CATARH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS—HAY FEVER A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

Local and General.

The Candid Truth
I USED Hayzard's Yellow Oil this winter for the first time for croup and I must say I find no better remedy for it. Miss Riad, Listowel, Ont. Yellow Oil is a specific for croup and sore throat; it never fails.

The folks who go out of town to trade when they could save money at the concrete are away off on business.

THE Rev. Dr. Wild preached in Bond Street Church a farewell sermon to his congregation before his departure next week on a long voyage.

VALENTINE'S DAY comes on Friday of this week. A fine assortment of fancy Valentines can be had at the HER-ALD store.

ASH-WEDNESDAY—Services will be held here next Wednesday, in the English Church, at 7 p. m., and at Trinity Church, Thornhill, at 11 a. m.

GRAVELLING—The Vaughan Council has been improving the road between here and the station by putting on over a foot of gravel from near Yonge Street for a considerable distance.

WANTED—Mr. Wm. Richardson, proprietor of the Maple Hotel, is asking for tenders to improve and remodel his hotel. Carpenters and masons should see the adv. in this issue or see bills.

TRouble—There is trouble in the Reform Camp in East Middlesex. Mr.
Purdum, a law partner of the Hon.
David Mills, was nominated by the convention and now a Mr. Bartram announces himself as an Independent Candidate.

THE PULPIT—Last Sunday evening the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, of Laskay, preached a very interesting sermon to a large congregation, at the Methodist Church, here. His remarks were well chosen and they will long be remembered.

LANSING RINK—The Metropolitan Skating Rink at Lansing was opened on Tuesday evening for the season. The Fire Brigade Band from here was present and provided lots of good music.
The boys say the ice was in excellent order and a grand time was spent.

WISDOM is justified in her children says the proverb. 'He meaning is plain, the beauty of wisdom become apparent in the actions of the wise. A wise man does wisely, acts wisely, buys wisely, spends wisely, in short you can sum it all up by saying the wise man trades at the concrete.

SKATING—The new rink will be open for skaters on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, from 7 to 9:30 o'clock, Thursday afternoons from 2 to 6 for ladies and children. Admission, adults 10 cts; children under 15, 5 cts.
Tickets at reduced rates can be had from the caretaker.

A O. U. W.—The Workmen of Ivy Lodge No. 114, were visited by Bro. W.
P. Cole, D. D. G. M., on Tuesday evening.
After the transaction of business and listening to an able speech by Bro.
Cole, the members adjourned to the Grand Central Hotel where oysters were served in good style. A very pleasant evening was spent.

CURLING—A meeting of Richmond Hill Curling Club was held Monday evening in the Council Chamber at which a good number of members was present. The Council gave the Club the use of the Rink on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, and every afternoon during the week except Thursday, for $20 during the season.

ANNUAL RACES—The races at Bond's Lake come off to-day and to-morrow. Considerable interest is being manifested in them and there will, no doubt, be a lively time here on this occasion. We understand a change has been made in the course on the lake so that the whole of the race may be seen at once.

OPENING CARNIVAL—A grand masquerade Carnival will be given on the new skating rink in this place, to night (Thursday). The Fire Brigade Band will be in attendance and provide excellent music. Rink opens at 7 o'clock.
Those in costume free; adults 15 cts; children 10 cts; non-skaters 10 cts.
The Committee is sparing no pains to make this a grand success and it is to be hoped that all skaters will be present and help to make this first carnival attractive.

STRICTLY LOYAL—We notice The Steele Bros. Co., seedsmen, King St., Toronto, have in their Catalogue hoisted the Canadian Flag, with the motto "Quality First" and have nailed it to the mast. They evidently recognize the fact that the farmer is "the bone and sinew" of the country, judging by the illustration.

ENTIRE EXEMPTION—Ald. Hallam, of Toronto, who a few years ago, was the chief spirit in a crusade against exemptions from municipal assessment, has published an open letter to Attorney-General Mowat, in which he advocates entire exemption of income and personally from taxation, leaving only real properties subject to it.

