To the Electors of West York.
 Your Vote and Influence is requested at the next election in West York for the Ontario Legislature on the following platform:— 1. Equal Rights for all classes and creeds. Stand for Canada before party in resisting French and clerical aggression.
 2. Provincial Rights should be subordinate to the interests of the Dominion at large.
 3. Abolish the Separate Schools and have the English language taught to all citizens.
 4. Abolish School Book monopoly and make Schools more efficient.
 5. Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic and the placing of Licenses, so long as they continue, and civil service appointments in the hands of a Non-Partisan Commission.
 6. A Registration shortly before Elections to save the expense and complications attending present system and also a secret ballot.
 7. The continuance of the National Policy, so long as the United States maintains present attitude.
 8. The preservation and development of mineral and timber interests.
 9. Make Elections come on a fixed day so that neither party could surprise the other by springing an election on the country.
 10. Place the redistribution of constituencies in Ontario with the Judges of the Court of Appeal.
 11. Before capital gets the hold upon our country that it has upon the United States, the position of those who labor should be made unassailable.
 12. Honesty, economy and efficiency in all departments.
 With the above amendments the strong holds of the booters, office-seekers and place and power would be broken down, and many a home now destitute and desolated would be made comfortable and happy.

Yours, &c.,

CATARRH,
CATARHIAL DEAFNESS—HAY FEVER
A NEW HOME TREATMENT.
 Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhial deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.
N.B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H.
 Dross & Sox, 303 West King Street,

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—At a meeting of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church held last evening, it was decided to have the usual dinner and tea on the 24th inst. The ladies of this church are noted for their ability on such occasions, and every effort will be made to sustain their past reputation.
HEADFORD.—A Dairy Maid Social was held at Headford on Tuesday evening last under the auspices of the Methodist Church Choir. A good programme consisting of singing, recitations, dialogues, etc., was dispensed to the satisfaction of all present, and we believe the whole affair, financially and otherwise, was a decided success.

A WISE MAN.—It has been mentioned to us that it was a wise act of the chairman of the Orr Banquet, in placing Mr. Clendenan's name first before the meeting, as it is an indication of the way the names will be at 5 o'clock on the evening of the 5th June. Looking at it in this light we are willing to concede that it was the proper thing to do.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—A meeting of the directors of the R. H. & Y.
 S. Agricultural Society met yesterday afternoon at Lorne Hall, to receive reports of committees, etc. Considerable satisfactory business was done. We are glad to learn that the prospects of a satisfactory fair, providing the weather be fine, is good. The amount of money and goods promised being about $400.
 The directors will meet again on the 23rd, at 1 p. m.
EARLY GARDENING.—Now is the time to sow Sweet Peas, if you want a good mass of flowers throughout the season. Amongst the most beautiful, are Vesuvius, a charming spotted rose-color; Adonis, rose-pink, a new color; Scarlet-winged Butterfly, white ground, delicately laced with lavender-blue, and fragrant; Painted Lady and Violet Queen.
 All the new and leading sorts are sold by the Steele Bros. Co., Seedsmen, 132 King St. East, Toronto.

