cloud on the horizon, and it is right that I should spend a moment in giving that a passing notice—that is, the question of threatened non-intercourse on the part of the great Republic to the south of us. Now, Sir, I need not say to the House that the question of the protection of our fisheries has not been a party question in this House. The protection of our fisheries was urged by hon. gentlemen opposite and their press through out the period since the abrogation of the Washington Treaty, probably with more vehemence than it was urged by the members and press supporting the Government. All parties were at once, upon the question that it was the duty—a duty from which no Government in Canada could for a moment shrink—that we should maintain the admitted rights of the people of this country."

Surprise Party and Presentation.

On Thursday evening, Aug. 23rd, 1888, the Legates of the late Robt. R. Grundy, met at the residence of Mr. William Lawson, Executor, lot No. 21, Con. A. Markham, spent a very enjoyable evening, and on the eve of their departure presented him with a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary accompanied with an address, much to the surprise of the recipient.

The following is a copy of the address:

TO WILLIAM LAWSON, Esq.
Sir—We, the Legates of the late Robert Grundy, your father, have met here this evening to render you our sincere thanks for your services in connection with the duty you have so faithfully and imperially performed. It doubtless must have been at times a task on your mind but never relaxed you in doing it cheerfully and well, giving satisfaction to all parties concerned, and we hope you will accept this small donation as a token of our appreciation of your services as Executor.

May God bless you in every year to spend and inwardly dignify the contents, not that we think you have so much need of the information contained therein, but that we know we have bound you express a desire to have such a book, we thought we could not better please you than to present you with a copy of the dictionary.

May God bless you and take care of you the remainder of your life, it is our sincere prayer.

Signed by
MRS. ANN MCGOWAN,
MRS. ANNE MCINTOSH,
MRS. ANN MCGOWAN,
MRS. ANN MCGOWAN,
MRS. ANN MCGOWAN, (Administrators).

Mr. Lawson, who was much taken by surprise at the presentation, in reply made a few feeling remarks regarding the late Robt. Grundy, and also of the family still living and said that while performing his duty as Executor, he had done all with this motto, "Thou God seest me," and prayed and hoped that when done with this life to meet them all in Heaven at last.

In returning thanks to the donors, the book he said would be highly prized by him, and would be an heirloom in his family.

These Pills strengthen the nerves, and are the safest general purifiers of the blood. Nausea, headache, dizziness, numbness and morbid apathy yield to them. They dispatch in a summary manner those distressing dyspeptic symptoms, stomachic pains, fulness at the pit of the stomach abdominal distension and regulate alike capricious appetites and confined bowels—the commonly accompanying signs of defective or diminished nervous tone. Holloway's Pills are particularly recommended to persons of studious and sedentary habits, who gradually fall into a nervous and irritable state, unless some such restorative be occasionally taken.

FOR OLD PEOPLE!

In old people the nervous system is weakened, and that must be strengthened. One of the most prominent medical writers of the day, in speaking of the prevalence of insanity, tremor among the aged, says: "The various pains, rheumatic or other, which old people often complain of, and which materially disturb their comfort, result from disordered nerves. There it is in a nutshell—the medicine for old people must be of a tonic nature. Old people are best with constipation, flatulency, drowsiness, diarrhoea, indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, &c."