THE GREAT NELLIE BLY.—Nellie Bly's wonderful story in the Family Story Paper is the talk of the day. In towns where there are no newsdealers the Family Story Paper will be sent to any address four months for $1., containing Nellie Bly's Great Story. Address Munro's Publishing House, 24 and 26 Vandewater St., New York, N. Y.

ASSIZES—At the Civil Assizes, before Mr. Justice Street, the case of Mr.
John Langstaff vs. Markham Township, an action to recover $2,000 for alleged injury to property, was taken up. The plaintiff claims that the defendants closed up a drain and turned the water from its natural course, thus flooding his land. The case was adjourned. J. H.
Scott and W. H. Walbridge for the plaintiff and Holmes & Gregory for the defendants.

JUMPING ON SLEIGHS—We are sorry to hear that little Lornie Morris, a boy about eight years old, of this village, met with a painful accident on Monday afternoon while attempting to jump on a bob sleigh which was going up Yonge Street. Lornie tried to get on at the side of the sleigh, but it was going too fast and he fell back, the hind bob passing over one of his knees, bruising it badly. It is a wonder more of the boys are not hurt and we hope this accident will be a warning to them.

LECTURE—A lecture under the auspices of L. O. No. 91, will be delivered by Rev. Bro. Perry, G. L. O., of Lloydton, in the Victoria Hall, Thornhill, on Monday, Feb. 24th, 1890, on the subject, "Canada and Orangeism." This lecture will be very interesting to the ladies as well as gentlemen, and it is hoped that a large number of both ladies and gentlemen will be present on this occasion. An entrance fee of 10 cents will be charged to defray expenses.
The Rev. W. W. Percival will occupy the chair.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS—THE SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT which appeared in our columns sometime since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J.
KENDALL CO., of Ennsburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work FREE by sending their address to B. J. KENDALL CO., (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise." No. 23

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE is one of the handsomest catalogues published. The illustrations are intended to give the reader a correct idea of the plant or flower illustrated. The grossly exaggerated, absurd pictures which deface so many catalogues and reflect upon the integrity of those who issue them, do not appear in this. The list of potatoes is good, and several new kinds are offered, among them the Early Market. It is said to be of the Ohio Class and is especially recommended for early marketing as the quality is excellent in the early stages of growth or "unripe" condition. The entire catalogue is one that the R. N. Y. greatly commends to the examination of its readers.—Rural News Yorker, New York, N. Y. Send 10 cents (which amount may be deducted from first order) to JAMES VICK, seedsman, Rochester, N. Y., for copy of GUIDE.

SAD DEATH—Seldom has it fallen to our lot to record so sad a death as that of Mr. J. T. Porter. He was struck down in the vigour of man hood and at the opening of what promised to be a career of renewed business prosperity. On Wednesday of last week he went to Toronto, and having entered the wrong train at Brock street station, returning, he had to run two miles to catch the proper train at Parkdale.
This exertion at a time when he probably already had incipient influenza, resulted in his feeling ill before reaching Orillia, and there being no hack at the station, he walked to his home, which he reached quite sick. Mrs. Porter promptly summoned medical aid, but he grew worse, pleurisy supervened, and he died Sunday night. He had been known and liked by the people of this district nearly twenty years. He first came here as a clerk to Messrs. G. M.
Wilson, Thompson & Co. He afterwards established a good business at Morrisburg, but subsequently returned to Orillia as manager for Mr. Frank Kenn. Next he entered into partnership with Mr. C. Moore, and after about two years purchased Mr. Moore's interest.
Since then he has succeeded in cultivating a rapidly growing trade, and only a few days before his short sickness he moved into larger premises. He leaves a widow and four children. Though so long a prominent member of our business circle, Mr. Porter was only about thirty-seven. In compliance with the wish of his widow, the body was buried in the Roman Catholic cemetery. The Protestant burial service was read at the residence, according to the Ritual of the Methodist Church, by the Rev. G. H.
Porter, M. A., brother of the deceased, and the funeral procession was led to the cemetery by the Rev. Mr. Porter and Rev. Father Campbell together. There

To the Electors of West York.