TIMELY WARNING TO THE BOYS.—
 It will be noted during the past week or two that the small boys of the village, have been deriving considerable amusement from the firing of firecrackers upon the street. This sort of play is, as everyone knows, very dangerous, and in some instances has been the cause of great loss of property, and even of life.
 Now, boys, if you wish to keep out of trouble desist immediately as the authorities have determined to put a stop to this practice, and will accordingly punish every offender.
GRAND CONCERT.—The concert held annually on 24th May by the Richmond Hill and Yonge St. Agricultural Society has always proved a great success, and this year their concert promises to eclipse all former ones. The following excellent talent has been secured:—W. A. Ramsay, T. H. Lister, A. J. Neill, Maude Alexander, of Toronto, and Miss Ida Simpson, of Richmond Hill. These performers are all so well and favorably known that it is unnecessary for us to make further comment. Suffice it to say that those who do not attend the concert to be held in the new Agricultural Hall on the 24th, will miss a treat that only comes once in a lifetime.
ON THEIR GOOD BEHAVIOUR.—It is said two hotels in Thornhill are allowed to be kept open three months without being granted licenses. What a farce! If they are unworthy to be granted licenses for the year, why allow them to dispose of liquor for three months? What a farce our license law is, and what a lever for good or evil it can be made. The honest electors will do well by changing the Ministry of the day and by that means change the ways of appointing and granting licenses.
 Three months' probation means, if you do your duty in assisting us again into power, we will take your cases into our most favorable consideration.
EAST YORK CONSERVATIVES.—A business meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the E. R. of Y., was held at Unionville on Monday.
 We were gratified to learn from the expressions of the various speakers that the prospects of Farmer Gibson's election to serve in parliament were very bright.
 The following gentlemen addressed the meeting, which was one of the most orderly and most enthusiastic meetings we ever attended at the old place, Messrs.

 Macdonald, Doctor Shaw, McMurphy, Hill, Lindsay, Button, Severn, Humphries, Mason, Hewitt, Brown, Tran-Jennings, Marsh, Langstaff, McKinnon, Dr. Reesor and others, in five minute speeches. Farmer Gibson in returning thanks referred to the short-comings of the Mowat Government, to the necessity of a change in the administration; he touched upon the license question, upon the school question, upon the ballot question, upon the hold a certain church claims over the state, upon the active work required to be performed to secure victory on the 5th June. He wanted no bribery on his behalf; all he asked was each man who desired the salvation of his country to do his best on the 5th of June to bring voters to the polls and he thought victory would crown their efforts. If defeated he would accept the defeat, feeling well assured that he had the confidence, esteem and respect of every right thinking man. Mr.
 Gibson spoke well and sound upon the great questions of the day for about an hour. He also said he understood joint meetings of Messrs. Smith and Gilmour were being held at which he was indirectly invited, but he did not intend to go to such meetings for his experience was fair play could not be expected or would not be given.

To the Editor of the Herald: At a political meeting held on Wednesday evening, in Woodbridge Hill, Dr. Gil-mour conducted himself in a manner, which, to say the least, was unbecoming a gentleman and respectful to the feelings of his own supporters. Mr. Clendenan gave such an able and gentlemanly address, and so clearly exposed the acts and tactics of the Mowat administration, also some of the Dr's acts, that he (Dr. Gilmour) made a complete exhibition of himself. A number of times he flew into a passion and even sprang to his feet. Another characteristic feature in the Dr's speech was the attaching of opprobrious names to Mr. Clenden-an, such as "satan," etc. Now, sir, if the Dr. has an idea that he is going to gain any votes by such mode of procedure, I can assure him he is far mistaken. The opinion of the public is that the anger displayed by the Dr. is a clear proof of the weakness of the cause he is trying to uphold, also a sure precursor of his defeat.
 Dr. Gilmour is doomed in West York.
 Baker Tait, of Toronto, assisted the Dr.
 Did I say assisted? I meant injured him.
 I deem it useless to mention anything about his harangue. The following anecdote best illustrates his case: A patient complained to a doctor about his head; after examination he asked the doctor if there was anything wrong, to which he replied, "I know nothing in it." Now, sir, Mr. Tait comes before an audience and misrepresents statements made by certain persons; also uses language unbecoming a political stump, and as a whitewash has the impudence to insult the Methodist body by telling the people that he's a Methodist. If he is a Methodist I am sorry to belong to that body.
 Although this was Dr. Gilmour's meeting, the feeling at the close, greatly inclined to Mr. Clendenan's side. Mr. C., from his logical reasoning and truthful enunciation of facts, scored a victory.

 McMahon and Dr. Wilson.
 After short addresses from the retiring President and the newly-elected officers the meeting adjourned.

