

THE TIMES

VOL XI

RICHMOND HILL THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1889.

WHOLE NO 1,606 NO. 47.

"I MUST HAVE HELP"

Included Mrs. Fox Dies in Agony Under the Care of Faith Healer

A Syracuse despatch says: The funeral of Mrs. Fox took place at her home No. 80 Erie street, this afternoon. To-morrow the remains will be buried in Oswego.

The attendance at the Paris Exposition has thus far averaged 71,000 persons daily. It is reported that Sir Charles Russell's fee for acting as counsel for the Parnellites is $10,000.

A landlord has been arrested in Kingston charged with evicting a tenant at the point of a revolver. Rev. Mr. Evans, Church of England clergyman, of Buckingham, Que., was drowned yesterday while out sailing.

The death is announced of Dr. Alex. Harvey, Emeritus Professor of Materia Medica in the University of Aberdeen. Work on the Kingston dry-dock was commenced yesterday morning, and it is expected to take two years to complete it.

The house at West Lorne, St. Thomas, to which the smallpox has been successfully confined by the exertions of the Chairman of the Board of Health, was burned last night, and the Chairman was entertained to supper and presented with a cane.

Thomas Elvert, a demented man, at Tweed, attempted to commit suicide by drowning on Sunday, but was rescued by parties returning from church services.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

On the banks of the canal at Montreal last night, fell in and was drowned. Mr. Donald Ohlholm, M.P., Vancouver, B.C., who has been seriously ill in Ottawa for some months, is slowly recovering.

A gunner named Herbert Skinner, of the marine artillery, had a wounding at Newcastle, Del., on Saturday for eleven officers, and afterwards exposed for one hour in the pillory.

Three-quarters of a million dollars worth of new buildings are going up at Stratford this season. The contractors all have their hands full.

The statistics of the recent smallpox epidemic in the neighborhood of St. Thomas are quoted as affording strong evidence of the value of vaccination.

The Alabama expedition arrived at Sault Ste. Marie on Friday night, and report the trouble with the lumbermen to be over. They are expected to return to Montreal on Saturday.

The argument on the motion in reply to the exception to form in the Jesuit-Edit case was heard on Saturday before Judge Lavigne at Montreal. Judgment was reserved.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

Principal Grant, of Queen's College, Kingston, Speaks in Hamilton

To A PRETTY FAIR AUDIENCE.

It Is Decided to Form a Branch of the League in Hamilton.

It was somewhat of a surprise to those who attended the Imperial Federation meeting in the Grand Opera House on Saturday night that the attendance was not larger.

The question of Imperial Federation is one of importance, but my views upon it are not yet definite enough to express here. I therefore call upon Principal Grant and Mr. McCarthy to address you upon the subject.

Principal Grant was given a hearty ovation upon arising. He said—Mr. Mayor, ladies and gentlemen, I wish to ask a few plain questions of my fellow citizens to-night and to answer them boldly, and without imputing motives to any one.

A number of Conservative members of the British House of Commons, under the leadership of Mr. Henry Chaplin, have endeavored to impress upon the mind of Mr. Goschen the extent of the hardship imposed upon the landed classes by the proposed alteration of the Exchequer duty on the purchase of the land.

The London police made a raid on the Field Club at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and found gambling going on. Most of the players were engaged at baccarat, and large sums were being staked.

Arrangements for the holding of the Annual Camps. A special telegram from Ottawa says: The dates for the several camps of exercise have been decided as follows:

OUR CITIZEN SOLDIERS.

Arrangements for the holding of the Annual Camps.

A special telegram from Ottawa says: The dates for the several camps of exercise have been decided as follows:

District No. 1—18th June. District No. 2—21th June. District No. 3—24th June. District No. 4—27th June. District No. 5—30th June. District No. 6—3rd July. District No. 7—6th July. District No. 8—9th July. District No. 9—12th July. District No. 10—15th July. District No. 11—18th July. District No. 12—21st July.

The locations of the camps have not been decided upon, except with regard to District No. 2, which, as usual, will be held at Niagara. For District No. 1 the choice lies between Windsor and London, and for the united camps of district No. 5, it is expected that Kingston will be selected.

The estimated expenditure for the current year for the city of Toronto is $14,230,000 in dollars, as against $14,812,000 last year.

The Mayor of Collingwood yesterday laid the foundation stone of the Marine and General Hospital which it is proposed to build. A lady interested in the Montreal Boys' Home has handed the Superintendent a cheque for $4,000, to be devoted to building purposes.

The Mayor, Ald. McMillan, Ald. Gillespie and City Treasurer Coady, of Toronto, will visit England on an early date to float city debentures amounting to three million dollars. The funeral of Count Tolstoi, late Minister of the Interior, took place at St. Petersburg yesterday. The czar was present. He has donated to the widow 200,000 roubles and granted her a yearly pension of 6,000 roubles.

THE MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

A singular case of mistaken identity occurred to-day, when Mrs. James Duke, of Delhi, Wis., arrived here in company with her husband, children, and a man as her host, a cigar-maker named David Robinson, who is the foreman in the factory of Messrs. Robinson & Watson.

The lady, who is well dressed and quite prepossessing, confronted her alleged husband this evening, and even after conversing with him was not satisfied that he was not her lost husband until she examined his wrist for a scar. Failing to find this she broke down and admitted that she was mistaken in the man.

Rev. Mr. Burns said: Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen—You have taken an unfair advantage of me to-night. I came here to hear you speak, and I have not been disappointed. With the whole spirit of the address I have been delighted, but I did not come to talk. I enclose almost every word of the eloquent address; I call it not an oration, as Mr. Brown has designated it, but an unanswerable argument.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

THE MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

A singular case of mistaken identity occurred to-day, when Mrs. James Duke, of Delhi, Wis., arrived here in company with her husband, children, and a man as her host, a cigar-maker named David Robinson, who is the foreman in the factory of Messrs. Robinson & Watson.

The lady, who is well dressed and quite prepossessing, confronted her alleged husband this evening, and even after conversing with him was not satisfied that he was not her lost husband until she examined his wrist for a scar. Failing to find this she broke down and admitted that she was mistaken in the man.

Rev. Mr. Burns said: Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen—You have taken an unfair advantage of me to-night. I came here to hear you speak, and I have not been disappointed. With the whole spirit of the address I have been delighted, but I did not come to talk. I enclose almost every word of the eloquent address; I call it not an oration, as Mr. Brown has designated it, but an unanswerable argument.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, upon arising to speak to the resolution, was received with enthusiastic cheering. He said he had come to Hamilton to hear Principal Grant, not to make a speech himself. Five years ago, he said, he was a student in London, England, when the Imperial Federation League was formed. He took no part in it at that time. Three years ago the league was organized in Canada. He had felt doubtful of its success, even when Principal Grant was formed and Kingston was its headquarters. He had seen the support of the level-headed people of Hamilton. Separation of Canada from Britain could not be accomplished until all Canadians were as one man and demanded it, which would never happen as long as the people of Canada were divided. He was glad to see the union between the provinces, and he was glad to see the movement of the Imperial Federation League in Hamilton to address the people.