Canada's Great Fair. The Toronto Industrial Exhibition which closed on Friday last, was the best ever held. The attractions this year far exceeded those of previous years, the Viennese Lady Fencers and Siege of Sebastopol being exceptionally good. In the machinery building there were no great inventions but yet the genius of mechanics in this department was not at a standstill. The quality of the stock and horses showed that Onhumble one storey building planted in tario has much to boast of in the possession of good blood and breeding, and the street is made to do duty in this that the efforts of those interested in the high development of horses and cattle have already had no inconsiderable success. Among the prize winners in this line we notice the names of Thos. Read, Victoria Square, 3rd on two year old