Last Night's Meeting.
 The political meeting last night was largely attended; a large number of ladies being in attendance. Although we have a full report of the speeches made, our time before going to press and space will not permit us to go at full length into the subjects referred to by Messrs. Gilmour and Smith. It was a matter of regret that these two gentlemen had it all their own way. Mr. Clendenan has, up to the present time, faced these two gentlemen upon every platform, but last night's and cannot be said that he has shown the white feather.
 Mr. Gibson on the other hand has not as yet held or attended any meetings.
 Mr. Trench was chairman of the meeting and towards the hour of nine o'clock stated the time had come to call upon the speakers—having first asked the question if any one representing the Opposition desired to speak to come on the platform.
 Dr. Gilmour on rising to address the audience referred to the absence of Mr.
 Clendenan and the great regret it gave him to speak about him in his absence. He referred to four years ago soliciting the suffrages of the people of West York to support the Mowat Government and at his success at that time after a spirited fight.
 He asked if he had not, not upon personal motives for it, but for his own interests it would be better for him not to go into politics, but for the purpose of supporting Mr. Mowat who has been in power 18 years without his opponents being able to point to a single stain upon his character.
 His opponents years ago made appeals to the Irish electors to return them to power but were unsuccessful in their efforts to gain their ends. He referred to a Yankee speculator who tried by foul plots to upset the Mowat Government. In 1886 the book called the Ross Bible did duty as a battle cry against the righteous government of Mr. Mowat. Now, in 1890, we have the "Equal Rights" policy upon which Mr.
 Meredith and his friends are anxious to get into power.
 Dr. Gilmour then referred to the platform of Mr. Clendenan, plank by plank and commented on them as he went along making the most out of those that he thought were a little shaky, but passing more lightly over those that no fault could be found with. Referred to the great source of wealth we have in our timber limits. The financial system of Mr. Mowat, if he desired, could have been shown at the present time to equal to forty or fifty millions of dollars. He praised the educational system of the country which costs us nine and a half millions of dollars; arts and agriculture over two millions; asylums over nine millions; colonization roads two millions; justice three and half millions. Pointed to the kindness of the government in spending the County of York in one year $20,000 for the benefit of the poor. With the criticism the Opposition could bring against the Government, a difference of two mills in the dollar could only be discovered.
 And went on to say that Mr. Clendenan and his friends being in power there would have no surplus of six millions to point to.
 Went into the history of separate schools, showing how the Liberals with Mr. Mowat had the lion's share, until 1863 the Act was passed that granted separate schools. Showed the Conservatives were then to a man the friends of the Catholics.
 Referred to the Act as being an Imperial Act, which the Imperial Parliament would not change unless asked by all the four older provinces. Falsified history by saying separate schools were allowed in New Brunswick.
 Referred to each general election and the schemes, according to his view, of Mr.
 Meredith to gain power, but they were all defeated, and he looks with confidence to the result on the 5th June. Read a little part of Mr. Meredith's speech at London.
 Stated that the leader of the Opposition in the dying days of last session, sought to introduce a motion in regard to separate schools as it stood, but he said if the time ever came in which separate schools should go, he (Mr. Meredith) would do his duty.
 Referred to a question asked him at Thornhill the night before about Manitoba schools, and said Manitoba had the power by Act of Parliament to do away with separate schools if it thought proper. Stated that all the provinces since Confederation had asked for fifteen amendments, but it would never be granted. Said that the Ontario to approach the Crown alone and ask for an amendment to the Separate School Act. Announced the astounding doctrine that Protestants in the province of Quebec have the same rights as they have in Ontario, knowing full well that the truth is, that no dogmas are taught in the public schools of Ontario, whilst they are taught in the public schools of Quebec. He ac-knowledgeed that the Act of 1863 was a finally as regards separate schools, yet he commended the Mowat Government for doing what he called improving the Act.
 Referred to the privilege of the separate schools having their taxes collected by the city officials, Referred to the passing of candidates from the separate schools and from the public schools and stated there was one per cent. difference between them in regard to the number passing into the high schools. Showed the great flouts under the Mowat administration of getting the Catholic and Protestant children to assimilate together into the high schools, but this could not be done with the public schools.
 Commented the agitation in regard to finding fault with separate school inspectors being paid out of the treasury.
 Said that the Mowat Government had done more for temperance than any government under the sun. That he was a better temperance man than Clendenan, as the latter went for prohibition from the word go, but that he, Gilmour, liked to take it step by step.
 He was no hypocrite and considered himself as good a temperance man as anyone.
 While as for Clendenan he was in the hotel business and indirectly making money out of the liquor trade. Accused Clendenan of having a grudge against the license commissioners and of having accused them of acting wrongly in office, but he defied him to point out any wrong Mr. Dewar or any of the others had been guilty of. Claimed that the Mowat Government had reduced the licenses to one-third what they were when the Crooks Act was first passed.
 Referred to the Methodist Conference having passed a resolution in favour of the Crooks Act in 1882.
 Referred to the school-book monopoly and tried to lead his audience to believe that the publishers of Toronto are so simple and so generous that they are actually publishing books at less than cost for the benefit of the public, and giving up the profits.
 Judge Morgan (although Conservative in politics) has been since he has been on the bench so fair that no one can find fault with him. The Doctor, however, evidently forgot the Globe in his rant about him.
 He claimed he was always a temperance man and always voted that way. He believed the present centralization of power into the hands of the Government the best for the country. He would not go back to give the municipalities the power they once had in respect to liquor licenses. Praised the Mail for some references it made to the goodness of Mr. Mowat.

