The republicans feel that the President is trying to "steal their thunder." They question the President's sincerity and speak of his action as a political move. They generally assert that he has ail the power necessary if he is in earnest, and that this is merely an excuse for delay in action upon the resolution authorizing retaliation.

Members of the medical profession are looking forward with considerable interest to the meeting of the congress of American Physicians and Surgeons. It will convene in this city on the 18th of September, and the sessions will continue through the 20th.