Your Vote and Influence is requested at the next election in West York for the Ontario Legislature on the following platform:—
1. Equal Rights for all classes and creeds. Stand for Canada before party in resisting French and clerical aggression.
2. Provincial Rights should be subordinate to the interests of the Dominion at large.
3. Abolish the Separate Schools and have the English language taught to all citizens.
4. Abolish School Book monopoly and make Schools more efficient.
5. Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic and the placing of Licenses, so long as they continue, and civil service appointments in the hands of a Non-Partisan Commission.
6. A Registration shortly before Elections to save the expense and complications attending present system and also a secret ballot.
7. The continuance of the National Policy, so long as the United States maintain present attitude.
8. The preservation and development of mineral and timber interests.
9. Make Elections come on a fixed day so that neither party could surprise the other by springing an election on the country.
10. Place the redistribution of constituencies in Ontario with the Judges of the Court of Appeal.
11. Before capital gets the hold upon our country that it has upon the United States, the position of those who labor should be made unassailable.
12. Honesty, economy and efficiency in all departments.
With the above amendments the strong holds of the bootiers, office-seekers and those who trade upon race and creed for place and power would be broken down, and many a home now destitute and deolated would be made comfortable and happy.

A Cure For Deafness.
THERE have been many remarkable cures of deafness made by the use of Hayzard's Yellow Oil, the great household remedy for pain, inflammation and soreness.
Yellow Oil cures rheumatism, sore throat and croup, and is useful internally and externally for all pains and injuries.

The Authorized Statement of Hon.
John Macdonald's Will.

Hon. John Macdonald appointed as his executrix his wife, Annie Elizabeth Macdonald, and his sons, John Kidston Macdonald and James Fraser Macdonald, as his executors.

He directs that his wife shall have the use of his late residence, "Oaklands," and ten acres of land adjoining, with the use of his horses, carriages, books, pictures, plate, manuscripts, trawls and household furniture during her life and the sum of $10,500 income during her life.
He bequeaths to the Trustees of the Park Hospital for the purpose of erecting a building in memory of his beloved daughter, Amy Harvard Macdonald, the sum of $100,000.
He bequeaths to his son, John Kidston Macdonald, the sum of $75,000, and to his son, James Fraser Macdonald, $25,000 in recognition of their industry, energy and attention to the business of John Macdonald & Co.
He bequeaths to Victoria University in connection with federation, and for this purpose only, the sum of $25,000.
He bequeaths to his brother, Alexander, the sum of $12,000, to his wife $1000 and to his three children the sum of $1000 each, to James M. Macdonald the sum of $7000, to his mother the sum of $2000, to his sister, Jeanette, $1000, to his sister, Nellie, $1000 and to his brother, Duncan, $1000 and to his sister, Maggie, $2000.
To the Ywille College the sum of $1000, to the Campbell Trust for the sum of $1000 as a slight recognition of his confidence in him.
To the Home for Incurables of the city of Toronto the sum of $2000.
To the University of Toronto for the "Macdonald Scholarship" the sum of $2000.
To the Toronto General Hospital for the "Amy Macdonald Sick-Relief Fund" the sum of $4000.
For the contemplated Mission Hospital for the Indians and Guelph College the Methodist Church of Canada the sum of $2000.
He bequeaths to his employees at the time of his decease who have been in his employment for 20 years the sum of $500 each, and for 10 years at least the sum of $250 each.
To the domestics who have been in his employment at Oaklands for two years and upwards the sum of $50 each.
He bequeaths the residue of his estate to his 19 children in equal parts share and share alike.
He directs that the business of the firm of John Macdonald & Co. be continued by his surviving partners, John Kidston Macdonald and Paul Campbell, and be conducted in his warehouse on Wellington and Front-streets, under the style and name "John Macdonald & Co." and that his second son, James Fraser Macdonald, be admitted as a partner.

Amherst Acknowledgments.
I ACKNOWLEDGE the good I received from Burdock Blood Bitters. I had constipation, irregular bowels and accumulation of wind, causing severe pain in my stomach. Two bottles of B. B. B. cured me. It is all you claim it to be."