 Referred to Frank Turner being tightened up by the course, and terms of his tightening up by the Tory Convention at Weston.
 He spoke for an hour, and made room for G.
 B. Smith.
 Mr. G. B. Smith came smiling to the front, expressed great regret at the absence of his opponent. Had not Mr. Gibson as a former candidate when the Ross Bible was his theme, the Ross Bible is now dead. It was useless for him to continue after the able speech of Doctor Gil-mour. To keep you after the eloquent remarks you have just listened to would be no use.
 So far as the line Mr. Meredith is making his last kick on, he, Mr. Meredith, has spent the best part of his life in opposition. "Equal Rights" is now his hope of gaining power.
 Referred to the Globe in connection with their information of the J. E. Clendenan. Was much pleased to see the presence of the ladies at the meeting, and hoped some day to see them in parliament, but the time had not come. He invited him of his front garden to see the beautiful flowers (the ladies) mixed up with the roses and pansies, but they had not time to strain for ten minutes, he went on to tell a story of a young lady he met from Hamilton who was a great admirer of the French language. He said that she had not come to nothing about politics, but at the same time she was a great admirer of the French language. She asked him the difference between French and English. He told her that difference between Grits and Tories was whatever John A. was able to do, he did it.
 This part created considerable laughter. He referred to the fact that Mr. Meredith's great speech at Toronto on Thursday night, when he spoke for six hours, that he was not aware that his opponent was absent. The Mowat Government is only arraigned on small matters.
 The English paper is economical of the truth in its columns, but on the contrary the Globe is truthful every time in connection with the speaker's explanation upon the school book question. Told a long yarn about Mr. Oughton and his paying a cent for every book he bought. Told how the Minister of Education managed to crib the books from Mr. Oughton's desk. Made out of Mr. C's face of voice, Mr. O was having said he paid 10 cents for a book when he only paid six. Read a letter from a store keeper in Quebec, and said that the French schools were his next theme—praised the French schools of the French language in the French language for what he had done.
 Dr. Byerson, who is now dead and gone, was blame for the introduction of the French language in the schools of Ontario. Said that we had English Separate Schools in Ontario as well as French and pity it was to deprive the poor French children of their mother tongue. He said that the French language was the history of the French invasion into Ontario—which has all appeared before in the Globe. Stated that the English language was a becoming universal throughout the Globe.
 He said that the English language was the disabilities under which the English speaking people were suffering in the schools of
